Session 1959.

143rd of the General Assembly.

Vol. 36.

HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1959.

No. 110.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, November 12, 1959

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, offered the following prayer:

At the beginning of this day's session, O God, we come to Thee as we invoke Thy blessing upon this solemn assembly. We turn to Thee for Thou art our Source, our Strength, and our Salvation.

At Thy word not only our world was called into being, but man as well was created and endowed with certain unalienable rights. In order to live his life to the fullest, man needs to turn to Thee; so, in the knowledge that Thou art our strength, we look to Thee this day. And with the consciousness that man's hope for eternity lies with Thee, we pray for Thy great love to grant us that eternal peace when our call comes to leave this world.

At the conclusion of this moment of prayer, O God, we pray for Thy guidance and care during the coming days. And bring us to these hallowed halls at the beginning of next week with renewed strength and vigor for the work which lies ahead. This we ask in Jesus' precious name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Wednesday, November 11, 1959 will be postponed until printed.

The Chair hears none.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I raise the question of no quorum.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria raises the question of no quorum.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will close the doors of the House and admit only Members and Officers of the House during the quorum call.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the names of those absentees who have not been granted a leave of absence.

Mr. O'NEIL. I do not wish my name read as being absent, Mr. Speaker. Before he calls those names, O'Neil was present.

The SPEAKER. At the conclusion of the calling of the roll of the absentees, the roll of absentees will be corrected by deleting the names of those present—the late arrivals.

Mr. O'NEIL. I am not absent. I am present. I wish my name removed and not announced as being on an absentee list. I am here.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is on the Floor of the House and will be marked present.

Any gentleman whose name was called and who is now in the Hall of the House can properly be marked as present. We are going to simply call the names of those who did not answer to the roll call, not to show that they were absent, but in order that the list of the absentees could be properly corrected.

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, have you asked for leaves of absence for today, to give an opportunity for the Majority Whip to give the names?

The SPEAKER. We cannot take the request for leaves of absence until the fact of a quorum is established. When we establish the presence of a quorum, then the House can take any action it desires.

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The House can then grant leave of absence to those it desires, but we must first establish the presence of a quorum.

Those who arise in their places and are now actually present in the Hall of the House should be included in the roll of those present, and the Desk will see that they are recorded. The way to handle that is that when the roll of the absentees is called, the Member answers present if he is in the Hall of the House.

Please understand it is simply those who did not answer when the first roll was called. The roll of the absentees will be called and Members who are present will answer "Present" and they will not appear on the absentee roll.

The Clerk will read the names of those who did not answer to their names.

The names of those absent were read.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TOMPKINS. I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TOMPKINS. They read the names of four Members who had been granted leaves of absence for the week. Should not they have been recorded properly on this roll?

The SPEAKER. The Chair requested the desk not to read the names of the Members who have been granted leaves of absence. If they did that, the desk has been in error.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, they read the names of the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hocker, the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Ashton, and the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Stroup, who have previously been granted leaves of absence for this week.

The SPEAKER. Those who are absent by leave are a matter of record and the Chair asked the desk not to record those having leaves. Does the desk have a record of those? The desk will read the names of those who have leaves. The Chair will explain the parliamentary situation that confronts the House after the names of those who have been granted leave of absence have been read and the Clerk has reported the presence of a quorum.

The CLERK. Those who have been granted leaves of absence are as follows: Breth, Dennis, Ashton, Auker, Hocker, Wood and Stroup.

The Members recorded as being present were as follows:

The SPEAKER. The desk reports the presence in the Hall of the House of 154 Members. A quorum is therefore present.

It is now within the province of the House to grant leaves of absence to those who are recorded as being absent. After those leaves have been granted, if there are any Members who have not been granted leaves of absence, a motion to bring them into the Hall of the House would be in order. But, the request to grant leaves of absence takes precedence. It is within the province of this House to grant as many leaves of absence as it desires in its discretion.

The Chair will now return to leaves of absence and give the respective Whips opportunity to compile the lists of those for whom they desire to request the House to grant a leave of absence. The Chair desires that those requests, instead of coming from individual Members, be collected in one document by the respective Whips.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I think there is a method of short-cutting all this. I believe that under our Rules a motion at this time would be in order to dispense with further proceedings under the call of the House.

I move that we dispense with further action under the call of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I think a motion to grant a wholesale leave of absence to Members who are not here, to leave them off the hook, is entirely out of order and unfair. The procedure started here was with proper intentions not to hurt anyone, but to see that this House is conducted in an orderly fashion; and the Members who were elected and sworn to be here, without a justification for not being here. I say that motion is improper and out of order at this time.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman raise a point of order on which he desires the Chair to rule?

Mr. FARABAUGH. I certainly do.

The SPEAKER. The Chair must hold that the House is sovereign, that a motion to grant unlimited leave of absence for no cause stated is within the province of the House, and the motion is in order at any time a Member rises, is recognized and makes it. The motion can be carried, or it can be defeated at the option of the House.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I do not want the imputation attached to the motion I made that by such motion there are to be unlimited leaves of absence for Members not present for any reason whatsoever. I do not believe there is anything in the Rules, or anything in the decisions of this House that puts such an imputation on the motion that I made. I think that after this motion is either carried or defeated, you can then go into leaves of absence. I know that some Members have already come into the House who are marked absent on the call of a quorum. I therefore suggest that my motion is a simple one and it means exactly what it says, without imputation of any leaves of absence.

The SPEAKER. Does the Chair understand the gentleman to contend that after his motion has been carried there can be any further action at this session regarding leaves of absence?

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Yes; I think the question of a quorum could be called a half hour from now.

The SPEAKER. The Chair must disagree with the gentleman from Philadelphia. The House can dispense with further proceedings under the quorum call, and the question thereafter of absentees is not properly before the House because those who are not present have been granted leaves of absence.

The Chair will further amplify. The gentleman is right to this extent, that there is no blanket order now, if his motion carries, for sending for absentees, or granting further leaves of absence. Under strict interpretation of the Rules, which we have not adhered to in the past, the effect of the gentleman's motion would be to dispense with further proceedings as far as sending for absentees was concerned, and then it would be in order to have the respective Whips file requests for leaves of absence as a matter of record.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. ROVANSEK asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Mines and Mineral Industries to meet during the session of the House.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. McCANN. Some Members have come into the Hall of the House since the quorum roll call. Now you are running another roll call. Do they vote, or do they not?

The SPEAKER. Anybody who is in the Hall of the House will vote, and the fact that he is voting on this particular question establishes his presence in the Hall of the House.

Mr. McCANN. That is right. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHAAF. Mr. Speaker, am I in order to speak on the motion at the present time?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is in order to speak on the motion.

Mr. SCHAAF. Then I would like to respectfully suggest for the consideration of the House that the measures that are about to be taken are essentially punitive. I take this position personally: That a man is answerable as a Member of this House to his constituents and he is answerable, certainly, to his God for his conduct. I think this House has much better things to do than to even move toward the direction where we are sending out after absent Members at this late date in the week. I think this is essentially punitive. I think in the whole scope of things that it is entirely wrong. If they are absent, they are absent. They have to answer to other persons.

The SPEAKER. The effect of the motion is not to send out after them, and the effect of the motion is curative in the present proceedings rather than punitive.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, according to my count we now have more Members here than we had last evening. We certainly have a quorum; we have a lot more than a quorum. We have more Members here on a Thursday than I have seen here on a Tuesday or a Wednesday. I think the motion is in order, and I think the Members of the House, in respect for themselves and the Members they associate with, should certainly vote in favor of this motion.

The SPEAKER. The motion is in order. It is in line with the procedure under the call of the House.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia is entirely unfair and unreasonable in his request. You have given an opportunity to have leaves of absence if they so desire. That was proper procedure, and he is wrong in asking to dispense with that at this time. It was the proper procedure that was begun here, not to hurt anybody but to conduct an orderly procedure of this House without a lot of delay as he has suggested. I ask the Members to vote down that motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires once again to endeavor to explain the parliamentary procedure. This motion simply means that we will not proceed forthwith to send for Members who failed to answer the roll call—After this motion has been decided, if it is decided in the affirmative, then the question will come before the House as to who should and who should not be granted leaves of absence, and those who are not granted leaves of absence can be sent for.

The Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that gives a wholesale leave of absence to those who are not here?

The SPEAKER. It does not.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Then I make a motion, Mr. Speaker. I move that the Chief Clerk be ordered to instruct the sergeant-at-arms to bring to the House those—

The SPEAKER. The Chair would call to the attention of the gentleman from Cambria that the motion made by the gentleman from Philadelphia having prevailed, and having been endorsed by the House, further proceedings under the call must necessarily be dispensed with and the next order of business is leaves of absence. Following leaves of absence the House can or cannot, as it elects, grant leaves or refuse to grant leaves. If it refuses to grant leaves, then the absentees can be sent for.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, is it proper that leaves be granted without just reasons?

The SPEAKER. That is a matter wholly within the discretion of the House.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection
House Bill No. 1968, Printer's No. 1896;
was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection
House Bill No. 1963, Printer's No. 1867 and
House Bill No. 2171, Printer's No. 1842
were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, when we have cleared the first and second reading calendars, in line with the basic agreement we had yesterday, we will caucus for a short period of time to cover the third reading calendar.

The Minority Leader yesterday stated that he would have to have a caucus; I also stated that we would have to cover these bills and vote on them today. We are in a position now on our markings to go to caucus regarding final passage and third reading bills on the calendar and resolutions.

Mr. Speaker, we had planned it a little different than this. It is now fifteen minutes to twelve. We were talking about ten-thirty, quarter to eleven at that time. So, I am going to ask for a recess. We will have to have a recess of one hour and thirty minutes so you can have lunch at this time. Our intention was to go right through.

I am going to place it this way: the sooner we get back here, the sooner you can leave to go home today. So, the sooner you finish lunch, the sooner we get the caucuses over with, the more daylight time you will have to travel home today. I will ask that all Democrat House Members bring with them their House calendars to the new House Caucus Room. We will eat first, right now, for a period of 35 or 40 minutes, and then the caucus will start. In an hour and a half we will be back here on the floor of the House, and I ask everyone please cooperate and come back here and come to caucus on time.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. May I interrogate the Majority Leader, please?

The SPEAKER. The Minority Leader may proceed.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to suggest to the Majority Leader, many of the Members would like to be on their way home as quickly as possible. Could we make this one hour? I believe we could eat for one-half hour, and our caucus certainly will not last over one-half hour. We could be back here at a quarter to one, I am sure.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am more than pleased to cooperate in that way. Let us do it right away, eat and come right up to the caucus and get going.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, let's forget lunch and go to work.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I know how the gentleman feels about this, but may I say that there are quite a few Members in this House who have complained to me, especially some who have some illness have objected strenuously to not being able to eat around lunch time and also no later than 6:00 or 7:00 at night. I would like to cooperate with them, please.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I believe on our side we would like to caucus first. We will proceed immediately to our caucus room and caucus first and then have lunch.

BILLS RE-REFERRED

Mr. ROVENSEK from the Committee on Mines and Mineral Industries, returned with the recommendation that it be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations, House Bill No. 2018, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 29, 1945 (P. L. 1132), entitled "An act providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about coal mines in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; * * *" further regulating the salary of the first aid and mine rescue instructors.

The SPEAKER. The bill is re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. ROVENSEK from the Committee on Mines and Mineral Industries, returned with the recommendation that it be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations, House Bill No. 2019, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 25, 1945 (P. L. 289), entitled "An act providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the coal mines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; * * *," regulating the salary of electrical inspectors.

The SPEAKER. The bill is re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the Chair declares a recess of one hour.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. AGNEW. For the benefit of the Members of the House and for informational purposes only, Mr. Speaker, what is the correct response for a Member to make on a roll call following a quorum call or for any other purpose when we are not merely voting "Aye" or "No," but to show that we are here. Is the correct call "Present" "Here" "Aye," or what is it?

The SPEAKER. If we wanted to be very technical the correct response would be "Present" but if a Member say "Here" the Chair recognizes it.

Mr. AGNEW. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The correct response is "Present" that is the object of the inquiry, to find out whether he is or is not present. So, the correct response is "Present."

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. SCHWARTZ asked and obtained permission for the Committee on State Government to meet during the session of the House.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Tompkins for Mr. FETTEROLF for the remainder of the day.

Mr. BELL for himself at 3:30 p. m. today.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2388, entitled:

An Act amending the "State Highway Law" approved June 1, 1945 (P. L. 13242) authorizing acquisition of property necessary for present or future highway purposes.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this bill not because of the great content of the bill, but because of the objectionable nature of one feature. I am speaking specifically about Section 226. Incidentally, I do not think copies of this bill are on the desks of the Members, because I had to go up and get one from the front desk.

My objection to this bill as written is contained solely in this section. This section would permit the state, once it had condemned land and made an entry into the land, to later come through and revise its plans and relinquish the condemnation. There is no time limit in the bill to which the relinquishment would be confined. In other words the state could come in, condemn a man's home, later decide they did not want the home and tell the former owner, here, take your home back, and you have your remedy at law, you can go and sue the Commonwealth at court.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, in my district the state has given some notices of this nature, the home owners have moved out, they have gone to new neighborhoods, they have gone to new homes, their community life has been disrupted, and for the state to come back at some later time and say, here, we do not need your home, take it back, if you have damages, go over to court and sue us. I say this is stepping on the rights of the people. When the state condemns and when the state enters, the state should pay, and should not be allowed to change its plans at any time it desired in the future.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, throwing half a brick or half a truth is just about the same. They go much further than a whole brick or a whole truth.

Let us look at the section to which the gentleman refers, and reading from that section, the latter half of it, on page 6, "Provided however the court shall make such order as may be just to compensate such owner for any loss occasioned by such condemnation, physical entry and subsequent relinquishment." It is not necessary for you to litigate. This is an absolute authority of the court to compensate that property owner for any loss that results. I do not see what could be any fairer than that.

I can foresee, as everybody else can, that there may be a possibility of the Commonwealth condemning, then due to some unforeseen circumstances, they may not have been able to get their financing, anything could have happened to make the Commonwealth change its mind, but as long as there is adequate provision to compensate the property owner for any loss occasioned I think the bill is fair.

This, by the way, was an amendment to the bill. Originally it had the word "may." The word "may" was taken out and replaced by the word "shall," so that I think the provision, if it is read carefully, is a very fair provision.

Mr. BOWMAN. Mr. Speaker, to the extent that this bill authorizes condemnation of lands not for highway purposes, but for the purpose of moving buildings on land condemned for highway purposes to another location, this bill is unconstitutional. The power of condemnation, the power of eminent domain as granted to the state, yes, the state, by the Constitution of Pennsylvania, does not extend to the point of condemning land for non-highway purposes in the name of the Commonwealth. That is precisely what this bill does. This bill in one section states that for the purposes of relocating improvements on land condemned for highway purposes additional condemnation may take place to locate buildings. To that extent this bill, in my opinion, is clearly unconstitutional.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman raise the point as to the constitutionality of the bill?

Mr. BOWMAN. I am merely giving the Membership of the House the benefit of my personal opinion. I am not asking for a determination of constitutionality by this body.

Mr. A. M. LEE. Mr. Speaker, just a brief word on the question raised by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Bowman.

He and I attended the same law school at the same time, we were taught the same thing and I assume that probably over the course of time we listened about equally as well.

He has raised a question, however, about the constitutionality of this provision which permits the relocation of property in order to diminish damages by virtue of the construction of highways throughout the state of Pennsylvania. I think the nub of the question which he raised is as to whether such condemnation for relocation is or is not a highway purpose. In my opinion certainly, in a liberal construction of that provision of the Constitution, it would be a highway purpose.

I would only say, Mr. Speaker, that we of course, are only the Legislature and we can only pass the laws. It remains for the courts to give the ultimate answer as to whether or not the power purported to be given by this bill is or is not beyond our power to create.

Mr. BOWMAN. Well, Mr. Speaker, it grieves me to disagree with my fellow colleague, fellow law student and fellow colleague in this House, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee.

I perhaps did not pay as much attention as he did in the constitutional law course, but be that as it may, I agree with him to the extent that the ultimate decision of constitutionality obviously lies with the courts. However, there is a heavy burden on this House, a heavy burden on us as individuals, to certainly consider the constitutionality of any legislation passing this House, and it is only with this thought in mind that I put to the Members of this House this question for their own determination. If you are going to liberally construe the Constitution, if you are going to say that economy can be translated into highway purposes, if you are going to say that diminution of damages is going to translate a condemnation into any public purpose, in my opinion we have gone too far, and much too far, if any of us are to have any recognition, any hope, any belief in the individual property rights of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I want to say that I agree with everything the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Bowman, stated.

I spoke on this bill when it first came up a couple of weeks ago and then the bill was put on the postponed calendar, particularly as to this particular section. The amendments added to the section since have helped it somewhat so far as the zoning ordinances and plots that have already been approved for planning and so forth are concerned. But to my mind it has not changed one iota man's rights to own property, and to say what business might be established on that property.

Now they have put in here that in the case where there are no zoning ordinances, or no planning commission in effect, the township supervisors, or the particular municipality in which this particular property is located which is going to be condemned may move there some business, some junk yard, a garage, or some family you might not want to have as neighbors on your property or adjacent to you. Surely that is an individual property right. You bought the land and you have a right to say who will occupy the ground that you buy, unless it is for the safety, health and welfare of the people of the state as a whole.

I agree with Mr. Bowman that certainly if we pass this in its present form we are going a long, long way, and I hate to use this term, toward a police power of the state or a police state, where the state is all powerful. They can say to any man no matter whether he owns a property or not, we are going to take it and we are going to put a garage on there or whatever might have to be moved and we are going to put a business or a junk yard there, no matter what it might be. I say then we are going a long way toward making a police state out of our Commonwealth. I do not believe any of us want to take a step in that direction at all. To say that you are going to extend the right of a highway department or even of a municipal subdivision, to say that a man's property can be condemned for such a purpose as this under the so-called police powers of the state, safety, health and welfare of the people of the state, is certainly going beyond the wildest stretch of the imagination of what has always been my understanding of what constituted the police powers of the state. I think you are going away off the beam if we adopt this.

I raised the question three weeks ago, hoping that some proper amendment would be put in that you cannot condemn a man's property for such a purpose unless you get the consent of that person who owns that property. That of course is doing away with the right of eminent domain, yes, but why should we give the right of eminent domain in such cases as this to the state, when it is not going to affect the safety or the health or the welfare of the people of this state except to save them money.

I think it is terrible legislation, with this amendment in this bill the way it is now, and I sincerely hope and ask every Member of the House to vote against this bill so that the proper safeguard at least can be put in this section to protect the person's individual property right. It is a God-given right and he ought to have a right to retain and keep it.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I have to agree with the gentleman's philosophy, but I do not think that his philosophy applies to this particular bill.

I think that this bill is clothed with adequate safeguards, even considering the section of the bill that Mr. Bowman was referring to. The only time that they have a right to take land under this bill for other than strictly highway purposes is enumerated in the bill. It is where the taking results in a land lock parcel or an economically useless parcel of property which is left over after they have taken the piece for highway purposes. I do not see anything wrong with that. If they are doing other than that the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania still have their courts to which they can go to determine whether or not the highway Department or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are trespassing on their property rights.

This bill by an amendment had a new section put in that we do not have in the law, I refer to page 11, in which the Highway Department is now required to pay the property owner the sum of 75 percent. We do not have that in any law at the present time. We passed, I think in the last session, a "may" bill, a permissive bill, this bill says "shall." This is certainly a departure in the law which is beneficial to the property owner. This bill gives the property owners more rights now than they have ever had before. I say that we should not be picayune by picking on a word or a phrase or a sentence. We should read the entire bill from cover to cover and determine whether it is beneficial legislation in toto.

Mr. BOWMAN. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, I believe has failed to heed his own admonition when he said the bill should be read in its entirety.

My objection is limited solely to section 22, on page 4, which specifically says "the acquisition of unimproved property for the purpose of moving and establishing thereon, buildings and structures located on land required by the highway," and so forth. The bill by its own language says for a purpose other than highway purposes, it is for the purpose of moving another building.

In my opinion it is that section and that section alone which is unconstitutional. I have no objection whatsoever to the remainder of the bill. The bill otherwise is an excellent bill in my opinion and the provision which he put so much emphasis on with respect to the payment of damages in the court in the total of 75 percent of the estimated amount is a fine provision. However, that does not alter the fact that this bill by its own language in subsection 22 on page 4 specifically says they are condemning land for non-highway purposes by their own terms.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I am going to be very brief.

The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, said let us not be picayune. On the one side you have the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the other side you have a home owner, the only thing he owns is his home, his right to live in a neighborhood, and I say that we should be very jealous in giving more power to the state of Pennsylvania than they already possess. Sure you can go to court, you can get your remedy in court, but what do you have to do, you have to prove your damages, and who can put a dollar value on the loss of your neighborhood. Furthermore when you go to court, you pay an attorney, one of my own profession, and you might pay him as high as 25 percent. I say this bill is bad.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to belabor the issue and I will only be a minute.

I want to go back to the section 22 that Mr. Bowman refers to, and let us read it. It says:

The acquisition of unimproved property for the purpose of moving and establishing thereon buildings and structures located on lands required for the highway.

Now it goes on further:

Where the owner of the buildings and structures consent in writing to the moving and where acquisition costs would be reduced by the moving.

In other words, this is limited to a situation in which the owner of the property consents to it in writing. It still limits it, it says, "required for the highway." It is therefore limited to highway uses and purposes.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I will not take up the House's time too much longer but, I think the statements of the gentleman from Philadelphia, ought to be clarified.

It does not provide for the consent of the property owner on whose land you are going to move the building or the junkyard or the garage or whatever it might be. Yes, it provides for the person who is going to be moved, his consent, but what about the poor guy who does not have anything to say about what is going to be placed on his land, that is the point we are raising.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to say to the House that, of course, we are at a crossroads, really, in the life of our highway transportation system.

You all know that I fought the building of the shortway because I come from the northern tier counties and we felt highway Route 6 should be the system. I have advocated we should build that shortway and the other great expressways that are planned all over the state as rapidly as possible. It seems to me that a bill of this nature is necessary in order to expedite the highways that are planned under the interstate highway system.

It seems it might be worthwhile if the Majority Leader would appoint a committee of Members who are for and against this bill to come up with an answer so that something can be done this Session to make it possible for a quick, orderly and economical building of this huge network of roads planned under that interstate system. I am saying this to the Majority Leader, is he going to get the experts together and come up with a bill that we can all vote for?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of Senate Bill No. 184, entitled:

An Act amending the title and act of June 25, 1937 (P. L. 2123), entitled "An act to define and restrict the obligation of persons engaged on connected with or employed by certain newspapers or press associations in testifying as to the source of information procured or obtained by such person" extending the provisions of the act to include certain persons connected with radio and television stations.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2436, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959) entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court * * * certain state officers and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly * * *" changing time for payment of certain portions of salary and expenses.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, bill 2436, Printer's No. 1873, is a bill that deals with our present salary payment schedule of the House of Representatives and the Senate of Pennsylvania.

As you know each month, except the month of December, payment checks are given. This bill would grant payment to the Members of the House and Senate in the month of December in the odd numbered year, which is not the year of election. Therefore, in that year which would be like this December, the regular monthly payment would be made, the regular January payment would be made, not the double payment which is normally paid in January. Then in the year in which all of the Representatives are elected to the House there would be no payment in December, but the double payment in January. This bill does not, in any way, add any additional money that is now paid.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

WELCOME

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would like to welcome to the Hall of the House two young gentlemen, Charles Flinner and Neal Murphy, journalistic students of the University of North Carolina, who have stopped in the hall of the House on their way to the Indianapolis, Indiana, Conference on Journalism.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2447, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959) entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphan's courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County * * *" changing the compensation of the members of the General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading? It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCANN. House Bill 2447, Printer's No. 1898, is the second bill dealing with the present pay and expenses of the Representatives and Senators of the General Assembly.

This is the bill that would change the present $3,000 salary and $3,000 expenses to $6,000 salary, and the last section of the bill provides that it should be effective at the time the Constitution would permit. For example, I believe that you will agree that you cannot, by the Constitution, change your salary during your term of office. Therefore, this legislation would be enacted and passed, and it would solve the questions that may arise or could arise regarding retirement payments and social security payments. This makes very sound legislation in solving that situation. There is no additional compensation in any way in this bill to any Representative or any Senator.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, we understood this bill was to be carried over.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, that was true until I mentioned to the Minority Floor Leader that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gelfand, would explain the situation in the conference with the Senate. I believe I should yield the floor to him.

Mr. GELFAND. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe there should be any debate on this bill. All I was going to do was explain the situation. This is the same bill which passed the House on August 18, 1959, by a vote of 194 to 1.

It seems the Senate had exactly the same bill originating in the Senate, and they passed the bill unanimously, I believe, and it got over here. Since the House bill is going to be held up in committee on the other side of the building, they are requested that we report out the Senate bill and pass it in the House. There is no difference between this bill and the bill that was already passed here on August 18.

I have here the Legislative Journal of August 18 which says this:

The purpose of this bill is to repeal Section 650 of the Penal Code.

Under Section 650 of the Penal Code it is a crime for a pawnbroker to accept for pawn any article from any minor under the age of 16. We have at the same time on our statute books a section in the pawnbrokers Act which makes it a crime to accept anything to be pawned by a minor under 21. In other words, our law is presently in conflict. The Penal Code says under 16; the Pawnbrokers' Act says under 21.

In order to clarify the law we wish to simply repeal the applicable section in the Penal Code and make it very clear that it is our intent that it shall be a crime for anyone under 21, that is, for any pawnbroker to accept for pawn from anyone under 21.

As I said before, the House passed it by a vote of 194 to 1 at that time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman from Allegheny withdraw his objection to considering the bill at this time?

Mr. GOLDSTEIN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 983, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "Public School Code of 1949" providing permanent certification for certain persons teaching in private institutions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mrs. REIBMAN, Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 983 is a bill which would permit teaching experience in private institutions from which the Department of Public Instruction purchases services on a tuition basis to count toward permanent certification.

If you look at Section 1205 on page 2 of the bill you will note that the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall issue a permanent college certificate to every graduate of a college or university approved by the State Council of Education, and of such departments as are approved by him, when the graduate furnishes satisfactory evidence of good moral character and successful experience in three years' teaching on a provisional college certificate.

In the first place a provisional college certificate must have been issued, then a permanent college certificate will be issued after the credit on experience in public schools of the Commonwealth, in private institutions from which the Department purchases services on a tuition basis and in state aided and state owned secondary schools.

The private institutions from which the Department purchases services on a tuition basis are taken from the directory issued by the Department of Public Institution, and they are these: Furman Clinic School for Crippled Children, Industrial Home for Crippled Children, Nursery School for Hearing Handicapped Children, Overbrook School for the Blind, The Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, Watson School for Crippled Children, Royer-Greaves School for the Blind, Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children, Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf.

The other state owned schools which are referred to in this bill are the Pennsylvania State Oral School for the Deaf, Scotland School for Veterans' Children and Thaddeus Stevens Trade School.

This bill was written primarily to permit these teachers who already have a provisional college certificate, and who teach in these particular schools for the handicapped children which are private institutions from which the state purchases tuition, to apply their services toward a permanent college certificate. I ask the House to support the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 1059, Printer's No. 1574

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER pro tempore.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1079, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 22, 1945 (P. L. 837) entitled as amended "An act providing for and requiring in certain cases preference in appointments to and retention in public position or on public works for honorably discharged persons who served in the military or naval service during any war or armed conflict in which the United States engaged . . ." changing and clarifying certain preference provisions and adding definitions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCANN. I wish the Members would check Senate Bill No. 1079, Printer's No. 1382, very carefully. This bill, of course, passed the Senate. I have in my possession a Pennsylvania Joint Veterans Council communication from Mr. J. Hugh McNeill, its Legislative Representative, under date of November 9.

We are very much interested in approval by the House of Representatives of Senate Bill 1079 (Printer's Number, in the Senate, 1382), which is now in the House Rules Committee, according to the weekly History, dated November 9.

This bill corrects the alleged objections by the Supreme Court, and defines an area that was questioned before the Court. The Court, itself, implied that the area should be defined by the General Assembly in its decision to rule against certain veterans employed by the Commonwealth under Civil Service rules and regulations.

The subject matter included in S-1079 was mandated for legislative approval by The American Legion at its convention in Pittsburgh last July, and subsequently became a mandate of the Pennsylvania Joint Veterans Council which adds the approval and efforts of the additional nine of Pennsylvania's biggest veterans organizations.

Then the last paragraph:

Realizing that your minutes are crowded—and so forth—With the highest personal regards, I remain, Most cordially yours.

Mr. Speaker, this bill is here because of their request and their mandate in this field, but I bring to the attention of the Members that there is one section in the bill in which I believe veterans would lose their points in preference in promotion under Civil Service rules and regulations that now exist.

The Joint Veterans Council requested this bill. This bill passed the Senate. The American Legion mandated the bill and desired the bill. Yet I request the Members to check the bill very carefully, Senate Bill 1079, Printer's No. 1382, regarding that section.

Mr. OGILVIE. Mr. Speaker, I question whether any veteran would give up his veteran's preference right in the question of a promotion, and I question the right of the Secretary of the Joint Veterans Council to speak as he has in this letter. I think it is the right of every Member of this House and that he should have the courtesy, to go back to his local veterans' post and find out from them how they feel about this.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. OGILVIE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 1081, Printer's No. 1361

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER pro tempore.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1109, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 289) entitled "Nonprofit Corporation Law" further providing for the use of certain words in the corporate name.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILLS ON CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1472, Printer's No. 1777

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER pro tempore.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1592.

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "An act consolidating and revising the Vehicle Code the Tractor Code the Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Act and other acts relating to the ownership possession and use of vehicles and tractors" providing for an operator license period of two years and fixing fees relative thereto and permitting the Secretary of Revenue to divide motor vehicle operators into categories and to vary the issuance and expiration dates of operators' licenses in accordance therewith.

With the information that the Senate had passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 1, line 8, by striking out after the word "of" the word "operator's" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operators"; Section 1, page 3, line 3, by striking out the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; line 5, by striking out after the letters "vania" the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; line 7, by striking out after the word "a" the word "learners" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "learner's"; line 10, by striking out at the beginning of the line the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; line 15, by striking out after the bracketed letters and figures "(lar ($1.00))" the following: "two dollars ($2.00) per year five dollars ($5.00) for a license period of two years" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per year"; line 18, by striking out after the word "duplicate" the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; page 4, line 11, by striking out after the word "initial" the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; Section 2, line 14, by striking out after the word "The" the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's"; line 17, by striking out after the word "an" the word "operators" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "operator's".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1592 is a bill dealing with operators' licenses in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, changing the fee for the license.

As most of you know we passed the bill in the House at $2.00. In the Senate it was amended to $2.50, with the same provisions in the bill as existed when it left the House, by 1961 or later, making the licensing period for two years, with the approval of the Secretary of Revenue, when they would work out the best possible system.

This bill, of course, was debated in the House at great length on the $2.00 fee, and this is a $2.50 fee. We are moving right along on this particular bill because no later than Tuesday of next week we must make some disposition of this bill in order to send out the five million or more operators' license applications which must be handled for the coming year.

I request that the House concur in the amendments placed in the bill by the Senate.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a former Member of this House, the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Patrick J. Corr.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 93

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 30, 1959.

The people of the United States have the fairest system of taxation that has ever been designed. The Federal Income Tax's best feature is the built-in concept of "ability-to-pay." By this is meant simply that those with the highest income best able to pay carry their proportionate share of the tax load. Those who because of low incomes are less able to pay still contribute but in a lesser proportion. This is the most equitable system that has ever been designed. This principal of "ability to pay" is accomplished by means of a standardized deduction and an exemption. This exemption today stands at six hundred dollars per person and the taxpayer can claim this amount for each member of his family.

For the average family however six hundred dollars is an unrealistic figure. The taxpayer's expenses for food rent and the other constant expenses necessary to maintain his standard of living at a level commensurate with this country's economic prosperity reflect a much greater amount than the six hundred dollars allowed. Surely no one would expect a person to live on six hundred dollars for a year.

Unless something is done about this problem the "ability to pay" concept in our Federal Income Tax program will become meaningless. The greatest advantage of our tax system will be a farce and the average family and the average taxpayer will bear more than his share to the extent of facing an uncertain and desperate financial future therefore be it.

Resolved That the House of Representatives memorialize the Congress of the United States to consider this problem facing the millions of average taxpayers who represent the families who are finding difficulty in maintaining an adequate standard of living and be it further.

Resolved That the Congress help relieve this problem by raising the present six hundred dollars personal exemption.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to get authorization of the House to be recorded as voting, no, on Resolution 93.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the record.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 98

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, July 28, 1959.

The cost of Blue Cross Insurance has risen twenty-eight percent in the last six months and the number of days covered by the insurance has been cut from one hundred twenty to seventy-five.

This matter is of grave concern to residents of Pennsylvania since it not only raises insurance costs but gives less insurance protection in the vitally important area of hospitalization therefore be it.

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the costs of Blue Cross Hospitalization Insurance and the length of time for which protection is given by such insurance and be it further.

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for its concurrence.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 112

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 10, 1959.

Pennsylvania was founded out of concern for the oppressed.

The existence of millions of refugees in the world today presents a challenging opportunity for alleviation of their plight.

The United States has recognized the extent and gravity of the international refugee situation by designating a World Refugee Year co-sponsoring a United Nations resolution which was overwhelmingly passed by the last General Assembly.

The President of the United States in a Proclamation has urged all United States citizens to support generously the programs developed by the United States Committee for Refugees and by other voluntary welfare agencies therefore be it.

Resolved That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania record its approval of the observance of World Refugee Year between July 1, 1959 and June 30, 1960 and be it further.

Resolved That the General Assembly recommend the wholehearted support of its humanitarian objectives by the citizens of the Commonwealth.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 113

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 15, 1959.

Numerous attempts have been made to abolish capital punishment within this Commonwealth and provide for the substitution of a life sentence in lieu thereof. It is the feeling of many persons that capital punishment is long outmoded and is not in keeping with the religious moral or social standards of today. A number of states which had capital punishment have changed such punishment and in lieu thereof substituted a life sentence. A large number of the clergy of the Commonwealth have expressed a desire for a full and complete study of capital punishment therefore be it.

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to conduct a thorough study of capital punishment throughout the United States and to submit to the next session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations in regard to the abolition thereof.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 114

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 16, 1959.

In 1800 the infant Federal Government moved to its permanent capital in Washington D C but Maryland and Virginia in completing the cession of the District of Columbia failed to make any provision to protect the voting rights of residents occupying the ceded area. A reasonable assumption is that the state thought Congress would provide some method of voting.

Our Nation's capital Washington D C is unquestionably the home and symbol of the ideal of American Representative Democracy yet 831,000 citizens in the Nation's capital are denied the right to vote for the people they want to represent them a population greater than that of any one of twelve states.

There is no "local" government in the District of Columbia. Local laws are passed by Congress and signed by the President. Congress must approve every cent of local expenditure. The municipal government is an agency of Congress. A number of other Federal bureaus, departments and agencies have certain functions in the government of the area.

Since the people of the District of Columbia have no vote and if taxation without representation is tyranny than it exists in the capital of this great land In addition it is questionable whether the Congressmen are very conscious of the needs of the people of the District of Columbia since they must first represent their own districts and second they have thousands of problems relating to the nation as a whole and the world

Originally this system might have worked if the District of Columbia contained nothing but government buildings and institutions However as a result of the great influx of population Congress must legislate in such matters as zoning streets parking and other services Again the need for a local government in the District is very evident

While thousands of words are heard relating to the sanctity of the right to vote in America in connection with the civil rights debates the most wholesale voting discrimination in this country is ignored

We the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are strongly in favor of home rule We believe that Congress should give this right to the people of the District of Columbia therefore be it

Resolved That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to support and enact legislation to give the people of the District of Columbia the right to elect the officials to administer their local affairs to vote in Presidential elections and to have voting representation in the Congress of the United States and be it further

Resolved That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress of the United States

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 116

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 22, 1959.

Overbrowsing by deer has caused extensive injury to the timber industry which is engaged in a sustained yield forest management program. In some areas an excessive deer population has eliminated completely or greatly retarded the normal regeneration processes. The deer population should of course be preserved as one of our natural resources but we must also recognize our duty to the persons who suffer damage from deer therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government study and investigate the problem of forest crop damage by deer and determine an equitable and efficient means of providing reimbursement to the persons suffering such damage and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 119

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 29, 1959.

Whereas, There are many laws on the books of the Commonwealth relating to escheat and

Whereas, Many of these laws overlap and conflict in their application and

Whereas, House Bill 1417 was introduced to consolidate amend and revise the escheat laws of the Commonwealth and

Whereas, The sub-committee which was appointed by the Committee on Judiciary spent long hours trying to work out a workable escheat law and

Whereas, Public hearings were held and briefs filed on the problem yet because of the complexity of the situation and the lack of time the sub-committee was unable to solve the problems therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to make a study of the laws relating to escheat and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission avail themselves of the hearings which were held as well as the briefs which were filed and be it further

Resolved, That if they so desire they may request information from any of the members of the sub-committee and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make a report of its findings to the General Assembly as soon as possible but no later than the next session together with appropriate legislation to carry its findings into effect

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 30, 1959.

The House of Representatives requires for its use comprehensive factual information concerning

(1) The high cost of higher education and

(2) Scholarships and financial assistance available to worthy students who are unable to attend institutions of higher learning because of financial reasons therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate

(1) The high cost of higher education its causes and the effects thereof on our economic and social system and programs whereby the costs may be reduced and

(2) Scholarships and financial assistance available to worthy students and programs whereby such assistance may be expanded with particular emphasis directed toward State Colleges Universities and State aided institutions of higher learning and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the House of Representatives at the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 124

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, October 19, 1959.

The Susquehanna River watershed in Maryland and Pennsylvania was once the spawning ground for millions of migratory fish.

The placing of dams across the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania and Maryland without providing ways or devices whereby migratory fish could ascend the main-stream and tributaries to spawn has effectively removed migratory fish from the watershed.

It is considered desirable to restore the natural life cycle for warm water fish in the Susquehanna River watershed.

The cooperation of the sister states of Maryland and Pennsylvania is needed to bring migratory fish back into the watershed therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring) That it is the general sense of the House and Senate of the Legislature of Pennsylvania that fishways or other devices of similar purport ought to be installed at the dams in the Susquehanna River to enable migratory fish to ascend the mainstream and tributaries thus restoring a natural food base of the residents of the watershed and restoring the streams of the watershed as natural breeding grounds for food and game fish and further that this general sense of the Pennsylvania Legislature be represented to the Legislature of Maryland together with the desire and request of the Pennsylvania Legislature that the Legislature of Maryland similarly record its sense that the natural life cycle for warm water fish in the Susquehanna River watershed in Maryland and Pennsylvania ought to be restored by installation of fishways or comparable devices at the dams in the Susquehanna River and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the presiding officer of each House of the Legislature of Maryland.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for its concurrence.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I want to be noted on the record as voting no on Resolution 124, Printer's No. 1945.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman's remarks will be spread upon the record.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 126

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, October 20, 1959.

A great deal of confusion lack of understanding and thus controversy has arisen over House Bill 1702, Printer's No. 1634 pertaining to establishing a new Highway Act to revise consolidate and amend the various act relating to highways particularly the existing Highway Act of 1945.

Despite many weeks of study and hearings by the House Committee on Highways and the considerable expense of reprinting the amended bills of House Bill 1702 many members of this House remained confused as to its purpose necessity and meaning.

It is imperative therefore that a thorough study be made of this proposed legislation in order to determine whether or not its enactment would be in the best interests of our Commonwealth as a whole therefore be it

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and thoroughly investigate the advantages and disadvantages to our Commonwealth of enacting legislation similar to 1959 House Bill 1702, Printer's No. 1634 and be it further

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 127

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 10, 1959.

Some educators are of the opinion that school children are admitted to school at too early an age.

The present chronological age requirement may allow children to enter school before they are mentally prepared thereby impeding the progress of those pupils of adequate development therefore be it

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to investigate and study the problem of entrance ages of school children to determine whether or not the present chronological age requirements are too low and be it further

Resolved That the Joint State Government Commission report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 105

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the Senate, February 2, 1959.

Emergency situations require immediate action. A hesitation or delay of days or even hours can spell the difference between safety or terrible disaster. The power to act immediately in any emergency or impending emergency should be inherent in the Officials of our Commonwealth. This power should include the authority to undertake any project deemed necessary for the protection of the public and to take action on a moment's notice to forestall impending danger, no matter what its source may be. The authority to expend funds necessary to finance such action, including rehabilitation and rectification thereafter, should accompany the power to act.

During the disaster recently experienced, we were fortunate in one respect, that being that the Legislature was in session to authorize action. On future occasions precious time may be lost in an attempt to obtain such Legislative approval; therefore be it

Resolved, (The House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study to determine how to best overcome all impediments to the taking of immediate and effective action by Officials of our Commonwealth in cases of emergency or cases of impending emergency, and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 112

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the Senate, June 2, 1959.

Consumer credit has, during the twentieth century, attained a position of major importance in the economy of the United States and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania specifically.

The citizens of the Commonwealth purchasing goods and services through the use of consumer credit are now numbered in millions and the value of such goods and services is now counted in billions of dollars.

The lending of money and the extension of credit for consumer purposes at reasonable and fair charges contributes to a higher standard of living for the citizens of Pennsylvania and promotes a strong and healthy economy and, therefore, the continued maintenance of adequate sources of consumer credit at fair and reasonable charges is of utmost importance to the economic welfare of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

The term "consumer credit" is generally recognized as encompassing all credit extended to consumers whether in the form of a cash loan or in connection with the sale of goods or services.

The purchase of insurance on behalf of borrowers and purchasers by lenders and sellers of goods or services on deferred or installment payment basis is common practice in the consumer credit business and the charges for such insurance constitute a substantial part of the total charges which the consumer is required to pay.

It is the policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to encourage and promote the development of adequate sources of consumer credit to meet the needs of our modern economy and, to that end, regulate and control the charges, terms and conditions for the lending of money and the extension of credit for consumer purposes in the interest of and for the protection of both the borrower and lender.

With the exception of the Motor Vehicle Sales Finance Act of 1947, applying to installment sales of motor vehicles, there are no laws of the Commonwealth regulating interest and other charges that may be imposed upon buyers of goods or services by the sellers thereof.

There are many ethically conducted and honestly operated lenders and sellers dealing in consumer credit and engaging in the business of financing the sales of goods and services and it appears that there are other persons and companies engaging in the financing of goods and services who impose upon the consumer excessive and oppressive charges and otherwise engage in practices which are unjustifiably detrimental to the consumer and inimical to the public welfare.

New methods for making consumer loans and for financing purchases of consumer goods and prefabricated homes, sometimes called "pre-cut," "packaged" and "pre-construction" homes, on an installment basis have been devised and are used by lender and sellers of goods which impose upon the borrower or purchaser charges which appear to be unreasonable, excessive and oppressive and which are not limited or regulated under existing laws; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study and investigate all matters connected with the operation of and conditions prevailing in the financing in this Commonwealth of the sales of goods or services and prefabricated homes which are sold or supplied on what is commonly known as the installment payment plan, for the purpose of ascertaining the equity and fairness of charges imposed on the consumers and as to any improper burdensome or oppressive practices deemed to be inimical to the public good or which result in disadvantage or detriment to the public generally; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study all existing laws of the Commonwealth pertaining to consumer credit extended on a cash loan basis and to investigate and explore all matters pertaining to individuals and agencies engaged in such business, the practices and methods followed in making such loans, the charges imposed therefor and the adequacy of existing sources of consumer credit; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 114

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the Senate, July 27, 1959.

As a result of its investigation into the Knox mine disaster, the Joint Committee created by the Senate and House of Representatives has recommended that the laws relating to mining be revised and codified; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study of the laws relating to anthracite, bituminous, metallic and non-metallic mining, and to prepare a revision and codification the Joint State Government Commission shall give particular attention to the report and recommendations of the Joint Committee to investigate the Knox mine disaster, and shall in so far as possible utilize the assistance and advice of the Department of Mines and Mineral Industries, the United States Bureau of Mines, mine operators, representatives of miners and professional mining engineers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make a report of its study, together with its draft of a codification of the mining laws, to the next General Assembly.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 116

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the Senate, August 10, 1959.

Whereas, It has been predicted that college enrollments in the Commonwealth will greatly increase during the decade ahead; and

Whereas, The predictions of increases in college enrollment range from 57 percent to 127 percent; and

Whereas, It has been alternatively proposed that State-owned institutions be expanded, that State-aided institutions be expanded and that junior colleges be established, either independently or as an adjunct to the public school system; and therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed:

(1) To evaluate the predictions of increased college enrollments for the next decade, and to develop data relating the demand for higher education in Pennsylvania to the types of instruction required, geographic location of students and institutions, and financial ability of families to underwrite the costs of higher education;

(2) To determine the extent to which various quality standards would modify the predicted enrollment increases;

(3) To determine the preferences, abilities, and performance characteristics of the college-age population and the types of institutions which will best meet the demands for post-high school training of students of varying characteristics;

(4) To ascertain the advantages and disadvantages associated with different methods of providing post-high school opportunities including, but not limited to, expansion of State-owned institutions, expansion of State-aided institutions, and full cost scholarships applicable at all accredited institutions;

(5) To evaluate present levels of efficiency, including both staff and plant utilization, and to develop organizational and operational patterns that will provide incentives to insure optional personnel and plant performance;

(6) To investigate the fiscal potential of State and local governments and private individuals and organizations to provide additional support for higher education; and

(7) To investigate alternative sources of revenue available to the State Government to provide additional support for higher education; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations together with drafts of any legislation deemed necessary to carry its recommendations into effect.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sell and convey 10.0478 acres more or less of land situate in East Allen Township Northampton County Pennsylvania with the approval of the Governor.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 2264 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. McCANN offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 11, 1959.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 2264, Printer's No. 1337, entitled "An act authorizing and requiring the Department of Mines and Mineral Industries to make examinations to determine the accuracy of maps, plans and drawings submitted to it," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION

L. 176) entitled 'An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith' changing the inspection period imposing certain duties on mine inspectors, mine superintendents and foremen, requiring additional information on maps and plans and changing provisions relating to mine inspectors' reports," be recalled from the Governor for further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, earlier this afternoon in the operation of the House, House Bill 2388, Printer's No. 1956, was defeated, and following that the Minority Leader spoke and requested a committee be appointed to meet immediately and work on this problem of trying to amend or find the necessary answers in regard to this proposed legislation.

At this time I appoint a committee of six Members that have been agreed to: Messrs. Comer, Gailey, Fineman, Austin M. Lee, Bell and Auker.

I am asking that committee, through Mr. Lee and Mr. Comer, the Chairman and vice-chairman, set a scheduled time for Monday to meet and go over this important piece of legislation and come up with the necessary types of amendments that they believe will make it workable and agreeable.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection, all bills remaining on today's calendar not considered were passed over at the request of Mr. McCANN.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. LUTTY from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended House Bill No. 2256, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fiscal Code," approved April 9, 1929 (P. L. 343), further regulating the time when settlement and resettlement of taxes may be made and when notice of settlement and resettlement shall be given to taxpayers.

Mr. RENWICK from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2257, entitled:

An Act amending the "Corporation Income Tax Law," approved August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1417), further regulating the time when settlement and resettlement of taxes may be made and when notice of settlement and resettlement shall be given to taxpayers.

Mr. PRICE from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2258, entitled:

An Act amending the "Corporate Net Income Tax Act," approved May 16, 1935 (P. L. 208), further regulating the time when settlement and resettlement of taxes may be made and when notice of settlement and resettlement shall be given to taxpayers.

Mr. McCANN from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2449, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine, section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania increasing the borrowing capacity of school districts, in order to reduce costs involved in financing through municipal authorities.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Pursuant to a resolution adopted Monday, June 15, 1959 the following bills were read the first time:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2449, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine, section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania increasing the borrowing capacity of school districts, in order to reduce costs involved in financing through municipal authorities.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GELFAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday in some heated remarks, I said on the floor of the House that if we had a full working day today I would publicly apologize to the Majority Leader for anything I may have said that appeared to be intemperate.

Inasmuch as we have had a full working day, I think it is due him that I publicly apologize, and I so do at this time.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, no apology was necessary and I certainly thank the gentleman, because many times in heated discussions I also have been rather rough in some of my tactics, but sometimes the pressure is pretty hard. In the end we finally find a way to agree.

Mr. Speaker, the only thing I would like to say is that the starting schedule of the House on Monday will be 3:30, Standard Time, instead of the normal 4:30. All the Members please bear this in mind, and five days next week.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. WORLEY.

RESOLUTION No. 129.

In the House of Representatives, November 12, 1959.

Resolved, That Rule No. 76 of the House of Representatives is hereby amended to read as follows:

RULE 76

House Bills Amended by the Senate

When a House bill or joint resolution has been amended by the Senate and returned to the House for concurrence, or when a motion is made that the House recede from its nonconcurrence in amendments made by the Senate to a House bill, or that the House recede from its amendments made to a Senate bill, the bill shall not be considered until placed on the calendar and copies thereof are on the desks of the Members.

When acting on bills on joint resolutions amended by the Senate, the amendments shall be read and the question put, on the concurrence in the amendments.

A majority vote of the Members elected to the House, taken by yeas and nays, shall be required to concur in amendments made by the Senate; except for appropriations to charitable and educational institutions not under the absolute control of the Commonwealth, where a vote of two-thirds of all the Members elected to the House shall be required to concur.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the Democratic caucus on Monday will be held at 2:30. The House will convene at 3:30.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would suggest that that message be conveyed in some other manner by the appearance of the Democratic membership.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send out a notice which will state in the notice for both parties that the House will convene at 3:30 Standard Time. That the House Party is scheduled for 5:00 o'clock and whatever other items the Minority Leader may want to put in his notice.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chief Clerk will so notify the membership.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, we would appreciate it if in the notice you would incorporate the time that the House Republican caucus will be held at 2:00 o'clock, as usual. There are quite a number of bills on the calendar I notice, and we will need an hour and a half to caucus on Monday.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. ROVANSEK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, November 16, 1959 at 3:30 p. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:45 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

SENATE

MONDAY, November 16, 1959.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. MELVIN WALPER, Pastor of Zion's Reformed Church, Ashland, offered the following prayer:

Great and gracious God, Tho Who art our Father and our Friend, we thank Thee for the rich heritage bequeathed to us by our forefathers. We praise Thee for all the blessings we enjoy in our land of freedom, and we yearn for the day when these blessings shall be the treasured possession of all Thy children, even unto the ends of the earth.

We ask Thee to be with this Senate in its deliberations. Make each Member thereof conscious that they are not only servants of men, but servants of Thee, their God, and their Heavenly Father. Aware of Thy divine presence in their midst, may their minds be guided by Thy wisdom and their hearts be ruled by Thy love. Deliver them from all selfishness, self-seeking and self-centeredness by a knowledge that injustices in the farthest corner of our Commonwealth, or in the farthest corner of our world, bring a burden to every single child of Thine, even as blessings in the farthest corner of our Commonwealth or the farthest corner of our world bring a blessing to every child of Thine. Remove them from all prejudice that they can see the image of Thee, our God, in the least, the last and the lowliest creature of earth. Through the still small voice, speak to them the words of Jesus, "Whatsoever ye do unto one of My children, even unto the least, ye do unto Me."

To all who are absent this day because of sorrow, do Thou send to them the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. To all who are absent because of illness, be Tho the great Physician of body and spirit. To all who are absent because of indifference, lay upon their minds and their hearts their responsibility to their Commonwealth, to their constituency and to Thee, their God.

We ask these things in the Name of Jesus, Thy Son and our Savior, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BERGER and Mr. BLASS, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. FLEMING and Mr. FLACK, that the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nominations reported at today's Session.

Which was agreed to.

NOMINATIONS TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I call from the table the nomination of Samuel Lichtenfeld for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the Fifteenth Judicial District.

The nomination was read by the Clerk as follows:

JUDGE OF THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

October 21, 1959.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Samuel Lichtenfeld, Crestline Road, Strafford, Wayne, Chester County, for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the Fifteenth Judicial District of Pennsylvania, composed of the County of Chester, until the first Monday of January 1962, vice Hon. Ernest Harvey, resigned.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I now yield the floor to my colleague, Senator Harney.

Mr. HARNEY. Mr. President, I rise, on a question of personal privilege, to speak on the nomination by the Governor for a Judge in Chester County to replace Judge Ernest Harvey, who resigned, effective September 1, 1959.

Since 1888, when a second Common Pleas Court Judge was authorized by legislation, we have had one distinguished and capable representative of each political party on the Common Pleas Bench.

The Chester County Bar Association took action in the present situation and submitted several names of qualified attorneys to the Governor. The Governor ignored these suggestions and nominated Samuel Lichtenfeld, Esquire, who has been the Chester County Democratic Chairman for some years.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I respect the right of the Governor to make such a choice, but he will also have to accept the responsibility for so doing, as I am fully convinced the voters of both parties in our county, in 1961, will register their strong disapproval of this action.

With this statement on the record, I now move that the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination of Samuel Lichtenfeld as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Chester County, solely in accordance with the Governor's action.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. President, I second the motion made by the gentleman from Chester, Senator Harney.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I believe that the gentleman from Chester would not want his statement to go on the record unless it was a complete one and unless it took cognizance of the entire picture as it exists in this problem.

As everyone well knows—and this is true of the present gentleman who is the Governor, Governor Lawrence, or any of the previous Governors who happened to be of a different political faith than I—I do not believe that any man runs for office and is elected to that office to merely sit by and be advised by people who had nothing to do with either having him elected or taking any part in making the policy, and who just came forward one day when they saw fit and named certain people.

The fact that a Bar Association presents a name to a Governor is only a means or a guide to the gentleman who has to make the final decision. I think it would not be amiss to point out to the gentlemen in this Chamber, some of whom are lawyers, that they should recognize the fact that when you get more than one person together, you have politics operating of one kind or another. In the Bar Association, as in the American Medical Association and many other associations, politics rears its ugly head. Whether it is good or bad, I cannot say. I think, however, sometimes it does serve a good purpose.

However, they present these different names of these different people. That does not make these people chosen by the Lord nor does it give these people any special qualities. They are merely saying that in the best opinion of the association, Mr. So-and-So is the best person. I think the Governor, whomever he might be, sitting in the Executive Branch of the Government, has a better opportunity to survey the entire situation. I also think that with him rests the responsibility of making the appointment, and with no one else, once he has searched his conscience and has had an opportunity to look over all these lists and pick Mr. X or Mr. Y or Mr. Z. It may be an appointment which I personally approve or disapprove. However, I think basically the suggestion is his. I think the appointment is his and whatever responsibilities go with that are completely his alone.

Mr. President, I do not want to recount past history, but, unfortunately, a man who was chosen by the past Governor, Governor Leader, from Montgomery County, to serve as a Judge, Judge Morris Gerber, was not only approved by the Bar Association by an overwhelming amount of votes, but he was also found by many voters to be a very fine man and one who had practiced law for many years. For some reason best known to themselves, the people of Montgomery County, and the lawyers as well, chose not to observe the sitting judge principle. As a result, Morris Gerber was voted out of office. According to the Bar Association and other people living in the county, who had some say about it, Morris Gerber had been found, over a period of time, to be absolutely equipped for the office and probably the most capable man to fill it. Instead, they elected some other person who never had any judicial experience. I do not know whether he will make a good Judge or not. I am not here to judge that. However, they overwhelmingly elected this other person because the organization there was strong and was able, therefore, to put their man across. I suspect the same thing will be true in Chester County where the Republican Party—and I think I am not divulging any confidence—is in complete control of the situation in that county. I do not think that this should cast any kind of a reflection on the nominee by Governor or the fact that we are confirming this gentleman.

The best we can say is that as long as we do not have any special plan where judges are chosen by any special group or given any kind of an examination or found to be any special type of person, I think we can only rely on the method we are now using, which is by the Governor appointing them.

I think that the only question which should be before the people is not whether this man is a good political appointment or not, but whether he is a good Judge, whether he is serving the people and whether he is meeting their needs and requirements in that particular community. If that question is answered in the affirmative, they should vote for him. If that question is answered in the negative, they should vote against him, regardless of who it might be. I think that is the only question before us at any time. All that we do here in this Senate is agree or disagree with the Governor. I think if we disagree with him, we should, at least, give our reasons why.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—50

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WAGNER, from the Committee on Education, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1094, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177) entitled "The Administrative Code of 1929" increasing the compensation and changing the membership of the State Board of Medical Education and Licensure.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BERGER, from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1248, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 29, 1935 (P. L. 244) entitled "Local Government Commission Law" clarifying certain provisions relating to the terms of the members and the powers of the Local Government Commission.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COM- MISSION TO STUDY ENACTMENT OF LEGISLATION REGARDING THE SOLICITING OF MONEY FOR ELECTION PURPOSES

Mr. WHALLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. WHALLEY, KROMER, KESSLER and WALKER offered the following resolution (Serial No. 81), which was read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, November 16, 1959.

Large amounts of money are consistently being solicited by various means in order to aid and support individuals seeking election to various offices, both State and local throughout this Commonwealth.

The amount of money spent for this purpose in recent years has in many cases far exceeded a reasonable and acceptable sum considering the office in contest and the normal incidents and attributes thereof.

While it has always been necessary to expend money in order to adequately campaign for an elective office, unusually large amounts spent for such purposes can only lead to waste, corruption and ultimately bad government. It is, therefore, felt by many experienced people who have observed their tendency to expend unusually large sums for this purpose that some type of reasonable limitations be imposed to curtail this practice; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to investigate and study the feasibility of enacting legislation relative to this subject; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations, together with drafts of legislation to carry its recommendations into effect.

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COM- MISSION TO STUDY THE LIBRARY SYSTEM

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. WATKINS, HARNEY and VAN SANT offered the following resolution (Serial No. 82), which was read as follows:

In the Senate, November 16, 1959.

The free public libraries of the Commonwealth have been a major source of information, knowledge, and educational opportunities for all of its citizens.

Beginning with the provincial assemblies, the Legislature has recognized the importance of the public library. The State library was, for many years, under the direct supervision of the General Assembly. Current statutes provide for the participation by governmental agencies in the financing and operation of libraries at the local and State levels.

The public library is a major adjunct to education—both formal and informal. It can be utilized by all. It is imperative that the libraries, both State and local, private and public, be encouraged to develop personnel practices, informational services, and educational opportunities compatible with the needs and desires of the local community and the Commonwealth as a whole; therefore be it

Resolved, That, in order to develop the necessary factual information regarding coordination of library services, methods of achieving efficient administration of existing library resources, and the current availability of library services throughout the Commonwealth, the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study the library system, taking into consideration the statutory law, administrative practices, and financial matters relating to its organization and structure, and report its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I have no objection to this resolution going to the Rules Committee. However, I would like to point out to the Members of this Body that we have already had a study made of the public library setup in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I believe a Mr. Greenfield, of Philadelphia, was one of the chairmen on the commission, along with other prominent citizens of this State. If the study does not fulfill the need that is contemplated by this resolution, I would suggest that the areas that have not been covered by the report be pointed out to the commission. They are already in session, and they have already been through this. Perhaps they can, in a very short time, take up this problem and solve it, rather than have another commission appointed or another study group appointed.

I would respectfully ask that the Rules Committee take this into consideration and that the Members of the Senate take this into consideration before they take any action on this resolution.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I am sure that the Rules Committee will take into consideration any prior studies that have been made on this subject, one of which, I understand, was started by the Joint State Government Commission some twelve years ago. This resolution intends that the Joint State Government Commission may complete and co-ordinate their study with that already made by the Library Commission. I am sure that both of them will complement each other.

The PRESIDENT. This resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING SENATOR JOSEPH M. BARR ON BEING ELECTED MAYOR OF PITTSBURGH

Messrs. McGINNIS, FLEMING, BERGER, WEINER, SARRAF and RIPP offered the following resolution, which was read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, November 16, 1959.

Joseph M. Barr is the new Mayor of Pittsburgh.

Since he was elected to the Senate in 1941, he has been a friend to all his colleagues who often requested his advice. The officers of the Senate have always held him in high esteem for his sound decisions.

Senator Barr's background of legislative service, coupled with his extraordinary ability will both serve in Pittsburgh's growth and redevelopment. The people of that great city could not have selected a better man to chart the course of their governmental affairs; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate congratulate Senator Joseph M. Barr on being elected Mayor of Pittsburgh and wish him every success in his new position; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Senator Joseph M. Barr.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 295, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Dickinson School of Law Carlisle Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President, I think, perhaps in the history of my time in this body, I have never voted in opposition to an appropriation bill for education, and this statement hurts a little. The fact that I find myself voting "no" on this particular bill is no reflection upon the Dickinson School of Law. I know, as you do, many of its graduates. If I wanted and needed a very good lawyer, I would go to that school I think for my legal advice.

This bill has very good sponsorship. However, there are more nonsectarian institutions of higher learning than this particular one. It seems to me, before we open the door in this manner, we should set up some criteria as a basis for giving money to other nonsectarian institutions. It is on that basis that I am going to vote "no" on this bill.

I now yield to the Senator from York, Mr. Seyler.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I want to Join Senator Hays in his position. It seems to me that in taking this step, we are making a decision which is going to open the way for this Commonwealth to take on a large, added burden. I will not discuss the merits of whether this is a burden we should take on. I certainly do not wish any of my remarks to be interpreted to cast any reflection on the job which is done by the Dickinson Law School.

However, here we are departing from our previous policy, which was to support four institutions of higher learning. We are opening the way, it seems to me, by this and by one other bill on this Calendar, to extending support to every nonsectarian institution of higher learning in Pennsylvania. If this is to be the policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, then I think we should have some more objective manner for arriving at that decision. I also think, before we take a step like this, that we should give this a great deal more thought.

I have not heard any arguments which justified, to my mind, selecting these particular institutions to be the ones to break the line on additional support of higher education by the Commonwealth.

We hear a great deal of criticism of this Legislature for further pledging the wealth and the support of the Commonwealth to our institutions of public education. Here we are going beyond that. We are going into a field which, up to the present time, has not been considered to be a first responsibility of the Commonwealth.

If this were to establish scholarships so that people going into higher education who are needy and are able to profit by this instruction could use them at schools of their own choice, it seems to me we would be making a decision which while it would be very important and would likewise be pledging the Commonwealth to a great deal of added expenditure, would be at least doing it in a manner which would not involve the selecting of one or two institutions.

I think we could get up on this floor and make an argument for every institution of higher learning in this State as doing a fine job and as fulfilling a need in this Commonwealth. I have no doubt that the gentleman who is champing at the bit over there and impatiently waiting his turn will present a very fine argument for Dickinson Law School, and I will agree with his argument. However, I think there are men in this Chamber who could do this same job for every institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth.

This gives you a picture of what we are leading into when we make this step, and we are doing it in a piecemeal and not well considered manner, it seems to me, in just picking out two schools and deciding that this is the way we will break the line.

Who doubts that in another Session we will have every other institution of higher learning looking to the Commonwealth for support?

Therefore, Mr. President, I wish to join Senator Hays in his position. Although I think it is fruitless for me to urge Members to vote against this bill, because I am sure all of them have already made up their minds which way they are going to vote, I would impress upon them the importance of considering this not just as a vote for a school,—of course, it is a deserving school—but rather as a vote which will open the door for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to extend its financial support to every nonsectarian institution of higher learning in this Commonwealth.

Mr. EHRCOOD. Mr. President, you cannot argue against something when the person already agrees beforehand with your argument. Therefore, I will not go into that because, obviously, Senator Seyler and Senator Hays must recognize the need that exists at the Dickinson School of Law. It is not a matter that has been considered hastily because I am sure that concerning higher education, all colleges and universities involved in asking the State for money do not like to come into this Senate and ask for it because with it, naturally, comes the concomitant regulations and some controls.

However, may I say this? The Governor already has gone ahead by requesting an appropriation for Drexel Institute in breaking the line that the Senator has heretofore expressed. I might also point out that an appropriation for Carnegie Institute, which is Senate Bill No. 87, passed fifty to nothing, and the Senators did not vote against that new appropriation.

I believe that this bill is helping a fine institution which is in very difficult financial straits. I believe it is helping higher education, in which I know that the gentlemen on the other side, Senator Seyler and Senator Hays, are vitally interested. I think perhaps that you are just unaware of the full need that is being met here with this appropriation.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I am not going to debate with the gentleman because I agree that all of these institutions, in order to carry out the broader function which they would like to carry out, need help. However, I would like to set him straight on two matters. In the first place, Senator Hays and I do not intend to vote against Dickinson and in favor of Drexel. We feel that one is opening the door just as much as the other.

The second thing I would like to point out is that the Carnegie Institute is not, Senator Ehrgood, the Carnegie Institute of Technology. It is not an institution of higher learning, as I understand it, but is a museum in Allegheny County. If I am wrong, I wish Senator Fleming, who is the co-sponsor of that bill, would so inform me.

I would ask Senator Fleming if it is not true that the Carnegie Institute, referred to in Senate Bill No. 87, does not refer to the Carnegie Institute of Technology. Is that not correct, Senator Fleming?

Mr. FLEMING. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I certainly will not prolong this at all. However, I might point out to the Members of the Senate, and to the gentlemen who just spoke on this subject, that to the best of my knowledge the Dickinson School of Law is the only law school presently existing in the Commonwealth that would be eligible to be added to the list of institutions to which we appropriate money. Of course, we appropriate to the University of Pennsylvania Law School and we appropriate to the University of Pittsburgh Law School because they, too, are nonsectarian and are part of the two great universities.

The Dickinson School of Law is not part of a university, but is a separate institution. It is to my knowledge—and I believe I am correct—the only nonsectarian law school to which we do not appropriate money.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I noticed that the appropriation is for $250,000. I would like for someone to tell me whether they are appropriating this money as a lump sum or do they have a formula? If they have a formula, how much are they allocating for each particular student? I have heard the figures here which are needed, but no one has elaborated as to where they money is actually needed. Is it for capital construction or is it to assist law students in general? What are the figures on it? Perhaps Senator Ehrgood could tell us.

Mr. EHRGOOD. Mr. President, in answer to the question, it is, of course, a lump sum appropriation, the same as for all the schools. There is no difference between this, Temple University, Pennsylvania State University or any other school. Of course, I do not believe that Senator Lane would want to see a line by line budget. After all, that is exactly opposite of the policy, for instance, of the Administration on things like that.

Incidentally—and this is somewhat off the point—I do know that Senator Seyler and Senator Hays both voted for Drexel Institute. That was the first line which was broken.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I do not like to interrupt the gentleman, but his last statement is not true. The bill which would make an appropriation to Drexel Institute has not yet come before the Senate. It is now on the Calendar and I just previously announced that we do not consider the case as different. In both cases, you are adding additional institutions of higher learning to our present commitments. We consider this as breaking the line and we consider them both in the same category. If you do this for Dickinson, you should do it for Drexel. We can say that Drexel is the only nonsectarian school of its type in the Commonwealth, so let us do it for that purpose.

We hold this argument totally invalid and we do not intend to vote for an additinnal sum to Drexel.

Mr. MAHADY. Mr. President, before making an observation, I would like to ask the gentleman from Potter, Senator Berger, one question in order to clarify my own thinking.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHADY. Is not the Duquesne University Law School a separate, nonsectarian institution?

Mr. BERGER. I do not so understand. However, it may well be and, if so, I was in error.

Mr. MAHADY. At least, Mr. President, I was told that it was nonsectarian and separate from the university. That is why it has a completely nonsectarian board.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I will admit my lack of knowledge on that question. I had assumed, possibly erroneously, that Duquesne University Law School was sectarian and a part of Duquesne University.

Mr. MAHADY. Mr. President, what I have to say at this time does not have to do with the merits of the bill, but rather the approach to the question.

We do not have a format by which schools become eligible for grants from the Commonwealth. My investigation—and I think it was fairly thorough—led me to people, telling me that the main idea of giving to the universities of Pennsylvania arose at the time of the depression. We wrote them a blank check for their deficits, and rightly so. During hard times, we gave to them the deficit that they had in order to keep them alive. We have departed from that formula. We now seem to have on formula whereby the amount which you get is based on the number of friends that you have in this group.

I am not speaking of Dickinson nor its needs. I am not speaking of any other college. I am talking about the formula as a whole. My brother, who is a practicing attorney, is a graduate of Dickinson Law School and one of the leaders in the raising of funds for it. However, I say again to you that Senator Hays had a very definite point when he asked, "What is the guide which makes a person eligible for a grant from the Commonwealth?" Does it depend on how many friends you have in the House and Senate? Does it depend on how well people think of you? If it is based on how well people think of you, then Dickinson deserves more money than any other school. It has given more people to the service of the Commonwealth in high places than any other single law school, regardless of its size. We might say, as Webster said, "It is a small place and there are those who love it." However, Mr. President, that is not the argument here today.

Senator Hays said, "Pause and reflect; look and see." What standard are you using? Is it a grab? Is it a giveaway? What does it depend upon? If you have a formula that applies to everyone we would like to see it. After all, we want no Taj Mahal approach to learning. Despite the some ten times increase to universities, what has been added to the sum total of better education since 1950? What are we getting out of it? What is your standard? Senator Hays said to you, and I repeat it, "If you have a standard, we would be only too glad to include Dickinson or anyone else under it." However, we ask you to please give us your standard for including any college which is nonsectarian in the Commonwealth.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on second reading, go over in their order:

House Bill No. 1261, Printer's No. 1795;
House Bill No. 1323, Printer's No. 627;
House Bill No. 1324, Printer's No. 566;
House Bill No. 1325, Printer's No. 567;

House Bill No. 1327, Printer's No. 568;
House Bill No. 1328, Printer's No. 569;
House Bill No. 1344, Printer's No. 1876;
House Bill No. 1355, Printer's No. 783;
House Bill No. 1380, Printer's No. 1810;
House Bill No. 1384, Printer's No. 1756; and
House Bill No. 1473, Printer's No. 1618.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I have no objection to the request made by the Majority Leader. However, might I point out that House Bill No. 1380, Printer's No. 1810, has been on the Calendar for a number of weeks, and I am just wondering whether we can take some action to move that up to Third Reading today. It is a matter that may be in some controversy, but the controversy will not be lessened if the bill just remains on the Second Reading Calendar.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I think the gentleman will notice that all of the bills that have gone over in order are House Bills, unless they were amended, because they do not require as much expedition to be sent over to the House as the Senate Bills, because these bills have already passed the House and are up to Second Reading in the Senate. The bills that we are dealing with, we want to get over there as speedily as possible in view of the fact that it is now November 16, 1959.

The PRESIDENT. You are standing on your request to have the bills which you enumerated go over in order?

Mr. BERGER. Yes sir. That is right.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong the controversy. However, House Bill No. 1380 was amended in the Senate after a hearing was held by the committee, and I am just requesting that we take action on this matter as it will probably have to go to a conference committee finally. If the purpose is to clear our Calendar and to clear our desks of many matters, this might be a good one to dispose of. If for some reason it cannot be done today, I would suggest that it may be taken up tomorrow so that we can get rid of it at that time.

Mr. BERGER. It is possible, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. You are still not objecting, sir?

Mr. WEINER. No sir, I have never objected.

The PRESIDENT. There being no objection, the bills will go over in their order.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1915, entitled:

BILL SIGNED

The President (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the presence of the Senate signed the following bill:

House Bill No. 998, Printer's No. 1851.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, as I said the first time, I cannot seem to get this microphone turned on so that I can be heard.

Senator Barr, who is not here today, asked me to read remarks which he has left in reference to a measure in which he is very much interested. It will not take me very long to do so. I will try to make it as brief as I possibly can.

On behalf of State Senator Joseph M. Barr:

"Mr. President, on August 4th, House Bill No. 322, appropriately known as the Fair Housing Bill, passed the House by a vote of 131 to 66 receiving deserved bipartisan support. On August 5th, this bill, of crucial concern to the well-being of this Commonwealth and of its people, was referred to the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry, and there it has remained until this day.

"I believe I speak for all fair-minded Pennsylvanians when I say that this is an unjust and intolerable situation.

"House Bill No. 322 is one of the most essential pieces of legislation ever to come before the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. Its roots stem from our basic concepts of freedom and democracy. Its purpose is to remove barriers of discrimination which adversely affected not only those who are discriminated against, but the Commonwealth as a whole.

"My support of this bill has not been diminished by the fact that my own city of Pittsburgh has already enacted a fair housing ordinance, which was signed into law by Governor Lawrence when he was still Mayor of Pittsburgh. Indeed, my enthusiasm for this measure is invigorated, if anything, by the Pittsburgh experience, as determined after its fair housing legislation was implemented last June following several months of an intensive educational campaign.

"This is what Pittsburgh has found:

"(1) Since its ordinance went into effect, there is real and tangible evidence that most real estate agents are showing both rental and sales property to minority group families which previously would have been denied them. This makes it possible for the owner or rental agent to deal directly with the minority person and to consider his qualifications for acquiring or using the property. This is a distinct gain in seeking equal rights for all. It demonstrates what we all know is true: most people are law-abiding and you have a great deal of voluntary compliance that simply does not happen unless there is a law.

"The second thing demonstrated by Pittsburgh's experience is that no revolution has resulted from its fair housing legislation. Builders are still building, houses are still being sold or rented. The market has not been adversely affected by the ordinance.

"Actually, the number of violations reported to the Pittsburgh Commission on Human Relations, which administers the ordinance, has been relatively small amounting to only 25 during the first five months of enforcement. All of these cases have been resolved satisfactorily through negotiation and conciliation. None has gone to public hearing and none has required court action.

"This should not, however, be taken as an indicator of the beneficial effects of the measure. The basic improvement has come about by the passage of the legislation itself and from the educational program which has been conducted. Church leadership from all denominations and faiths has been especially helpful in promoting acceptance of the open housing market and compliance with the law.

"All of this experience is good. However, it is obvious that discrimination, like any other disease, does not recognize political boundaries. Pittsburgh's experience, and the experience of the other cities and States throughout the nation which have similar legislation, such as Philadelphia, proves that the concept of fair housing is workable, and is highly beneficial.

"There can be no doubt that such a concept must be statewide in Pennsylvania, if it is to have full meaning and the widest benefit. Nor can there be any doubt as to its need, which was firmly established, after exhaustive study, by a group of distinguished citizens who made up the Governor's Committee on Discrimination in Housing.

"Without going into the Commission's findings in detail, they can be summed up as asserting that housing discrimination in Pennsylvania is widespread and deeply persuasive, having, as its direct victims, well over a million citizens of the Commonwealth.

"As I said before, it is not merely those who are discriminated against who are harmed, but the communities of this State as well. Ghettos, which are the cancerous results of housing discrimination, breed discontent, decay and eventually delinquency.

"It is vital that Pennsylvania move boldly and intelligently to eliminate the injustice and the damage which housing discrimination breeds. It is high time we enforce the basic concepts of equality of all citizens with legislation such as that which has been presented to the Assembly.

"We owe it to Pennsylvania, to its citizens and to its future well-being to stand up and be counted on this issue which can have such meritorious impact upon the communities of this State through fuller realization of the equality we offer to all of our citizens.

"For these reasons, Mr. President, I ask that the committee agree to meet to consider this bill immediately. If it is unwilling to do that, then the committee should be discharged from further considering this bill."

Mr. President, I intend to introduce a resolution, asking that that very thing happen, unless this committee reconsiders its position that it has taken in this vital matter.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Tuesday, November 17, 1959, at 3:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. BLASS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1968, entitled:

An Act imposing a tax on real estate for public school purposes in school districts of the first class and first class A for current expenses.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, the plight of our schools in Philadelphia, as well as the schools in the rest of the state, has been given a sort of verbal hashing. We have had before us two bills, each, in my opinion, representing wishful thinking by both groups who sponsored the legislation.

It has been obvious that these bills have caused more ill feeling between urban and rural areas than any other single piece of legislation. It is my belief that we, as Legislators, have failed miserably, and this is doubly so when we realize that 46 percent of the budget is allocated to education, and yet we have spent 99 percent of our time on political bickering.

I could place the blame upon the administration for not coming forward with a bold, dynamic educational program, which it should have done. Yet, partisan advantage never has solved any problem and has not solved one problem this Session.

The first and basic observation that anyone must make is that the present reimbursement formula is antiquated, unfair, unrealistic and a legalistic nightmare of mumbo-jumbo. I have studied and proposed, not as a panacea or cure-all in conjunction incidentally with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCormack, that the reimbursement formula be based on a per capita income as the real determiner of the local district's ability to pay. It is what the individual takes home in his pay envelope that really determines what he can pay toward the mounting school costs, and not the unrealistic market value of real estate.

Second, I propose that the Speaker of the House appoint an Educational Task Force, not to study the problem—there has been too much of that already—but rather to propose an educational program and the taxes to pay for it.

I like not this temporary transfusion of a two mill increase in real estate taxes, yet our Philadelphia schools and teachers must have this shot in the arm if they are to survive. The impact of this tax falls equally upon rich and poor and does not satisfy the basic philosophy of ability to pay. Since I have pledged to vote for taxes for the Philadelphia school program, I will support this bill. But, in doing so, I ask the Speaker and other Members of this House to support the appointment of an educational task force, which is so badly needed.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL No. 953.

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 953, Printer's No. 1083, entitled:

"An Act amending the 'Cooperative Agriculture Non-Stock Associations Law,' approved June 12, 1919 (P. L. 466), providing for deductions by Pennsylvania milk dealers and milk handlers for payments to cooperative agricultural associations."

was defeated on Final Passage Thursday, November 12, 1959, be reconsidered.

Mr. FLOYD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dougherty vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Floyd vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. FLOYD. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered. The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 998 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. McCANN offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 998, Printer's No. 1851, entitled "An act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled 'An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto' by distressed school districts creating and authorizing a special board of control to assume control of the affairs of such districts defining the powers and duties of the Superintendent of Public Instruction with regard thereto authorizing the levy of an additional tax in certain cases imposing duties on boards of school directors and authorizing their removal in certain cases," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

COMMITTEE MEETING

MILITARY AFFAIRS, Committee meeting and public hearing, Mr. Needham, Chairman, Room 324, Tuesday, November 17 at 11:00 a.m.

PRESENTATION CEREMONIES

The SPEAKER. This being the day and the hour fixed by special order by the House for conducting the final adjournment ceremonies, the Chair requests the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Breth, Chairman of the Program Committee, to preside.

Mr. BRETH PRESIDING

The CHAIRMAN. Members of the House, guests and friends, I want to thank the Members of the House first for the appointment as Chairman of the Program Committee, and, in behalf of the other two Members, the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. P. G. Murray, and the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Stank, for the opportunity to serve the Members of the House on this occasion.

I want to first welcome to the Hall of the House all of the ladies who are here to greet the House and those present this afternoon. I hope that this occasion will bring pleasure to life and some enjoyment, and I would not be human but what I might remark that, as in all projects of this size and nature, there are headaches. However, the headaches can be borne, and I think the enjoyment factor will far supersede the unenjoyment factor.

I want to take this occasion immediately to thank the Members, their friends and others who have contributed in any way to this occasion.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, I hope to be brief. I hope that our program will move along rapidly.

The gentleman from Delaware, Dr. Dengler, our distinguished director of music, who has on many occasions helped many Members to remember better and make their birthdays more enjoyable, has arranged for our entertainment an outstanding program featuring our own House Legislative Chorus. This Chorus will be accompanied by Miss Virginia Gramlich, the daughter of one of our distinguished Members, the gentleman from Venango County, at the piano. And there will be other talented artists to entertain us.

At this time I want to introduce to our Members and guests, Dr. Dengler, our "Music Man."

Mr. DENGLER. Thank you very much, Chairman Breth.

I think we have a very fine program for you this afternoon. For the past month or so the Legislative Chorus has been rehearsing very diligently down in the Majority Caucus Room. We ask the Legislative Chorus to open our program today with a great song entitled, "Beyond the Blue Horizon."

The Members of the House, and their guests, were entertained by the Legislative Chorus under the direction of Mr. Dengler, and the Stenographic Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Moran.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair certainly wants to extend his thanks to Dr. Dengler and the Legislative Chorus in behalf of the Members of the House and their guests. Also to the charming ladies, the talented Members and other artists for their very, very splendid performance. The timely program has been most enjoyable for us all.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, the Majority Leader, who presents a Resolution.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE SPEAKER

Mr. McCANN offered a resolution which was read by the Chief Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

The Honorable Hiram G. Andrews has well earned the admiration and respect of his colleagues by the outstanding manner in which he, as Speaker of the House, has handled the problems and conducted the proceedings of this legislative body.

Mr. Andrews has fully justified the confidence of the members in electing him to this all-important position. His thorough knowledge of parliamentary procedure gleaned from his past experience as the Speaker of the House and from his long membership in this body has been of great value to all of us.

Throughout this entire session of the Legislature, when at times tensions were long and tempers were short, our esteemed Speaker has remained the one source of strength which could always be relied upon to maintain an orderly and businesslike atmosphere.

Time and time again during the session, Mr. Andrews has demonstrated that fairness and impartiality are essential ingredients of leadership. Hiram Andrews has displayed eminent fairness in every ruling he has made and his earnest desire to let every person be heard has instilled in all of us a feeling of good fellowship and a sense of pride. His honest and patient determination has been a prime factor in bringing this session to a successful conclusion; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby congratulates the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews for the success with which he has accomplished the difficult and sometimes tedious tasks of Speaker of the House of Representatives and for the position of leadership and personal popularity he has attained; and be it further

Resolved, That we, as individual members of this House of Representatives, thank Mr. Andrews for his courteous and considerate treatment of every question and objection that has been raised, for his skill in handling the affairs of the House, and for his patience with us; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Chairman, Members of the House and our distinguished friends who are gathered here today, in the span of a life comes to everybody an opportunity to present to the public and to his fellow citizens those things that they believe to be beneficial to all mankind.

Many years ago our beloved Speaker came to Harrisburg, first as a newspaperman, and then as a Member of this House. In the ensuing years this gentleman has fought, at times, a single battle. A battle in which he was the lone individual in this House fighting in the wilderness to uplift the House that he loved so much.

As years have gone by the accomplishments of this, our beloved Speaker, have been many. Goals that were talked about years ago have come to be a realization in the operation of the House today, a goal in which lies at the end of the rainbow the task of making the operation of this House, one, easier, two, more helpful to all concerned and three, for a better understanding among all of the Members of the House. This goal has never been reached, but this man from Cambria has always fought on to come to the end of that goal.

It is said many times that tradition itself says that the Speaker shall come this way two times in his life. This Speaker of ours has come forth two times, and each time he has come back and fought for those things which were beneficial to all the Members of the House and to this body. It certainly is fitting that today in 1959 another accomplishment in the goal of this wise gentleman from Cambria has come to be a realization in the operation of this House. I, as a young man, and many others who have come here for the first time, quite well realize that the esteemed knowledge stored away in parliamentary procedures of this Speaker of our House could some day, perhaps, be written in a book, and many of us feel that it would take a volume or volumes to complete the entire story.

The Resolution that we are to adopt here today, regarding our beloved Speaker is a Resolution that really says from all of us who are a part of this House, Mr. Speaker, you have always reached for that goal at the end of the rainbow, may you never reach that goal, always reaching forward and onward in help to your fellow Members. May you, as the days pass on, always have nothing but pleasant memories of our association with you, both as a Member and a Speaker here in the halls of this House, for better than two decades.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Members of this House we would like to present to our beloved Speaker, the esteemed token of our friendship, the engraved gavel.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Chairman, during the many years the Speaker has been a Member of this House he has been a dominant force among us. He has made the House his life and career and has always kept the ideal of service and good government before him. We have many traditions in this House. One, of course, is the presence of the mace. It is a symbol of authority and the emblem of peace and order.

Aside from its appointed purpose to preserve peace and order, it demonstrates to all the respect which our House of Representatives has for its heritage and its own law. It is the guarantee that those who govern are also governed.

The gavel also has a symbolic significance. The passing of the gavel from one Speaker to another always marks the changing of an established order. Generally it has been brought about by the will of the people, who in the previous election decided which part shall be the majority.

After the gavel has passed to the new Speaker, and the Session proceeds, the use of the gavel determines the nature of the Session. It is the instrument used to call the Session to order. Its poundings restore quiet and make for calmness and serenity.

The wielder of the gavel also has another power—that of recognition—which in any legislative body is a strong and mighty weapon.

It follows then that the person so honored as the one who wields the gavel should appreciate the full meaning of its use.

He should be kind yet forceful, considerate yet firm, amiable yet dignified. By instinct, training and experience he should always uphold the traditions, dignity, respect and greatness of this House.

Our Speaker is such a man. Through this long and trying Session our Speaker has guided us to our closing days with skill and firmness.

Presenting the gavel to the Speaker reminds me of the story they tell about the "gypsy Judge" who copied a slogan from that TV show, and had a card made up on which he placed the slogan "Have gavel, will travel." May the Speaker not travel, but stay with us a long, long time.

Gavels will be presented, will be broken, will pass from Speaker to Speaker. Speeches will be delivered, the work of the Sessions yet to be will be completed. But how we strive for and carry out, preserve and protect the ideals of liberty and justice to all will be the test of achievement.

I want to congratulate the Speaker on this day.

Mr. DEVLIN. Mr. Chairman, although sometimes a person making an introduction or a presentation will tritely use the expression I wish to state with the utmost sincerity and with the humility befitting a sophomore, that I am truly honored and privileged to have been selected to present our gift to the Speaker.

Accordingly, I request your premission to direct a few remarks to Mr. Andrews.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of all your colleagues in this House, I wish to express the gratitude and appreciation of all the Members for your patience and understanding during the time we have been in session; for your counsel and advice during conferences in your office and elsewhere in and around the Capitol, and also for the guidance and counsel afforded in your epistles so aptly entitled "Dispelling the Fog." This publication has been a wonderful source of legislative history, philosophy and the art of legislative accomplishment. In my opinion it has been extremely valuable to use newer Members of this House and also a helpful review for the more experienced. It was a constant source of amazement to me personally that you found time to compose these letters. I know you will waive such wonder aside and credit your fine staff and the cooperation of the other officers of the House with having accepted delegation of duties so willingly as to permit you to have ample time for this project.

We all know and appreciate your dedication to your high office, which compelled you to assume this additional function. Thus, by example and in practice you have attempted to illustrate in accordance with your many past admonitions the prescribed course of conduct necessary to command the respect this body so properly deserves. For these, and for so many other reasons we are deeply grateful.

Mr. Chairman, I would like at this time on behalf of the Officers and the Members of House to present this gift certificate to our Speaker, Mr. Andrews, for whatever purpose he may wish to use it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The CHIEF CLERK (Joseph Ominsky). Mr. Chairman, many words of praise and education have been spoken and written about our Speaker, the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews—praise and adulation well earned and worthy of the individual—in turn, he has taken them with grace and humility.

But a wise man once said that "one picture is worth a thousand words." And speaking of pictures, we find that although the portrait of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor and even Cabinet members line the walls and halls of this Capitol, I have yet to find a portrait of any Speaker of this House, past or present. And yet by protocol, and in point of importance, a Speaker of this House certainly rates a place in line with the Governor and Lieutenant Governor of our great Commonwealth.

So that this error of omission may be corrected, it is fitting to start now with our Speaker, who has done more than any other presiding officer to elevate the prestige and importance of this House—not that the present composition of the House requires any elevation in point of importance or prestige.

We therefore obtained the services of an artist to paint the portrait of Hiram G. Andrews, our Speaker, to take its rightful place in the Halls of this House so that the present generation as well as posterity will remember what the countenance of an outstanding and dedicated public servant looked like.

May Hiram G. Andrews continue to gaze upon his portrait for many, many years to come, and remember that all of us have a deep affection, love and respect for a devoted citizen of this Commonwealth.

Mr. Speaker, please accept this portrait from all of us with our sincere admiration.

The SPEAKER. I have not had the opportunity to ascertain whether anyone would recognize the portrait, and I certainly would not recognize myself in the mirror of the words that have been spoken. It is pleasant to hear them even if you know they are not all true.

There are some people in Pennsylvania who do not have a very high esteem for the Members of this House, but there are communities in Korea, in Japan, in Greece, in Germany and in various parts of South America where the name of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives is revered.

For a couple of years various Members of the House have joined with me in sending CARE packages to various parts of the world.

I want to read to you one brief letter that comes from Bogota, Columbia. It's from a woman. She writes:

"To the Honorable Members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives:

For you I burn candles in my heart.

Although I am very poor and simple, I wish to send to you my fervent wishes for your health and eternal happiness.

I am so happy to receive such a wonderful help for my poverty from unknown friends who are far away, who found out about my poverty and my tragic life. I want to thank you with all my heart in the name of my poor and innocent children, and I pray to Heaven that your kind organization that is made up of men of good will will receive the blessings of God on each step that they may take in the days to come.

That's just one letter. I have another letter from a boy sixteen in Germany who says that he had no friends, nobody cared for him; he was at the end of his line and he contemplated ending it all, and that the package came and he found that there was someone somewhere who cared. And he writes, a year afterwards, a letter of thanks.

You have a lot of friends in Korea. If any of you get licked in your districts, and you want to keep in the legislative circle, there are villages in Korea where you can go, and say you were a Member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and you will be elected.

Now here's a boy, Tran Chan Lor; he writes a letter in Chinese script. Another boy, Fok Tsai Kai. I could read you volumes of letters.

As I say, Members of this House have joined with me in sending these CARE packages. I want the privilege of using the gift you have given me tonight to add to the sum that we usually send abroad.

You know I am—I hope I'm not taking too much time—one of the most fortunate men in the world.

I have a tractor for my garden that you gave me; I have a Hi-Fi in my house for music; I have a television in my house for entertainment; I have an easy chair; I have more books than I'll ever be able to read; I have a home; I have clothes enough to last me the rest of my life—they will wear longer than I will; I have a wife who scolds me and chides me, and when I am in trouble, she is very, very tender. There isn't anything that I need or that I want. My cup is full and overflowing. And I have the friends in this House. So you will join with me, by means of this gift certificate you have given, to carry a message in the name of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives to distant parts of the world, to send hope and healing to people whom you will never know, but some of whom will take the time to write and tell you what your gift meant to them.

I want to thank this House for its courtesy, for its consideration, for its forgiveness of failings that I have, and to say that as the days go by, there are other goals we must achieve. We will work together during the days that we have, in spite of the journalistic astigmatism that beclouds the scene. We will establish the fact that we are the Commons, we are the protection against the usurpation of the court; we are the protection against the overwhelming power of the executive; we are the protection against the notions that come and go in the heads of departments that want to grow too far.

We are not the House of Lords; we are the House of Commons. And it took a long time and great way to bring the House of Commons to the point where it could at least be equal, if not indeed veto—the House of Lords. May history repeat itself in Pennsylvania.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of everyone present I want to say that I have been deeply moved by the words that have just gone into the record of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Varallo.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING MAJORITY LEADER

Mrs. VARALLO offered a resolution which was read by the Chief Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

Whether his party be in the majority or in the minority, there is one man in our midst who has proven his capability to conduct himself and present his party's news in such manner as to hold the admiration and respect of us all.

Stephen McCann has throughout this Session of the General Assembly served tirelessly, faithfully, and with outstanding ability as the Majority Leader of the House of Representatives. His honesty, friendliness, straightforwardness and his even temper have enabled him to discuss matters of importance with persons of diverse opinions and to reach mutually satisfactory solutions. These qualities have earned for Steve well merited friendship and appreciation of the entire membership of the General Assembly.

As Majority Leader, Steve McCann has industriously faced the task of maintaining a clear view of the facts and he has demonstrated a congenial spirit which has made it possible to disagree on issues while maintaining strong personal ties of friendship. He has continuously displayed those qualities of leadership with which very few are endowed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulates Stephen McCann for the wonderful job he has done as Majority Leader. He has represented his party with dignity and honor and he has been a credit to all of us; and be it further Resolved, That as a small token of the respect and friendship of the membership of this House of Representatives, the Chief Clerk is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Mr. McCann.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mrs. VARALLO. Mr. Chairman and Members of the House, the resolution which I have just presented reflects the sentiments of the Members of the House of Representatives.

During the past months we have all met here for deliberation. Today is a special occasion, and for me it is a double "swan song." For that reason I am grateful for the opportunity of introducing this resolution on behalf of our Majority Leader, Stephen McCann.

Many are here who witnessed the convening of the Legislature last January. At that time if they did not already know him they eventually came to know a young man from Greene County, Steve McCann. Young in years, but old and strong in experience. He has served tirelessly and ably. He has been conscientious, aggressive and exceedingly fair in his dealings with the Members, and many other persons who contacted him. His sense of humor and affability helped to carry him over many rough spots during this Session.

Most of his Sundays were spent in Harrisburg, burning the midnight oil, endeavoring to develop a legislative program acceptable to the Members of the General Assembly and to the citizens of the Commonwealth. His was not an easy task, and I am sure we all agree he acquitted himself with distinction.

Were we to be in Session on Thanksgiving Day, November 26, we would have the opportunity of congratulating him on his birthday. As this will not be the case, may I therefore, Steve, wish you a very happy forthcoming birthday from the Membership of the House of Representatives and your many friends.

Although much is being said about the time Steve has spent in Harrisburg in performing his arduous duties, we would be remiss if we did not mention that a vote of thanks is due Mrs. McCann. Her cooperation and understanding were helpful in making it possible for him to give us so much of his time.

Now that the Session is nearing to a close, he will have more time to spend with his son, Stephen, and his new daughter, Trissa Ann, who is just a few months old.

Mr. Chairman, in closing, I think I express the sentiments of the entire Membership when I say that we all appreciate Steve's integrity and his ability to do big things and take setbacks in their stride.

God Bless you, Steve, and may you continue to go to greater heights.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Chairman, in the so-called dying days of this 1957 Session of the General Assembly—'59, I mean—that is about as bad as the referral to Mr. Andrews fighting for a short-business-like session. I thought I had a corner on that phrase.

I am glad to stand at this microphone and say some nice words about Steve McCann, our jovial Majority Leader. I have been around here now long enough that I can reminisce a little.

I remember when I was Floor Leader in the 1953 Session, Hi Andrews was the Floor Leader on the Democratic side—the Minority Leader. I can remember his saying, shaking his fist, you might say, over at me and saying, "Shake not your gory locks at us." That was really a great session.

Then in 1955, we had Al Readinger, who was Floor Leader on the Democratic side. Al was a wonderful Floor Leader and on one day showed the kind of stuff that men are made of. He was a wonderful person.

Now we are serving with Stephen McCann. He is a genial, lovable, gentle guy that can just not say "no," and in the words of the poet, he could "draw iron tears down Pluto's cheek and make hell grant what love doth seek."

They say that he is an ex-football player, and I would like to see him make an end run today; also that he is an ex-wrestler. In McKean County we call it "wrasling." I think about all he could do today would be to wrestle with a concurrent resolution. I do not believe he could muster up too much steam, but anyhow, he has been, I would say, an outstanding Floor Leader. This has been a very trying session for the Majority Leader in such an equally divided House as we have here. Circumstances day after day are enough to try the patience of a saint, you might say, and McCann has stood the test.

We have been faced with a number of difficult problems, politically painful problems. You Members of the House have to run for office every two years and know what I mean by politically painful problems. Steve has kept calm and good-natured under circumstances which have been very trying. First of all, as I said was his paper-thin majority. He had to come over to us and ask for votes which we have given, as you know. There were times when his own party has gone off the reservation. Certain pressure groups tried to put the pressure on him. Then the Senate, of course, is in the control of the Republican, party, which has not made his job too easy, but Stevie has not blown his stack, as they say. He has kept calm, held to his course and frequently disarmed us with that perpetual smile of his.

One thing you can say about him, he is a hard worker. I have never seen anybody work as hard as Steve does from morning until night. Go into his office and he has his sleeves rolled up and he is talking into that microphone. I understand he dictates so many letters it takes about four girls to keep up with the typing. That is the type of hard work that Steve has put into his office to be an outstanding Floor Leader.

I am sure that all Members on this side of the House join with me in wishing him much success in his life, and I think he has shown us that he has what it takes to do a job under trying circumstances.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Chairman, Members of the House, I, perhaps more than any other Member of this House, have been exposed to the radiating personality of our Majority Leader. As years of service go, I am not exactly an old-timer nor am I what the Speaker referred to as an neophyte. In my six terms I have seen leading personalities come and go in this House of Representatives. But, in many respects, our present Majority Leader has been unique. For example, I have never known a Member of this House who possessed as much drive and personal stamina as does our present Majority Leader. I, being one of those who has tried to follow as he led, found myself weary many times before the day was half over. And yet McCann kept going.

I have marvelled and I know many of you have marvelled with me at his ability to grasp in such a short period of time questions that have come up, varied questions, covering the entire field, and we have heard him discuss budgets, school problems, and even lawyers' problems with equal skill.

I have been tremendously impressed with his ability to rally support, something which amounted in this Session to almost what we term "personal diplomacy." Many of you witnessed here on this floor the close vote, when Steve would say, "Come on, Joe, get your vote in, get your vote in, get your vote in, we need your vote." And when we were short three or four or five votes when the final vote was announced, through his personal drive, through his personal diplomacy, Steve has had to come up with those particular votes.

I have been amazed, and I am sure many of you have been amazed, at his alertness. Sometimes it has been subject to comment. But, he would sit or stand here at this rostrum and sometimes even make a little whistle, or say hey, or so and so, and he has been alert to every action of this House, something at which I have marvelled. I have been in his shadow right down in front and had a chance to observe his every action.

Mr. Chairman, I would say that Mr. McCann is a big man in many respects, and when he leaves as our Majority Leader, which I am firmly convinced one day he will leave for greener, better pastures, he will have left a job which will be mighty hard to fill, a position for which we will look long and hard to find a man so devoted to duty as our present Majority Leader.

And speaking of his dictating which keeps three or four girls busy, which I know is actually the truth, in addition to that I have had the opportunity of driving down on the Pennsylvania Turnpike to see a black Dodge car pass me with the dome light on and McCann dictating letters in his automobile on his way to Harrisburg. He does not know when to quit. He has been a tremendous force on this side of the House and we wish him great success.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the officials, officers and Members I want to present Mr. McCann with this gift certificate for a television set and we hope you will have many hours of enjoyment with that particular set.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCann, our Majority Leader.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Chairman and my fellow Members of the House, and all the friends of the House, I certainly am deeply touched this afternoon by the kind words that have been said by Mr. Lopresti, Mrs. Varallo and my kind friend, Mr. Johnson from McKean County.

I would like to say that Mrs. McCann and my family certainly thank you from the bottom of our hearts for this gift. We certainly hope that some day the wish of my wife will certainly come true that I will come home to enjoy this wonderful gift. Thank you.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING MINORITY LEADER

Mr. TOMPKINS offered a resolution which was read by the Chief Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

During the session of the General Assembly, the spirit of cooperation was essential since neither party had a clear cut majority and each had to bend a little in order to achieve a legislative program. The Honorable, Albert W. Johnson, as the Minority Leader, has served tirelessly, faithfully and with outstanding ability in this capacity.

Although this is the first time Mr. Johnson has served as Minority Leader, his thorough knowledge of the law and the workings of our ever complex system of government has made him one of the most outstanding leaders to ever grace our halls with his presence. His past experiences as Majority Whip in 1951, Majority Leader in 1953, Minority Whip in 1955 and Majority Leader again in 1957 were evident this session as he led his party through the difficult tasks that faced all of us.

"Al" Johnson has again proven himself to be capable of the duties that were imposed upon him. As we all know, these duties require sincere devotion and unselfish giving from a deep reservoir of intelligence and understanding. The fact that Mr. Johnson carried out his duties so well has gained for him the admiration and respect of every member of this legislative body; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives offers their sincere and heartfelt congratulations to the Honorable Albert W. Johnson for a job well done as an able and capable Minority Leader; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be given to Mr. Johnson by the Chief Clerk as a token of the admiration and friendly esteem in which he is held by each member of this House of Representatives.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Chairman and Members of the House, you know and I know that he is a nice guy. You know and I know that he has been the good shepherd of the Republican Members of this House for quite some time. You know and I know he has never been afraid to tackle any problem or job no matter how great or how small and has won the appellation of "fearless." You know and I know that among his favorite tunes in songs are, I am forever counting noses and "we ain't got a barrel of money, we may be ragged and funny, but we travel along, singing a song side by side." To prove it he brings along his mandolin and plays it for you and this afternoon with Steve McCann and their respective secretaries. You know and I know that as a country lawyer and as a Member of this House for seven sessions he has acquired a knowledge of the law and lawmaking and of the operation of state government equal to any person in this Commonwealth. Unfortunately, not quite enough people in this Commonwealth knew on November 3rd what you and I know. Even tempered, of a leveling and restraining hand, he has always displayed qualities of good leadership, and when someone throws sand in his eyes he comes out of his corner a fighting man.

Al, as he is better known, has been and is a good leader. He is an outstanding Legislator and would have made his mark as a judge. We all feel that Al is experienced and qualified for better things. We all hope that time will so reward him.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Chairman, in the 1959 Session of the General Assembly, in my position as Majority Floor Leader, I certainly can say that I learned to know the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, far differently than any other relationship would have permitted in the years that I have been here before when Mr. Johnson was a Majority Leader, and held that position on the part of his Party.

I have found over the months that the gentleman from McKean has certainly been an outstanding gentleman in fulfilling the obligation of passing some legislation for the betterment of all the people of this Commonwealth, and trying to fulfill the obligation of providing votes which were lacking on the Majority side for passing necessary legislation that had to be passed. I know the problems that confronted him in fulfilling these obligations; I know of the numerous times conferences were held throughout the weeks and Sunday nights in fulfilling these commitments and working out a sound legislative program.

I am well aware that this fine gentleman from McKean County, Mr. Johnson, who in the company of his wife many times at the hotels in this city, when we had an opportunity to discuss important legislative programs, always had a fine sense of responsibility and a solution to very touchy problems. He is an attorney, a very good attorney, and his wisdom in giving to us recommendations as an attorney was certainly most helpful time and time again.

The complete cooperation from his office over the months has absolutely been amazing in fulfilling the legislative responsibilities of the daily Sessions of the House. He has always been willing, always able, and always has upheld the position of his party with absolute admiration of the Members on our side of the House who were disagreeing with his position, but yet his presentation was certainly an asset to the position he was taking.

This gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, is certainly a man whom I like to call my friend, for he certainly has fulfilled far beyond the requirements of a friend, an outstanding Floor Leader who has fulfilled an outstanding job in a very difficult legislative Session. It certainly has been a great pleasure for me to come to know this gentleman so much better and to enjoy and admire and respect the position that he has taken. To him and to his family, I wish him every wonderful success, and I am confident that he will continue to lead his party in a very diligent, admirable position in fulfillment of his responsibilities.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. LIPPINCOTT. Mr. Chairman, it has been a source of great personal satisfaction and pleasure to me, during the last two sessions of this Legislature to have been given the privilege of sitting next to Al Johnson, both when he served as a Majority Leader and when he served as a Minority Leader.

I can say sincerely that the qualities that Al has shown have been to me most remarkable. I will not talk about his abilities as a lawyer, his ability in speech-making, and his other qualities, such as his vast knowledge, and I mean this sincerely, of our state government, but, I would like to say just a few words on more or less a personal basis.

I have, as I said, been sitting next to Al during this Session and I might say it seems to me the task, with all due respect to the Majority Leader, of Minority Leader is in many ways much more difficult. It is frustrating, it is a thankless job for the most part. It is a job where you have to learn to roll with the blows because of times you do not know what is coming. I can say sincerely I have never seen Al lose his composure or become ruffled at any time during this long Session.

I would like to say also that I have seen Members of this House from both sides of the aisle come to Al on numerous occasions asking advice or help. Al listens to everyone sympathetically, he treats everyone with kindness, and I think he sincerely tries to help everyone regardless of politics. I think these qualities that I have mentioned are really, perhaps, more important than being a good leader and merely being able to speak well, which, of course, I said Al can do, as well as the other things.

Al, on behalf of all the Members on both sides of the House and the Officers of the House, I would like to present to you and to your good wife this gift certificate for a rug of your choice.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, the Minority Leader.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Chairman, Members of the House, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for this lovely gift. It certainly has been a pleasure to serve in this 1959 Session of the General Assembly with all of you wonderful people, and I want to again thank you very much.

Before I sit down I would like to have my good wife stand. She has been very understanding in the trying days in the life of a Legislator. So if Mrs. Johnson would please stand I would like to have you meet her.

Again I want to thank you very kindly for this gift.

The CHAIRMAN. At this time the Chair wishes to thank all present for their marvelous attention. I want to assure you that the remainder of the program is quite short and we would appreciate the same kind of courtesy.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the House, our distinguished and welcome friends. It is my task to introduce a woman Member of our Assembly. It is rather hard to introduce a woman. You have to select your words with such infinite care. For example, you may call a woman a kitten, but you must not call her a cat.

You may call a woman a mouse, but definitely not a rat!

You may call a woman, as a term of endearment, "duck," but you simply must avoid "goose"!

You may, and I recommend to you gentlemen, greet your wife in the morning with a cheery: "My dear, you are a vision," but please, oh please, never say, "My dear, you certainly are a sight!"

But men are queer, too. They say the main difference between man and beast is man's brains, but there the difference ends, because man is lionhearted, chicken-livered, pigeon-toed, busy as a bee, sly as a fox, blind as a bat, gentle as a lamb, drunk as a hoot owl, stubborn as a mule, strong as an ox, vain as a peacock, happy as a lark, or chazy as a loon—depending upon your particular point of view.

Mr. Chairman, I am greatly honored in having been selected to make the presentation of a gift to a most gracious lady our Majority Whip, the Honorable Mary

A. Varallo of Philadelphia. This beautiful House of Representatives has housed many outstanding whips—however, Mary Varallo, I believe is the first Member of her sex to hold this high position of the Pennsylvania General Assembly.

I suppose that we, the male Members, have to agree that there is a place for women other than in the kitchen and home. I recently read a quotation, it said, "Every man who is high up likes to think that he had done it all by himself, and the wife smiles and lets it go at that." I would add where would some of us be, or do without the help and prodding of our own wives?

So, it has been with our Majority Whip. We looked forward to numerous occasions when she would prod us into voting and be in our seats for important measures that might be before the House.

This was done without animosity due to her feminine charm. Mary's talents did not end after the chores in the House.

She was most active in the Democratic State Womens Guild and especially in Philadelphia. Her work was rewarded by being elected as the first woman Council Member in the city of Philadelphia's history. Not to forget the fact that she was recently voted as one of the 10 outstanding Women of Pennsylvania.

Verily, she is the quintessence of an amanuensis. Since you may not have the time to look up these words, as I did, I would simply tell you what they mean in current slang of our children that Mary Varallo is on the beam, she's in the groove, and she's cooking with gas.

The Honorable Mary A. Varallo was elected to this House in 1944—re-elected in 1948 and continually served this House to this date.

There is no doubt that in January of 1960 her absence in this Assembly will be noticeable, as she takes up her duties in another field.

We wish her success.

Mary Varallo, on behalf of the Officers, Members and friends I wish to present you with this gift certificate of a television set.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs Varallo, the Majority Whip.

Mrs. VARALLO. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank you very, very much for this lovely gift, a television set.

It has really been a privilege for me to serve in this House for so many years, and I am going to miss this House when I don't come back anymore as a Member. When I do come back to Harrisburg, it won't be as a Member but only as a visitor. You have heard that I was elected in Philadelphia as a Councilman-at-large, and I will serve in that capacity.

But I am taking back to Philadelphia with me many, many happy memories of the good friends I have made on both sides of the House and of the many wonderful people I have met here in Harrisburg during my tenure in office.

Again I want to thank you. I really am not going to say good bye, I am going to say a rivederci.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Chairman, it is my privilege as part of our traditionally significant closing exercises, to say a word about a man who since early June has so capably served our side of the House as Minority Whip.

Taking over the duties in midstream, Ed Tompkins, wholly in character, has given the task of Assistant Minority Leader a devoted performance of teamwork, firmness and enterprise. During the absence of the Minority Leader, Mr. Tompkins acquitted himself well in the top command post.

He has come to his position of parliamentary responsibility with a record of impressive accomplishment. Many years a successful lawyer, for several of his seven legislative terms the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, he was recently a Member of the important State Constitutional Revision Commission.

Mr. Chairman, we his House colleagues, in the vernacular of the sea, his shipmates sailing upon the turbulent waters of legislative endeavor, are proud of the record of the distinguished gentleman from Cameron.

Moreover, we approach this moment of closing-exercises recognition of our Minority Whip with a warm feeling of affection. There is kindled within us a sense of trust in the high courage and the resolute, honest personality which tends to overshadow the great and generous heart of Ed Tompkins.

So now, Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the officers and Members, I am privileged to present to you, Ed, and to Mrs. Tompkins, this gift certificate for a Hi-Fi set.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, the Minority Whip.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Chairman and Members of the House: Thank you, Admiral Davis, for those very kind and generous words. Harry Price just whispered in my ear, "He had better stop before we get seasick."

And thank you, Members of the House, and our friends of the unnamed audience, for the presentation to me of such a wonderful token of remembrance.

Several summers ago it was my pleasure to take, with my wife, a one week schooner cruise off the coast of Maine. We put into some port and anchored there every night.

I well remember at one of these ports a retired army surgeon, as a pastime and hobby, built and operated what became known among the seafaring travelers as the Hi-Fi House. Passengers on the boats that anchored at the port very anxiously took advantage of an evening of musical enjoyment on the latest hi-fi equipment at the generous hand of this retired army surgeon. He loved people, and he loved to make them happy.

As I shall set up this beautiful gift in my home; and as I shall recline in my favorite chair, with my family and friends gathered about me, I may find myself reminiscing as follows:

To the strains of "Hallelujah" I shall recount the enthusiasm and joy with which our genial Majority Leader always received the motion to adjourn promptly at 7:30.

"The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" will conjure up memories of the Philadelphia Democratic Delegation.

Yodeling Alpine Swiss style, will ever echo and re-echo the soft and gentle NO's of the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Auker.

With the melody of "My Wild Irish Rose," I can always recount the invitation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dougherty, to dance an Irish jig with some Republican somewhere outside of the Hall of the House.

"Kitten on the Keys" will bring to mind the entire gamut of legislative manenvering of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schwartz, the day we considered Senate Bill 405.

"The Lost Chord" will forever hereafter have a label of 28 million dollars on it.

"The Stein Song," can take me into so many places all over Harrisburg and vicinity with so many different groups, to discuss so many different subjects, who will view with alarm, or extol the amelioration of society and mankind as it shall serve the interest of those filling the stein.

"Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight," is the chant I will hear from the lusty throats of the side-line legislators and legislative engineers as the vote on their bill approaches.

I shall never see a poem as beautiful as a tree sung by the Great Dane.

"Where did you go?-out. What did you do?-nothing." The closing chorus by the Fourth Estate.

And so while listening to the strains of "Day is Dying In The West" the vision of our venerable Speaker passes before me soliloquizing in this fashion:

My hair is white and I'm almost blind,
The days of my youth are far, far behind.
My neck's so stiff, can't turn my head,
Can't hear half that's being said,

My legs are wobbly, can't hardly walk,
But glory be, I can surely talk.
And this is the message I want you to get,
I'm still akickin', and I ain't dead yet.

And so you, my friends, when you shall be a traveler my way, drop anchor, rest awhile, drink and break bread with Mrs. Tompkins and me before continuing on your journey. The door to my Hi-Fi-House will never be locked.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Chairman, will the Honorable Joseph Ominsky please come forth.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the Chief Clerk present himself to the Co-Chairman.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. On behalf of the Officers and Members I wish to present you Mr. Ominsky, with this gift certificate for an airplane reservation for a marvelous vacation.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Chief Clerk of the House, Mr. Joseph Ominsky.

The CHIEF CLERK (Joseph Ominsky). Mr. Chairman, unexpected as this presentation is now, but mindful of the fact that all of us must bow to tradition, I accept this gift with the knowledge that the trip was not meant to send me away because I did not do a job well, but because the work was well done, so well that my energies have been exhausted and therefore I should take a long trip to recharge.

On behalf of myself and my lovely wife over there, I want to thank all of you, and say for her that this trip will make up for the lost time away from her during this Session. Thank you very much.

The CHAIRMAN. Will Mrs. Ominsky please rise?

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Chairman, will the Honorable Paul C. Moomaw present himself.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the Secretary of the House present himself to the co-Chairman, please.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. On behalf of the Officers and the Members of this House I wish to present you with this gift certificate for a silver set.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Secretary of the House, Mr. Moomaw.

The SECRETARY (Paul C. Moomaw). Mr. Chairman, Members of the House, and friends, I certainly appreciate this wonderful gift and am sure my good wife, Mrs. Moomaw also appreciates same. It will probably give me an opportunity, once the House adjourns, to eat meals at home more frequently, and enjoy them with her. As it has been for many months, I am only a week-end visitor at home, and often times not on week-ends.

I again want to thank you very much, personally and on behalf of Mrs. Moomaw who is over in the corner. Will she please rise? I am sure she likewise appreciates this wonderful gift. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Murray.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Chairman, will the Parliamentarian, the Honorable S. Edward Moore, present himself.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the Honorable S. Edward Moore, the Parliamentarian, present himself to the co-Chairman?

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Moore, on behalf of the Officers and Members, I wish to present you with this gift certificate for steamship tickets for your trip. This is a slow boat to China.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the Parliamentarian of the House, Mr. S. Eddie Moore.

The PARLIAMENTARIAN (Mr. S. Edward Moore) Mr. Chairman, at a time like this there are no words adequate to express one's feelings. Although Mrs. Moore and I deeply appreciate this gift, we value so very much more the friendships which it represents.

It was more than two years ago when, because of Mrs. Moore's illness, the trip we planned to take was postponed. Now, perhaps sometime in 1960 we may be able to take it.

Mrs. Moore is here tonight and I would like the privilege of presenting her to you.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Chairman, will the Honorable Martin C. Mihm present himself.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the Honorable Martin C. Mihm from Allegheny County present himself to the co-Chairman.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Mihm, on behalf of the Officers and Members I wish to present you with this gift certificate for a portable radio.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mihm.

Mr. MIHM. Mr. Chairman and Members, I want to thank you for your thoughtful token of kindness and appreciation. It has been a great pleasure to serve you, and greater pleasure and honor to sit with you and serve with you in the House. Thank you very much.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Chairman, will the Honorable Adam Bower present himself.

The CHAIRMAN. Will the Honorable Adam Bower from Northumberland County present himself to the co-Chairman.

Mr. P. G. MURRAY. Mr. Bower, on behalf of the Officers and Members, I wish to present to you this gift certificate for a portable radio.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Bower.

Mr. BOWER. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the gift very much. It has been an honor to work for the benefit of every Member of the House—with you and for you. I thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. At this time the Chair would like, on behalf of the Committee, to remind all Members, and only Members, that a special memento of this Session, gift-wrapped and identical for each Member, will be available at the Chief Clerk's office tomorrow or any time the Members wish to pick them up.

Mr. O'DELL. Mr. Chairman, if Mr. Fetterolf will approach.

The CHAIRMAN. Will Mr. Fetterolf present himself to the gentleman from Erie, please.

Mr. O'DELL. This is a gift which should have been presented much earlier. Since some of you did not know it, Mr. Fetterolf was the best golfer of the entire House at the summer picnic. On behalf of the Pennsylvania Jeweler's Association, I would like to present this gift to you at this time.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the "Champeen."

Mr. FETTEROLF. Mr. Chairman, I would like to sincerely thank the Pennsylvania Retail Jewelers' Association, and all of you here in the House for this lovely trophy. Thank you very much.

The CHAIRMAN. At this time the Chair with deep appreciation wishes to thank the Members of the House, their friends, and anyone who has participated in the program today, and particularly I personally wish to thank the other two gentlemen on the Committee, Mr. Murray, and Mr. Stank.

I would also like to say that there will be a reception, buffet and dance, beginning approximately at 8:30 at the West Shore Country Club for Members and their guests.

I want to add an oversight which was not intentional. I want particularly to invite all employes of the House of Representatives to the West Shore Country Club tonight, and also want to thank them for the marvellous cooperation during this Session.

At this time I am very happy and pleased to present to you again the Speaker of the House.

The SPEAKER. Some of the new Members may have wondered why the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Mihm, and the gentleman from Northumberland, Mr. Bower, were singled out for a special mark of distinction. The old Members know.

When the question of pensions for Members of this House first began to be talked about, that movement was spearheaded and brought to fruition by the two gentlemen in question.

When the matter of increased remuneration for the Members of this House was being discussed and there were timid souls who did not desire to be identified with the idea, it was the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Northumberland who spearheaded that movement.

Another thing, there has long been a neglected group in Pennsylvania, the teachers who have been retired for quite a time who taught sometimes for forty years and stepped out of service, their retirement measly sums that range sometimes $25 a month on up on occasion, particular cases, to $60 a month. They have been importing this Legislature for some recognition for the years. It was the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Northumberland who spearheaded that movement and a very sizeable sum, I think over $3 million, is in the budget for that long-neglected group and we have those two gentlemen to thank.

There are other state employes who served faithfully who have not been accorded the recognition by way of a pension remunerant, and they too are to be remembered. The gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Northumberland spearheaded that movement.

These are things that the Chair has had in mind for these many years and they could not have been realized until the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Northumberland stepped out and adopted those ideas, those works of benefaction in which there are no votes for anybody, no political fame is to be gained by it, but it was a work of compassion, a work of mercy, a work of Legislative decency and the Chair together with all the other Members of this House wants to express his personal deep appreciation for the services rendered by the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Northumberland.

May they live long, both of them, and both of them be Members of this House as long at least as I can be around, and I plan to be on the scene at least until 1980 when I want to spearhead the movement for a state guest house.

The CHAIRMAN. On behalf of the Committee and the Members, we wish to thank the Speaker for those sentiments. At this time I want to request Dr. Dengler and the House Legislative Chorus to lead all us in singing "America the Beautiful."

Mr. DENGLER. Mr. Chairman, before we sing that song, I would like the chorus to sing the Pennsylvania song, and then have them all join in "America the Beautiful."

The CHAIRMAN. Ladies and gentlemen, we wish to turn the rostrum and the big gavel back to your Speaker.

The SPEAKER. (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, there are only two items. I request permission to turn to page 8, bills on third reading, to recommit a bill and to amend one.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 573, entitled:

An Act prohibiting persons engaged in financing the purchase of real or personal property or of lending money on the security of real or personal property or their agents or employes from interfering with the right of any person to select an insurer of his choice providing for the giving of notice of such right of free selection prohibiting the making of a charge against any person for substituting an insurance policy of one insurance company for that of another providing penalties providing for civil and criminal remedies including damages and penalties and fine and/or imprisonment and for the loss of license of an insurance agent or broker and making the penalties and remedies concurrent and repealing inconsistent acts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Insurance.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 785, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "Public School Code of 1949" providing for the formation of union school districts and further providing for payments by the Commonwealth to school districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCANN asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Section 3 (Section 2502.1), page 5, line 7, by inserting after "AND": "of."

Amend Section 3, (Section 2502.1), page 5, line 16, by striking out "(A)" and inserting: "(a)".

Amend Section 3 (Section 2502.1), page 7, line 3, by striking out "(D)" and inserting: "(d)."

Amend Section 3 (Section 2502.1), page 7, line 20, by striking out "OF THE SECOND CLASS WHICH MERGE OR UNITE," and page 8, lines 1 to 8, by striking out all of said lines and inserting: "which result from the merger or the union of a district of the first class A or of a district of the second class subsequent to the first Monday of July, 1961, with one or more districts of the third class or with one or more districts of the fourth class during the first year that supplemental payments are payable eight hundred dollars ($800) per teaching unit multiplied by twice the total number of teaching units reported by the third and fourth class districts of such merged or union district for the year immediately preceding the effective date of the merger or the union and by the subsidiary account reimbursement fraction of the district of residence; for each year thereafter, eight hundred dollars ($800) per teaching unit multiplied by the total number of teaching units reported by such merged or union district less the number of teaching units for which no payment was allowed on the first payment and by the subsidiary account reimbursement fraction of the district of residence."

Amend Section 3 (Section 2502.1), page 8, line 9, by striking out "(E)" and inserting: "(e)."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection, all bills remaining on today's calendar not considered were passed over at the request of Mr. McCANN.

RESOLUTION

Mr. McCANN offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON
SENATE BILL NO. 379

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its nonconcurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 379 entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 27, 1949 (P. L. 1903) entitled "The Military Code of 1949" providing that Colonels having certain service shall be placed on the retired list as Brigadier Generals.

And has appointed Messrs. Wolfe, Walker and Hahady a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the difference existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 379 and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON
SENATE BILL NO. 379

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on the part of the House, Messrs. NEEDHAM, CROSSIN and AUKER.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE INSISTS ON AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 1592, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" providing for an operators license period of two years and fixing fees relative thereto and permitting the Secretary of Revenue to divide motor vehicle operators into categories and to vary the issuance and expiration dates of operators's licenses in accordance therewith.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON
HOUSE BILL NO. 1592

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on the part of the House, Messrs. POLEN, LOPRESTI and GUTHRIE.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. AGNEW. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, November 17, 1959 at 1:00 p.m. E.S.T.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 7:20 p.m. E.S.T.) the House adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1959.

143rd of the General Assembly.

Vol. 36.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1959.

No. 112.

SENATE

TUESDAY, November 17, 1959.

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. MELVIN WALPER, Pastor of Zion's Reformed Church, Ashland, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou Who hast promised to hear us when we call upon Thee in the Name of Thy dear Son, hear Thou our prayer of gratitude for all the rich blessings that come to us from Thy heart of love. We thank Thee for the joys that cheer us. We thank Thee, too, for the trials that teach us that Thou alone art our refuge and our strength, a very present help in every trouble.

We praise Thee, our Father, God, for the freedom Thou hast given us and for the dignity which that freedom brings to us. So bless us with Thy guidance that we might know what is Thy perfect and acceptable will and then strengthen us to do Thy will.

So direct the minds and the hearts of these Senators that they might bear their responsibilities in a way that shall bring blessing to our Commonwealth and glory to Thee, our God. Open Thou their ears, their minds and their hearts and stretch forth their hands to the cry of the needy, that in our mutual burden-bearing we may fulfill the law of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, the law of love.

Bless us, we pray, for we ask these things in Jesus' Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BERGER and Mr. BLASS, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

DELEGATION REPRESENTING THE COUNCIL OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN OF BUCKS COUNTY AND SENIOR CLASS OF WILLIAM TENNENT HIGH SCHOOL, JOHNSVILLE, PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. KELLER. Mr. President, I am very happy and proud this afternoon to introduce to the Senate two delegations. One is a delegation of women, representing the Council of Republican Women of Bucks County. They are seated over to the right of the rostrum.

I would also like to present to the Senate the Senior Class of the William Tennent High School, of Johnsville, Bucks County. The class consists of 150 students, together with their supervisors, Miss Ella Rhoads, Mr. Edward Wolfe and Mr. Frank Swider.

We are very glad to have them with us today and ask the Chair to extend to them a word of welcome.

The PRESIDENT. Will the two groups mentioned please rise?

You have had the greeting of the Senate of Pennsylvania. We are very happy to have you with us and we hope that you will be most interested in the proceedings of today's Session.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which were read as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, now that the captains and the kings have separated, in the words of Kipling, I will make my statement.

When the two bills I am about to introduce are offered at this late hour, it may seem to be an empty gesture. However, I am depending upon the wisdom, circumspection and speed of the Rules Committee, and I still hope to have them enacted.

One of the bills deals with a colorful military figure in Pennsylvania; namely, Judge Vincent A. Carroll, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, in Philadelphia. He is now a Brigadier General in the National Guard Reserves.

This bill is introduced on behalf of Senator Chapman, Senator Donolow and myself, praying for the promotion of President Judge Carroll to the rank of Major General, Retired, in the National Guard.

The other bill, Mr. President, is the real piece de resistance. It deals with our own Senator Sarraf. It would confer the rank of Brigadier General upon this fine citizen soldier.

This bill is introduced on behalf of Senator Ripp, Senator Chapman and myself.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. STIEFEL, CHAPMAN and DONOLOW read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1249, entitled:

An Act conferring the rank of Major General, Retired, in the Pennsylvania National Guard upon Vincent A. Carroll.

Which was committed to the Committee on Rules.

Messrs. STIEFEL, RIPP and CHAPMAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1250, entitled:

An Act conferring the rank of Brigadier General, Retired, in the Pennsylvania National Guard upon George Sarraf.

Which was committed to the Committee on Rules.

DELEGATES FROM TIOGA COUNTY TO THE CONVENTION OF PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN WOMEN PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I would like to introduce to the Senate six ladies from Tioga County. They are here as delegates to the Convention of Pennsylvania Republican Women. They are Mrs. W. E. Hill, of Wellsboro; Mrs. Rex L. Davis, of Gaines; Mrs. Wilson W. Smith, of Mansfield; Mrs. Glenn Bastian, of Mansfield; Mrs. Milton G. Peake, of Wellsboro; and Mrs. Jerome Copley, of Wellsboro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the ladies please rise?

I am indeed happy, on behalf of the Senate, to welcome you ladies from such a beautiful section of Pennsylvania.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATION

Mr. FLEMING asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nominations reported at today's Session.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

A motion was made by Mr. FLEMING and Mr. BLASS, that the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nominations reported at today's Session.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President, at the risk of being a bum needle on a broken record, I must repeat, in principle, what I said yesterday in connection with the Dickinson Law School. I have nothing but admiration for the Drexel Institute of Technology, and for their fine President. My vote is simply a protest about the failure, in my opinion, to see a policy, a State policy, in regard to money for institutions of higher education. I would sort of characterize the policy that we are using, as we vote on this today, as "foot in the door" policy to which I object.

I think that my colleagues, Senator Seyler and Senator Mahady, hold in principle, this same point of view.

Mr. MCCREESH. Mr. President, before passage of this bill, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Drexel Institute of Technology, located in west Philadelphia, for the excellent contribution it has made in the field of education for thousands of young men and women throughout Pennsylvania.

The passage of this initial appropriation bill to this very worthy and deserving institute will not only mean better educational opportunities for many youthful students of this Commonwealth, but also it will permit Drexel Institute to play a major role in the physical re-birth of west Philadelphia.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. LANE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to make an observation, if I may.

To be very brief and to the point, I voted against the appropriation to Drexel Institute because I felt that the $750,000 could be better spent in other places. For example, in House Bill No. 2221, we gave to St. Christopher's Hospital the sum of $140,000 to take care of work and research on something which is of vital importance to the entire population of Pennsylvania.

In House Bill No. 2228, we gave to the Department of Welfare, for the purpose of setting up sheltered workshops for the mentally retarded, the measly sum of $240,000 for the biennium. A part of this money which we gave to Drexel Institute could certainly be put to very good use by adding it to the appropriation in these two particular bills.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. At this time, the Chair returns the gavel to the President of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the Chair.

APPROPRIATION BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2229, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Welfare to reimburse State-aided hospitals and the Philadelphia General Hospital for part of the cost of training student nurses in approved schools of nursing and making a deficiency appropriation for the same purpose.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time. The purpose of the amendments is to make up for the deficiency now existing in this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, may we be at ease a few moments?

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be at ease.

(The Senate was at ease.)

AMENDMENTS LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I request that the amendments which I just offered be laid on the table.

The PRESIDENT. There being no objection, the amendments will be laid on the table.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

APPROPRIATION BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 2229, Printer's No. 1971, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

APPROPRIATION BILLS ON THIRD READING
FINAL PASSAGE

The House met at 1:00 p. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God, the Protector of all who call upon Thee, and the Saviour of all who trust in Thee, as we approach Thy throne of mercy this day, we come in deepest humbleness fully recognizing that life finds its fullness and completeness in Thee and Thy abiding care. Watch over and guide these stewards of Thine that the work which is done here may accomplish Thy will and Thy purposes. Bless the newly elected members and endow them with Thy presence in this great calling. And inspire each bowed head this day that greater goals and higher aims which exceed man's anticipation may be fulfilled in the days which lie ahead: through Jesus Christ, Who with Thee and the Holy Ghost, art One God, world without end. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, November 16, 1959, will be postponed until printed.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. DAVIS, A. W. JOHNSON, RENWICK, O'NEIL, GOODRICH and GRAMLICH.

RESOLUTION No. 130.

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

Throughout this great State, the value of land is progressively rising with the increasing population. Many political subdivisions are faced with an insurmountable problem of providing necessary services to its residents because the tax rate on taxable property has reached the saturation point.

Much of the nontaxable land in this State consists of public lands on which the State pays ten cents an acre in lieu of taxes. At the time the rate was set, the sum of ten cents per acre was reasonable and satisfactory. Unfortunately, the rate of payment has not increased with the value of the land which could be of great tax value to the counties in which it is located; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to investigate and study the system of payments in lieu of taxes on public lands to counties by the State and recommend to the next regular session of the General Assembly a method of increasing the payments in lieu of taxes on public lands to the counties, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendation into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. DAVIS, WEIDNER and GRAMLICH.

RESOLUTION No. 131.

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

Social Security and Public Assistance have aided in providing the bare necessities for many of our elder citizens. In many cases parents who have no income and are unable to work are rejected by their children who have adequate means to support them. These older citizens must be given help but the responsibility should be placed on their children when possible and not on the public at large; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the problem of support of parents by their children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular Session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendation into effect.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. A. W. JOHNSON and McCANN..

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 132.

In the House of Representatives, November 16, 1959.

The recent amendment to Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which provides for annual sessions of the General Assembly, and which restricts regular sessions convening in even-numbered years to laws raising revenue and laws making appropriations, has given rise to several important constitutional and procedural questions.

In order to avoid confusion and insure an orderly legislative process, it is imperative that the General Assembly be advised as to the proper interpretation of our Constitution in the light of this new amendment. Without advance study and a complete understanding between the two Houses of the General Assembly it is likely that views on what limitations exist upon the nature of bills which may or may not be introduced will differ greatly. Divergent views also exist on this and related questions between individual members in each House; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Speaker of the House of Representatives appoint three members of the House who are well versed on questions of constitutional law and legislative procedure, two of whom shall be Democrats and one a Republican, and that the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint three members of the Senate who are also well versed on questions of constitutional law and legislative procedure, two of whom shall be Republicans and one a Democrat, who together shall constitute a joint committee to make a thorough study of the recent amendment to Article II, Section 4 of the Pennsylvania Constitution and related constitutional provisions and to define operating ground rules for the 1960 annual session and the "fiscal" sessions occurring in even-numbered years thereafter; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee make a report of its findings, together with its recommendation for appropriate rules at the beginning of the 1960 Session of the General Assembly.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair and, he is quite sure, many of the Members of this House have noted the fact that the gentleman from York, Mr. Rudisill, cast his vote on the last bill. The Chair is happy to welcome the gentleman back after an extended illness. We are very glad the gentleman is able to participate once again in the deliberations of this House. Welcome to the Hall, Mr. Rudisill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would request the Speaker to return to the rostrum.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House a special order incident to administering the oath of office to a Member-elect.

PRESENTATION OF ELECTION RETURNS

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Honorable Albert Eberman.

The DEPUTY SECRETARY (Albert E. Eberman.) Mr. Speaker, I have the honor to present the returns of the special election of a Member to the House of Representatives in Warren County on November 3, 1959.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The returns of the special election were read by the Chief Clerk as follows:

Attest:

Ed W. Allen

Clerk

Seal of the Commissioner of Warren County.

To His Excellency, the Speaker and to the Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Greetings:

I have the honor to present the return of the Special Election of Member of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Warren County, as the same has been certified to and filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by the Warren County Board of Elections:

Joseph H. Goldstein, Warren County, Pennsylvania. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, at the City of Harrisburg this sixteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and eighty-fourth.

JOHN S. RICE
Secretary of the Commonwealth

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a committee to escort the Member-elect, Joseph H. Goldstein, to the Bar of the House for the purpose of having administered to him the Oath of Office, the Minority Leader, Mr. Johnson, the Majority Leader, Mr. McCann, and Mr. Wood.

The Committee will proceed in the performance of its duty.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO MEMBER-ELECT

The SPEAKER. The oath of office required by Article VII of the Constitution of Pennsylvania to be taken by Members elected to the House of Representatives will now be administered by the Honorable William H. Neely, a Judge learned in the law of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Dauphin.

The oath of office was administered to Hon. Joseph H. Goldstein.

The SPEAKER. The Chair extends the thanks of the House to Judge Neely for the privilege of having him appear with us to administer the oath of office to the new Member from Warren.

The Chief Clerk of the House will read and present to the new Member, the Honorable Joseph H. Goldstein, his certificate of election.

I, John S. Rice, Secretary of the Commonwealth, do hereby certify that at the Special Election held on the third day of November, 1959

JOSEPH H. GOLDSTEIN

Having received seven thousand three hundred and forty-six votes, was duly elected to the office of REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY in Warren County.

Witness my hand and the seal of my office this sixteenth day of November 1959.

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER. Having received the certificate of his election, the Committee will escort the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Goldstein, to his seat, after which the committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I think it is appropriate at this time that we say a few words of welcome to the new Member of the House. It is always a festive occasion when we swear in a new Member. To us it means a new friend, a new voice to be heard, new thoughts to be propounded. To the new Member it opens up a new life, a rewarding experience, a chance to be part of the operation of our state.

I have often said that this House of Representatives is one of the greatest deliberative bodies in the nation. It handles its work and its prerogatives with dignity and dispatch. To those who are elected to serve here it is a tremendous honor and responsibility.

I have known our new Member, Joseph Goldstein for many years. He is one of Warren County's finest citizens. I am sure he will live up to all that is expected of a Member of this House and will be a credit to Warren County and to Pennsylvania.

I want to say that one time, in the fall, as I was going through the state if you will forgive the reference—I was introduced by a state Senator as a Member of the Lower House of Pennsylvania. Well, that naturally did not sit very well with me. So, it gave me an opportunity to tell this story.

It is the story about the House Member who was awakened by his wife during the night, and she said, "Pa, Pa, there's a burglar in the house." He said, "I knew there were burglars in the Senate, but I did not know there were any in the House."

I want to give this admonition to the new Member: We look upon this House of Representatives as our home, and as I said, one of the finest deliberative bodies in the nation. We are proud of our prerogatives. Many things must originate here. We are closer to the people than any other body in this nation. We are proud of the work we do, proud of this House, and we want you to be proud and glad that you are a Member. We want to welcome you here.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, we want to take this opportunity to welcome, from the Democratic side of the House, the newly elected Member from Warren County, Mr. Goldstein.

May we assure the gentleman from Warren County that we want to be of help. We are confident the new views and ideas expressed by this Member, the wishes of the people of Warren County, will be watched with great interest.

Mr. Speaker, I learned with great delight a moment ago, as the gentleman was being sworn in, that he has some very close relatives who come from my county of Greene. I believe he said his wife was a native of Greene County. I would like to say to Mrs. Goldstein, and Mr. Goldstein, we will welcome you to join us back in Greene County where all those wonderful Democrats come from.

We hope the gentleman's stay will be long and fruitful, and that he shall enjoy our company as much as we shall enjoy his in the closing days of this Session and in the new Session in the coming year.

The SPEAKER. If the lovely person who is the wife of the new Member is in the Hall of the House, will she please stand.

The Chair welcomes on behalf of the Chair the new Member and he assures him that on various matters concerning him the Chair will take the opportunity to consult Mrs. Goldstein.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mrs. VARALLO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the First Lady of the state, Mrs. Lawrence, invited to a luncheon today the women editors throughout the state, and also invited the women Legislators. Because we were permitted to come into the House at 2:00 o'clock instead of 1:00 o'clock, Mrs. Lawrence asked me to please deliver these flowers to the Speaker of the House as a peace offering.

The SPEAKER. This is a treasured remembrance. The First Lady who is in the Governor's Mansion and I have been close friends, and for years have been in almost constant agreement. I hope that now and then it might be possible for me to negotiate with the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth through the avenue of his lovely wife who has so kindly remembered the Speaker on this occasion. I certainly thank her, and I shall consult with her frequently.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mrs. Varallo for Mr. SCHAAF for today.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, please come to the rostrum?

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1564, entitled:

An Act amending the "Intestate Act of 1947" approved April 24, 1947 (P. L. 80) prescribing the spouse's rights in the decedent's estate and eliminating dower and statutory rights in lieu thereof of a widow in real estate conveyed by her husband in his lifetime without her joinder.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mrs. KOOKER. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as House Bill 1564 is sponsored by four attorneys and inasmuch as I, being a woman, do not want to support a bill that infringes on women's rights in any way, nor do I want to support a bill that would permit or make it an easy matter for men to desert their wives, I would ask for one of the sponsors of this bill in plain, understandable language to please explain this bill.

Mr. A. M. LEE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the question raised by the lady from Bucks, I will attempt to explain in plain, simple language just exactly what this bill does.

In a few words, the passage of this bill and its enactment into law would make the husband and the wife exactly equal insofar as their individual real estate acquired during the course of their marriage is concerned.

In the 1957 Session we passed a bill which gave to the wife the complete right to convey her individually owned real estate during marriage, without the joinder or the consent of the husband. This bill removes the present disability of the husband in order that he may also be able to convey his real estate in the same fashion as the wife now can.

Mrs. KOOKER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask Attorney Lee a question?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mrs. KOOKER. Mr. Speaker, does this mean that a man can convey property now without the consent of his wife or vice versa?

Mr. A. M. LEE. The law at the present time is that the wife may convey it without the consent or the joinder of the husband. This bill would mean, if it were enacted, that the husband could convey his individual real estate. In other words, remember that I am talking about real estate that is in the individual name of the husband or the wife. This does not affect real estate that is owned jointly by the husband and the wife.

The bill, if it is enacted, would mean that the husband would then have exactly the same right which the wife has today.

Mrs. KOOKER. Thank you.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose this bill. I think that for the benefit of our Members who are not attorneys we should understand what dower rights are.

Dower rights are rights of a married woman. Under present law when a man dies, his widow, if there are one or no children, has the right to one-half of his estate, and the dying husband cannot will away her rights. If there are two or more children, the widow has a right to one-third of the deceased husband's estate, and again she cannot be pushed out of the picture by his will.

Today if a married man desires to knock out his wife's dower rights during his lifetime, he cannot do it with respect to real estate because if he endeavors to convey, to sell or to give away the real estate, he cannot give a good, clear, insurable title. So the wife is protected.

What would happen if we passed a bill such as House Bill 1564? It would permit a husband to sell the house that is in his own name, and his wife would not have any say about whether it is sold or not. Now is that good or is it bad law? I say it is bad law because the only type of husband who would sell the house out from under his wife's feet is the type of husband we run into in our desertion courts.

I say this, that if we give a husband the right to cut out his wife's dower rights, you are going to have situations arising throughout this Commonwealth, and God knows I do not want to see it happen in my district, where a deserting husband will leave, will sell the house out from under the wife and then along will come the sheriff and move her out in the street. I say that is a bad bill. And I say we should all vote against this type of legislation.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that under the present laws of Pennsylvania there is nothing to prevent a married man from conveying property which he owns in his individual name?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is correct. In other words, I am sure the gentleman from Philadelphia understands that such a deed by a husband as to his individually owned property would be a voidable deed; that is, it would be valid until challenged in some way.

Mr. McCORMACK. Well, it would be a perfectly legal deed, but it is subject to the possibility, is it not, that if the husband predeceases the wife, the wife would then be entitled to a share in that property even though it had been conveyed?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is correct.

Mr. McCORMACK. Now, am I correct in saying that in the event a husband earns all the income in the family and elects to take title to a property in his own name, should there be a subsequent separation, if this bill becomes law, he would be able to convey that property in fee simple without any possibility of the wife later coming in and receiving an interest? Is that correct?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I would say that it is not correct in the sense that there are certain other problems that enter into such a situation.

Let me say in answer to the gentleman's question, first, of course, even under the present state of the law where the widow has this particular right of dower, it would be possible for a husband who wished to deprive his wife of her interest in a piece of real estate which was in his individual name. He could go out and create a mortgage without her joinder, and just not pay the mortgage and, in effect, get the money out of the property. On the foreclosure of the mortgage, in the conveyance and foreclosure proceedings, somebody else would get good title to the real estate. So it is possible to defeat those rights under the present law.

I would also say to the gentleman that under Section 11 of the Estates Act, the husband and the wife are both protected to a certain extent as to conveyance by either which are in fraud of the marital rights.

Mr. McCORMACK. Well, of course, when you say there is a possibility that the husband could create a mortgage and not pay it, at the same time you must admit, must you not, that there would be no mortgage company that would lend a married man money on a property in his own name without getting his wife to join in the mortgage? Isn't that a fact?

Mr. A. M. LEE. Well, that may well be, but he could actually create the mortgage, in favor of some friend of his, without ever receiving any money, and it would be an extremely difficult situation to track down. I don't think there is any question that through that device the wife's rights would be defeated under the present state of the law.

Mr. McCORMACK. But in order to understand the implications of the effect of this bill, in the hypothetical case I gave you it is correct, is it not, that the husband could purchase a property in his lifetime and then later convey it after a separation, and the wife would have no right? Isn't that what would happen if this bill were to become law?

Mr. A. M. LEE. Well, there is no question . . .

Mr. McCORMACK. You are saying now there is a possibility, but I am saying this would put the possibility into reality and it would be legally binding and effective so that the wife would have absolutely no rights, is that correct?

Mr. A. M. LEE. It is correct that the husband could convey his individually owned real estate during the marriage without the wife's joinder or consent, and he thereby would become exactly on equal footing with the wife who presently has that right.

Mr. McCORMACK. I see. Thank you.

Mr. Speaker, as the House well knows, I have had my differences with the ladies this Session, but this is one bill where I am going to have to sympathize with them and go along with them.

Mr. A. M. LEE. Mr. Speaker, this legislation is extremely technical and difficult to try to explain. I would only sum up by emphasizing again that this bill is designed to place the husband and the wife on exactly an equal footing. Neither would have any advantage.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I differ with my good friend, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee. I do not think this bill is so technical or so hard to explain. I am not concerned about deserting wives, but I am concerned about deserting husbands.

I say this, that a vote for this bill is a vote to permit a husband who deserts his family to have the right to sell the house from under the wife's feet. Do you want to go back to your districts when this happens and tell a wife that you voted for this? I do not want to be in that category myself, and I do not think you do. I say this is a vote to protect the wife and family.

Mr. LAMB. Mr. Speaker, I know the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lee, states that a married woman has the right to convey her individually owned real estate without the joinder of her husband, and that right was supposedly granted by an act passed in 1957. I just want to point out to the House that in Allegheny County there is not a title company or lawyer who will pass a title to property conveyed individually by the wife. It is felt that regardless of what the Act of 1957 said, a married woman has no legal right to convey her individually owned real estate by her sole deed. It is felt, as I said, that regardless of this deed she has no right and that such a deed by a married woman is void.

Mr. FINEMAN. Mr. Speaker, the comment just made by the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Lamb, I think speaks in favor of the passage of this bill.

I have before me a memorandum that was published by the Joint State Government Commission from their study on the Decedents estates laws and it deals with this bill, House Bill 1564. I do not know whether this is going to add clarity or confusion, but I would like to read it nevertheless because it does clarify some points for me, particularly along the lines raised by the gentleman from Allegheny County.

The principal purpose of this amendment is to make the rights of both spouses equal with respect to real estate conveyed inter vivos—and for the benefit of the Members of the House who are not lawyers, that refers to conveyances during the respective lifetimes of the spouses—and to eliminate the confusion caused by Act No. 417 of 1957 which was referred to by Mr. Lee.

Prior to the Act of 1957 such rights of the husband and wife were equal for all practical purposes although the protection of each spouse had a different historical basis.

At common law the husband had what we call "courtesy" in his wife's estate and a wife had what is termed "dower" in a husband's estate. The husband's right of courtesy was abolished completely in 1917, but he was indirectly protected from conveyances by his wife without his joinder by the inability of a married woman to convey property without joinder of the husband under the common law disability.

Also in 1917 dower was abolished as to all real estate owned by the husband at the time of death. However, it was retained and enlarged as to real estate conveyed inter vivos. In this way the husband was prevented from passing clear title to his real estate without his wife's joinder. So that prior to the Act of 1957 a wife could not convey property in her own name without the husband's joinder and a husband could not convey property in his name without his wife's joinder.

The Act of 1957 came along and as a result of that Act the law is in confusion because that Act says that a married woman now has the same power to convey as a married man. What power to convey does a married man have? As seen above, a married man may convey, but only subject to his wife's right of dower.

Does the new act mean that a husband now has courtesy in his wife's real estate? This is the reason why the title companies in Allegheny County will not assure a conveyance by a wife alone where title is in her name alone, because of the fact that her rights are exactly equated with the right of a married man, and a married man's rights are limited by his wife's right of dower. It is believed that the best solution to the problem is to eliminate dower. In this way neither husband nor wife will be able to convey without the other's joinder. The respective rights of the spouses will once again be equal, and Act No. 417 will make some sense.

Mr. A. D. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to speak in opposition to this bill.

There are a great many lawyers in the state of Pennsylvania who do not completely understand the rights of courtesy. There are a great many lawyers who do not completely understand the wife's right of dower. However, every lawyer understands that approximately one-third of the marriages in Pennsylvania are destined for the divorce courts of Pennsylvania.

The first question that every lawyer asks the wife when she comes in to consult with him in regard to a separation or divorce is, how is your property held? As it held by your husband and yourself as tenants by the entirety, because then you have certain rights, or is it held by your husband alone. Today even under that latter situation the wife as we have seen has rights which title companies protect because they will not insure the titles. I am certain that regardless of the present mixup, the present attitude of the title companies in regard to the husband's rights, that the passage of a bill like this is going to greatly restrict the possibility of a wife receiving a decent settlement arrangement prior to a divorce.

Further I would say today that probably 90 percent of the properties that husbands and wives take title to are taken as tenants by the entirety, taken in the name of both husband and wife. However, if you provide a farsighted husband with this possible way out we will see many, many properties taken in the husband's name alone so as to protect him in the event this marriage does not work out. I believe that if there is an inequity as the result of the prior legislation in regard to courtesy perhaps the solution is to repeal that legislation rather than correct the previous wrong by a second wrong.

Mr. SHERMAN. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. A. M. Lee, consent to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. A. M. Lee, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman was present at the last session at which the bill was passed, giving the married women greater rights?

Mr. A. M. LEE. Is that a question, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SHERMAN. Yes.

Mr. A. M. LEE. Yes, I was a Member of this House in the last session.

Mr. SHERMAN. Am I right in saying that the law prior to the passage of the last bill, or under the law, a man had a right, a married man had the right to transfer his real estate without the joinder of the wife, and the woman would still have the right of dower? Also that a married woman's deed was absolutely void prior to the passage of that bill? Am I correct?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is my understanding, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Am I therefore also correct that the purpose of the bill introduced at the last session was to equalize the rights of the married woman so that she also would have the right to transfer the property without the joinder of the husband to the same extent only that the married man had the right to transfer without the joinder of the wife?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I would assume, Mr. Speaker, that that may have been the intention with which Act No. 417 in its original form was introduced. However, it is my opinion that it went further than that and did more than that intention, if such was the intention.

Mr. SHERMAN. Then the gentleman agrees that that was the intention at the time the bill was introduced?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I, Mr. Speaker, of course, can not say what the intention was because some one else drew the bill and introduced it. So, I would assume that that was the intention. I do not know.

Mr. SHERMAN. Is that not what the bill actually says in 1957, therefore, giving the married woman the right to transfer the property without the joinder of the husband?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I have the Act 417 before me. I would be happy to read it to the gentleman if he would want me to.

Mr. SHERMAN. If it is not more than one sentence, I would be happy to listen to it.

Mr. A. M. LEE. The main portion of the bill is one sentence. "Hereafter, a married woman shall have the same right and power as a married man to acquire, own, possess, control, use, convey, lease or mortgage any property of any kind real, personal or mixed, either in possession or in expectancy, or to make any contract in writing or otherwise, and may exercise the said right and power in the same manner and to the same extent as a married man." That is the meat of the Act.

Mr. SHERMAN. Is that not what the bill says, that the rights of the married woman would be the same as the married man?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Therefore, by virtue of that bill, with one exception that I will bring out in a minute, which you may not be familiar with, the married woman would have the same rights as the married man as far as the transfer of real estate is concerned, is that correct, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is what the Act says, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Now, is it not true that even with the passage of this bill under the bill, of feme sole trader relationship, the married woman would still have greater rights than the married man?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I do not quite understand. Was that a question, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SHERMAN. I will put it more specifically. In case of a deserting husband is it not true that the married woman shall have the right to transfer the property without the joinder of the husband, and can convey the property free and clear of any right of dower, right of courtesy on the part of the husband?

Mr. A. M. LEE. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that I understand the question.

Mr. SHERMAN. Does the gentleman understand what feme sole trader means?

Mr. A. M. LEE. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Feme sole trader, the relationship of a deserting husband, whereby a married woman has the right to transfer that property just as if the married man were deceased?

Mr. A. M. LEE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHERMAN. Has the married man that right at the present time or even with the passage of this bill, in case of a deserting wife?

Mr. A. M. LEE. With the passing of this bill, Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that the married man would be able to convey individually owned real estate during marriage without the joinder or consent of his wife.

Mr. SHERMAN. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. A. M. LEE. May I say one further word, Mr. Speaker.

I do not believe that the specter raised here about deserting husbands and these other matters that have been discussed in connection with this bill have too much relationship to it. What we are here attempting to do, is in an orderly fashion to restore the law to some state of sensibleness so that the husbands and wives, the attorneys and the title companies will all know exactly what the rights of the respective parties are. This bill has been prepared by the advisory committee on Decedent's Estates Law of the Joint State Government Commission and it is a Joint State Government Commission bill, and I ask as many Members as possible to see their way clear to support it. Thank you.

Mr. T. H. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I am a co-sponsor of this bill, I have listened to the debate today, I am familiar with the background of it, and frankly I do not think that the bill has been given adequate study.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. T. H. W. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary. for the purpose of further study.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McCANN.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2347, entitled:

An Act amending "The Administrative Code of 1929" approved April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), creating the Bureau of Consumer Protection defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2347, Printer's No. 1813, is a bill that was debated at length in the Halls of this House on a prior date.

This is a piece of legislation that creates the Bureau of Consumers' Protection, a piece of legislation in the minds of many of us that we believe has great merit for the citizens of this Commonwealth. It is a piece of legislation that eventually will come to be enacted into law, and we are confident that a great number of the people of our Commonwealth are deeply interested in such legislation by the letters they have written in support of this proposed legislation.

Since the bill was debated at length on a prior date and the interrogation covering the entire subject was handled on that date, we feel that further interrogation and debate on this bill would be of no additional help in covering or explaining the bill.

I ask that all of the Members of the House support House Bill 2347, Printer's No. 1813, and pass this piece of much needed legislation.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I think I interrogated at length on this bill when it was last before us. I am not going to repeat that interrogation at this time.

Because of the information brought out at that time, I am still against this bill and I would ask the membership of this House to be against it.

I would, however, like to interrogate the Majority Leader on one other point.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, can the Majority Leader tell me how much this commission would cost?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I believe, 2347 carries for the Bureau of Consumers' Protective Commission, an amount of $200,000.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Is there an appropriation for that purpose?

Mr. McCANN. There is an appropriation for that purpose in House Bill No. 2347, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. The appropriation was written into this bill?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, it was written into the bill on a prior date; it is in there, yes.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Is there money available for this bill? Did you put it in the Governor's budget?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2347 covering the amount of $200,000 is not included in the Governor's budget.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Is this $200,000 included in any taxes anywhere to provide for the payment of it?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am sure that somehow there would be in the neighborhood of a small portion of that money to start the bureau. The Governor would have the right to reduce the appropriation, but on the $200,000 we question very much whether there is very much money of any kind budgeted or non-budgeted, preferred or non-preferred left at this time following the conference.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Well, is it the gentleman's opinion, in view of the Governor's announced policy of not approving any legislation when the money is not provided for it, that the Governor would sign such a bill?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the Governor would sign House Bill 2347, Printer's No. 1813, if it could be presented on his desk.

He might have to reduce or change the appropriation but he would sign the bill, sir.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this Session we have not passed any bills in this House, and we have not approved any legislation which is going to cost us money unless the revenue has provided for it. This was not included in the Governor's budget, and if they can start shopping around to pick up $100,000 or $200,000 here and there for everything else, then I do not know why we cannot find money for the schools.

I am against this bill.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to debate this bill at length, because what I said is in the record and what the gentlemen preceding me said is also in the record, but I cannot help noticing the comments made by the Minority Whip, Mr. Tompkins, with the respect to policies concerning bills carrying an appropriation without the money to pay for them.

I say that this bill is so important and so essential that it should be passed regardless of whether or not there is sufficient money to cover it.

I want the gentleman to pay particular attention to the fact that there are other bills on this calendar of far less importance to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, where the money is not in the budget to cover the appropriation, and I think if it is the policy of the Republican party not to vote for any bills unless the money is there, this policy should be carried out with respect to all the bills on the calendar, and there should not be any deviation.

This is a bill that the Unions are behind, that the Administration is behind, that is a novel concept in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and it merits the attention and the support of all of the Members on both sides of the House because it is designed to save taxpayers money. I think where any bill is designed for that purpose, we ought to, without regard to technical objections, support it and give it a try.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2093, entitled:

An Act fixing the salaries and compensation of members of certain boards and commissions and repealing inconsistent acts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, this bill was called up last week and I wanted to debate it. I wanted some questions answered, and for that reason it was put aside until today. Now, I have some of those answers, but there are some answers I still do not have, so I would ask one of the sponsors of this bill to answer some questions for me.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would ask Mr. Polen what the salary increase is under this bill to the members of the Pennsylvania Board of Parole?

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the members of the Board of Parole is $11,500.

Mr. FARABAUGH. What is it again?

Mr. POLEN. $11,500.

Mr. FARABAUGH. And increased to what?

Mr. POLEN. $16,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Am I not right that the Chairman of that Board is increased to $17,000.

Mr. POLEN. Yes, the present salary of the Chairman of the Board of Parole is $12,500, and the increase is to $17,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Then the increase for each member of the Board is $4,500 per year?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Can you tell me how many times that Board meets per month?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I could not tell him the exact number of times the Board meets, but at the hearings before the Appropriations Committee they told us each Board member interviewed personally, all the applicants for parole. They went to the different institutions where they were confined and personally interviewed every applicant. It entailed days and days of work in this particular phase of their work as members of the Board.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Could you tell me, Mr. Speaker, why the Milk Control Commission was taken out of this bill?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I could not tell the gentleman why it was taken out.

Mr. FARABAUGH. All right. Mr. Speaker, I want to say in passing, the fact that the Milk Control Commission members have been taken out of this bill is in line with what has been going on here through the Session of the Legislature with any requests for agriculture.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say, while I do not know the reason they were taken out, it was my understanding that the two items objected to by many of the Members was the salary increase for the Milk Control Commission and the Liquor Control Board. For that reason I believe they were removed, due to objections.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman what the increase is to the Chairman and the members of the Turnpike Commission.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, the present salary of the chairman of the Turnpike Commission is $15,000, and he is increased to $17,000; the present salaries of the members of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission is $13,000, and they are increased to $15,000, or an increase of $2,000 for each office.

Mr. FARABAUGH. An increase of $2,000 for each member?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask what the increase is to the chairman and members of Tax Equalization Board?

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the chairman of the State Tax Equalization Board is $12,000. He is increased $2,000, to $14,000. The present salary of the members of the State Tax Equalization Board is $11,000. They are increased $2,000, to $13,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Can the gentleman tell me how often the Board meets?

Mr. POLEN. I could not state the exact number of days the Board meets. I know that the Chairman is in his office five days a weeks.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask what the increase is to the chairman and members of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the Chairman is $9,000 and it is increased $3,000, to $12,000. The salary of the members of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board is $8,500. They are increased $2,500, to $11,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Do I understand the gentleman that the chairman of that Board has been increased $3,000 and the members each $2,500; is that correct?

Mr. POLEN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Does the gentleman know how many days per month that Board works?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know the number of days that Board works.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask what the increase is to the members of the Pennsylvania Security Commission.

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the chairman is $10,500 and has been increased $3,500, to $14,000. The present salary of the members of the Pennsylvania Security Commission is $10,000, and they are increased $3,000, to $13,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman what the increase is to the chairman and members of the Workmen's Compensation Board?

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board is $11,500, and it is increased $2,500, to $14,000. The salary of the members at present is $11,000 and that is increased $2,000, to $13,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman what the chairman and members of the Unemployment Compensation Board receive.

Mr. POLEN. The present salary of the chairman of the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review is $11,500 and it is increased $2,500, to $14,000, and the present salary of the members of the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review is $11,000, increased $2,000, to $13,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman what the increase is to the members of the Workmen's Compensation Referees?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, the present salary of the Workmen's Compensation Referees is $7,500, increased $2,500, to $10,000.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Does the gentleman know how many referees there are in the state?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I do not have my sheet that shows the number.

Mr. FARABAUGH. I think I can enlighten the gentleman. There are in the neighborhood of 20.

Mr. POLEN. I believe that is correct, unless there are some vacancies.

Mr. FARABAUGH. More or less.

Mr. POLEN. I think there are presently 18 employed.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Does the gentleman know how many days those referees work per month?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that they work every day, and there is at the present time a heavy backlog which they have not been able to catch up with.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I beg to differ with the last statement made by Mr. Polen, that the referees work full time. I believe you all realize that is not the case.

I would like to say right here in connection with something that has been said here in this House just recently, I think some of the statements that were made here in connection with House Bill 2347 should be considered before you vote on this bill. We have had before us here during this Session many bills requiring increases that are putting a higher levy on the taxpayers of this state, about which we claim to be concerned, and I am concerned about.

As I have stated here before, I am one who would like to pay a reasonable salary or wage to people for the work they do. I am opposed to paying excessive salaries or wages to people who are now receiving what they earn or more. We have been wrestling with this problem of taxes and finding ways to provide the necessary money for things that are, in my opinion, badly needed, such as the ones which were just discussed, 2347. That is actually something for the protection of the public, and we cannot find money for that.

We have had to cut down on the school subsidy necessarily in this Session because there is not sufficient money to do the things we would like to have done. We have had requests, and justly so, for increases in teachers' salaries. There are many of them working for as low as $3,600 a year, less money than the increases in some of these salaries amount to, saying nothing about the original salaries, and we do not have money to do it. We have people working on our highways who are keeping the roads in condition for us to travel on, a lot of them working at a lousey wage that they can hardly live on because of the scarcity of money.

I want to say to the Members of this House, I think this is just another one of those unreasonable things that somebody is asking us to do at the expense of the taxpayers of this state, and I hope every Member of this House will vote against this bill and I ask for a slow roll call.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am sure you will agree that most of us, or nearly all of us, are as interested when it comes to the educational program or teachers' program as the previous speaker. Some day in the near future, as I have often stated, perhaps a special part of the Session can be devoted to that particular problem and those who are entitled to more pay be paid, and also that the school districts will not suffer as a result of anything.

We are all in favor, but we should not wave a flag each time a bill for an increase comes up and refer to the school districts time and time again. Here we have people who have not received any increases perhaps for 20 years, some of whom are like the Workmen's Compensation Referee. I take issue with the previous speaker, as one of them is a former Member of the House, Mayer Herman. I do know the great amount of work that he has been put to with the backlog and back load that they have at the present time, at least in the Philadelphia area. I am sure the same thing exists in other areas where the increase of a few thousand dollars over a brief period of time.

I and a good many others are often against increases, but I feel where increases deserve merit and your proper attention, they should be given your attention. I would rather have an honest parole and pardon board than any pardon board of any other nature, and we cannot complain of them. I think the increases set forth for most of these people are small in comparison to the boost in the living cost over the period of ten or twenty years, and a $2,000 increase for a compensation referee who has quite a backlog is not asking too much. In fact, when you come to the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review, where there is an increase from $11,000 to $13,000, it does not cost the state of Pennsylvania one dime as such, because their pay is given to them—to the state—by the Federal government. Therefore, I ask the complete support of this bill.

Mr. FARABAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to just make a very short comment.

Two things. First of all, the reference to the fact that it has been so long since they received any increase, in my opinion, has no bearing. It is a question of whether they are receiving what they should at the present time.

Then, this thing I want to mention, that I intended to say when I was here before, is, I believe, as I said on this bill, there are people on that list who are entitled to more pay than they are now getting, but I do not believe that you will correct that situation by a blanket increase across the board. I have stated to some of the leaders in this group heretofore in discussing this bill that I am willing to go along with some raises in this bill that are justified, but not to those all the way across the board which are not justified and we do not have the money to do it with.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2442, entitled:

An Act amending "The Vehicle Code" approved April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) further regulating the swearing to and affirming of certain informations charging summary offenses and the filing of such informations with courts having jurisdiction thereof.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DEVLIN asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, line 7, by inserting after "officer": "except in cities of the second class."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, line 7, by striking out the bracket before "file" and after "sworn."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, line 7, by striking out "swear to or affirm an."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, lines 7 to 9, by striking out "be-" in line 7, all of line 8, and "or affirmations and shall file such information" in line 9.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, line 10, by striking out "within five (5) days thereafter."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1201), page 3, line 11, by inserting after "act": "and in cities of the second class the police officer shall swear to or affirm an information before a notary public or any other person authorized to administer oaths or affirmations and shall file such informations charging the violation of the specific summary provisions of this act within five (5) days thereafter with the court having jurisdiction under this act."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2446, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fourth to Eighth Class County Assessment Law," approved May 21, 1943 (P. L. 571) specifying when tax levies shall first be based on assessments from valuations made with the use of the permanent system of records.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. DAVIS asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Title, page 2, next to last line of Title, by striking out "shall" and inserting: "in counties of the eighth class may."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 602), page 2, line 5, by inserting after "county": "of the eighth class."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 602), page 3, line 4, by striking out "June" and inserting: "April."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 602), page 3, lines 5 to 7, by striking out all of lines 5 and 6, and "changing from the valuation or assessment of the previous year" in line 7 and inserting: "all appeals of assessments will have been heard as provided in section 702.1 and all decisions rendered by the board."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 602), page 3, line 9, by striking out "shall" and inserting: "may."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 602), page 3, line 11, by striking out "shall" and inserting: "may."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, since this bill was introduced there have come to the surface several points of conflict with the interests of other counties. I feel that these points that have been raised are valid and these amendments seek to correct these points of conflict.

Briefly, one of them makes this bill a "may" bill and another part of the amendments restricts it only to eighth class counties. I hope in that case, since it is optional or will be optional, that it can meet with the approval of the representatives from counties where it would have conflicted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2449, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania increasing the borrowing capacity of school districts in order to reduce costs involved in financing through municipal authorities.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate one of the sponsors of this bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the lady from Northampton, Mrs. Reibman, permit herself to be interrogated?

Mrs. REIBMAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that this bill is in the same form as the amendment which was defeated on November 3rd, with the exception that they have changed the borrowing by vote from 15 to 13 percent.

Mrs. REIBMAN. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I thank the lady.

Mr. Speaker, I must agree that perhaps many people did not understand fully what the import of this amendment was when they voted on it on November 3rd. It comes to my mind, however, that one of the things we are trying to control in this state is authority financing. Some of the objections against the amendments on the ballot on November 3rd, was the fact that we did not specifically outlaw authority financing. I am wondering if it might not be a wise thing to do, maybe, while we are doing this and granting this increased power to the school districts, to also specifically outlaw that type of financing, that is to say, authority financing. I think we should expand the powers of the school districts to be able to get their work done, but while we are doing it, if we ever want to control this authority financing some place, somewhere, we must make a start. I am wondering, inasmuch as we are re-running this particular amendment, why we could not now put this in.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

CAUCUSES

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request permission to hold a Democratic Caucus for thirty minutes and all Members are asked to bring their calendars with them. Go straight to the caucus room and back here on the Floor of the House, so that we can clear final passage for those bills that were marked over temporarily for caucus purpose. We want to vote all bills on final passage and third reading today. Whether they pass or fall, they are moving.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, we want to call a similar caucus on the Republican side. We will merely caucus on third reading bills. We plan to have a caucus tomorrow on those that were on first and second reading today so that the purpose of this caucus will merely be to clean up third reading. However could we do it in twenty minutes?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, on final passage postponed are two bills. On final passage are nine bills.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. All right. We will stick to thirty minutes with you then. Everybody bring your calendar and proceed quickly to the caucus room.

Mr. McCANN. Again I repeat. Please go promptly to the New House Caucus Room and bring your calendars with you.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. The Chair declares a recess of one-half hour for the purpose of a Democrat and a Republican Caucus.

The Chair hears no objection.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE
ON HOUSE BILL No. 1207

Mr. J. J. MURRAY. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1207.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. SHUPNIK asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 17, 1959.

Amedeo Pancotti of 108 Schooley Street, Exeter, Pennsylvania a former Knox Coal Company miner, has been cited by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, for his part in making possible the rescue of thirty-two men who were trapped in the Knox mine during the January 22 disaster.

He and fifty-five men were trapped when rock structure gave way allowing ice-choked floodwaters of the Susquehanna River to pour into a mine passage. Digging feverishly through thirty feet of debris, he and three co-workers found themselves surrounded by walls fifty feet below the surface.

Volunteering to attempt to scale the wall, he inched himself upward until he reached the surface where he summoned aid which resulted in the rescue of thirty-two men.

We pause to honor Amedeo Pancotti for his courage and resourcefulness in the face of danger and to congratulate him on the honor conferred upon him; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives pay tribute to Amedeo Pancotti, a man of courage, for his part in leading thirty-two men to safety in the Port Griffith mine disaster of January 22, 1959 and congratulate him on the honor bestowed upon him by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Amedeo Pancotti, 108 Schooley Street, Exeter, Pennsylvania.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 868

Mr. FRASCELLA, Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 868.

The SPEAKER. This being a Senate Bill, the report will lie over for printing by the Senate.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1963, entitled:

An Act amending the act of December 22 1951 (P. L. 1715) entitled "An act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salaries of the mayor and the council members of such cities and to provide for the assessment and retention of fines for absence of councilmen from meetings "removing the maximum limitation on salaries of councilmen.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on final passage?

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2388, entitled:

An Act amending the "State Highway Law" approved June 1 1945 (P. L. 1242) authorizing acquisition of property necessary for present or future highway purposes.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEAVEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill was up before and was debated at great length by lawyers on both sides of the aisle, until some of the Members and the Speaker wanted to get on to the next bill. I do not want to get into anything like that, but I have since then discovered an instance which I think would help the passage of this bill.

The Turnpike going from Valley Forge to the Delaware

River Bridge went through Mrs. Werner's property. It left her house on the rear of her lot, and left her with a piece of ground on the other side of the turnpike which hooked up with the main road where she got in and out. She could not get together with the Turnpike Commission, so much so that after it was planned and the road built, she was still sitting in this house on the other side of the turnpike. She could not get in and out with her truck. As a last resort she has to travel from the Bristol exchange to the Route 1 exchange and pay 30 cents every time she comes in and out of the house. It seems to me that a situation like that could be remedied by this bill. I am afraid one of these days Mrs. Werner is going to get out on that turnpike and that will be the end of Mrs. Werner.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2437, entitled:

An Act abating certain tax penalties interest and costs on county city (except city of the first class) borough town township school district (except school district of the first class) and institution district taxes * * *.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call to the attention of the Members of the House, House Bill No. 2437, Printer's No. 1980. This bill is permissive legislation. It applies to cities, boroughs and townships. It is permissive legislation. In effect this bill would help many of the unemployed steel workers who were out on strike for the last 117 days. It would abate the taxes only for the year of 1959. The interest on such taxes would be abated, and they would be paid over a five-year period. In effect, the borough, township or city could not effect any liens or sell at sheriff's sale any property for unpaid taxes.

I think this is a good bill. It is only permissive legislation. Any borough, city or township can do this if they so see fit. I recommend that all the Members vote for this legislation to help these men who were on strike for 117 days.

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to debate the bill. I do not think it is good legislation. I do not think it is needed. I will ask for a slow and distinct roll call.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, that completes the bills on today's calendar and places us in the position to vote on 23 bills on the calendar tomorrow on final passage and third reading that are now in position and will be in print. I am confident that they will be in print at the proper time, and the bills that have been amended today.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Minority Leader.

Mr. Speaker, will the Minority Leader inform us whether the information is correct which the newspaper people keep telling me is official—that when the Senate came out of the Republican Caucus today it was indicated they plan to offer a resolution to recess until November 30.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the question, that was my earlier advice, but now I understand they are caucusing again tomorrow on it.

I just want to say that is the first week of the deer season. Certainly many Members of this House want to go deer hunting at least the first two days, if that is the decision of the Senate, we should amend it to come in on Wednesday of that week and give the hard working people here a chance to hunt a little.

In answer to your question, it is not a firm decision. I thought it was, but I have since heard that four or five Senators said that it is not a firm decision and they are caucusing again tomorrow.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1959.

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Robert D. Fleming) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. MELVIN WALPER, Pastor of Zion's Reformed Church, Ashland, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in Heaven, we thank Thee for Thy presence with us through this Session of the Senate. We thank Thee for Thy inspiration in hours of meditation and solitude, and for Thy restraining hand upon us in hours of debate and deliberation.

Grant to the Members of this Body the grace to focus their attention on principles, rather than upon personalities; and to support convictions rather than prejudices. When they disagree, may they do so without becoming disagreeable. Grant to each of us respect for the opinion of the other, even though we share it not, with a firm faith in the eventual victory of that which is right in Thy sight.

We ask Thy blessing upon the families and loved ones of our Senators. We thank Thee for their sacrifice; a sacrifice which helps make possible the service of these men to their Commonwealth. Reward these families with a sense of participation in the on-going progress and program of legislation and government.

O God, may all who support the labors of this Senate enjoy the benediction of Thy peace and Thy presence, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BERGER and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No.
112, RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 112, entitled:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COM-MISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF LAWS RELAT-ING TO CONSUMER CREDIT AND FINANCING

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend third resolution, last two lines, by striking out "recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect," and inserting in lieu thereof: "conclusions based upon such studies and investigations."

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION,
SERIAL No. 112

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the amendments made by the House to Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 112.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 98
REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Rules:

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY COSTS OF BLUE CROSS HOSPITAL-IZATION INSURANCE

In the House of Representatives, July 28, 1959.

The cost of Blue Cross Insurance has risen twenty-eight percent in the last six months and the number of days covered by the insurance has been cut from one hundred twenty to seventy-five.

This matter is of grave concern to residents of Pennsylvania, since it not only raises insurance costs but gives less insurance protection in the vitally important area of hospitalization; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study and investigate the costs of Blue Cross Hospitalization Insurance and the length of time for which protection is given by such insurance; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations, with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 124
REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was read as follows and referred to the Committee on Rules:

INSTALLATIONS OF FISHWAYS AT DAMS IN SUSQUEHANNA RIVER WITH COOPERATION OF STATE OF MARYLAND

In the House of Representatives, October 19, 1959.

The Susquehanna River watershed in Maryland and Pennsylvania was once the spawning ground for millions of migratory fish.

The placing of dams across the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania and Maryland, without providing ways or devices whereby migratory fish could ascend the mainstream and tributaries to spawn, has effectively removed migratory fish from the watershed.

It is considered desirable to restore the natural life cycle for warm water fish in the Susquehanna River watershed.

The cooperation of the sister states of Maryland and Pennsylvania is needed to bring migratory fish back into the watershed; therefore, be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That it is the general sense of the House and Senate of the Legislature of Pennsylvania that fishways or other devices of similar purport ought to be installed at the dams in the Susquehanna River to enable migratory fish to ascend the mainstream and tributaries, thus restoring a natural food base of the residents of the watershed and restoring the streams of the water shed as natural breeding grounds for food and game fish, and further, that this general sense of the Pennsylvania Legislature be represented to the Legislature of Maryland together with the desire and request of the Pennsylvania Legislature that the Legislature of Maryland similarly record its sense that the natural life cycle for warm water fish in the Susquehanna River watershed in Maryland and Pennsylvania ought to be restored by installation of fishways or comparable devices at the dams in the Susquehanna River; and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the presiding officer of each House of the Legislature of Maryland.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL NO. 105

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY HOW TO OVERCOME ALL IMPEDIMENTS TO THE TAKING OF IMMEDIATE AND EFFECTIVE ACTION IN CASES OF EMERGENCY OR IMPENDING EMERGENCY

In the Senate, February 2, 1959.

Emergency situations require immediate action. A hesitation or delay of days or even hours can spell the difference between safety or terrible disaster. The power to act immediately in any emergency or impending emergency should be inherent in the Officials of our Commonwealth. This power should include the authority to undertake any project deemed necessary for the protection of the public and to take action on a moment's notice to forestall impending danger, no matter what its source may be. The authority to expend funds necessary to finance such actions, including rehabilitation and rectification thereafter, should accompany the power to act.

During the disaster recently experienced, we were fortunate in one respect, that being that the Legislature was in session to authorize action. On future occasions precious time may be lost in an attempt to obtain such Legislative approval; therefore be it

Resolved (The House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study to determine how to best overcome all impediments to the taking of immediate and effective action by Officials of our Commonwealth in cases of emergency or cases of impending emergency, and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations with drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 114

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF MINING LAWS

In the Senate, July 27, 1959.

As a result of its investigation into the Knox mine disaster, the Joint Committee created by the Senate and House of Representatives has recommended that the laws relating to mining be revised and codified; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study of the laws relating to anthracite, bituminous, metallic and non-metallic mining, and to prepare a revision and codification of such laws. In preparing the revision and codification the Joint State Government

Commission shall give particular attention to the report and recommendations of the Joint Committee to investigate the Knox mine disaster, and shall in so far as possible utilize the assistance and advice of the Department of Mines and Mineral Industries, the United States Bureau of Mines, mine operators, representatives of miners and professional mining engineers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make a report of its study, together with its draft of a codification of the mining laws, to the next General Assembly.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 116

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY THE HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEM IN PENNSYLVANIA

Whereas, It has been predicted that college enrollments in the Commonwealth will greatly increase during the decade ahead; and

Whereas, The predictions in college enrollment range from 57 to 127 percent; and

Whereas, It has been alternatively proposed that State-owned institutions be expanded, that State-aided institutions be expanded and that junior colleges be established, either independently or as an adjunct to the public school system; and therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Joint State Government Commission be directed:

(1) To evaluate the predictions of increased college enrollments for the next decade, and to develop data relating the demand for higher education in Pennsylvania to the types of instruction required, geographic location of students and institutions, and financial ability of families to underwrite the costs of higher education;

(2) To determine the extent to which various quality standards would modify the predicted enrollment increases;

(3) To determine the preferences, abilities, and performance characteristics of the college-age population and the types of institutions which will best meet the demands for post-high school training of students of varying characteristics;

(4) To ascertain the advantages and disadvantages associated with different methods of providing post-high school opportunities including, but not limited to, expansion of State-owned institutions, expansion of State-aided institutions, and full cost scholarships applicable at all accredited institutions;

(5) To evaluate present levels of efficiency, including both staff and plant utilization, and to develop organizational and operational patterns that will provide incentives to insure optional personnel and plant performance;

(6) To investigate the fiscal potential of State and local governments and private individuals and organizations to provide additional support for higher education; and

(7) To investigate alternative sources of revenue available to the State Government to provide additional support for higher education; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations together with drafts of any legislation deemed necessary to carry its recommendations into effect.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A THOROUGH STUDY OF THE PENAL LAWS

Mr. BLASS offered the following resolution (Serial No. 84), which was read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, November 18, 1959.

Whereas, The Act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," contains many inconsistencies; and Whereas, Numerous amendments to The Penal Code have been adopted since its enactment; and

Whereas, The administration of justice would be served by the elimination of obsolete matter and terminology, removal of duplications, clarification of ambiguities, and codification of the statutory provisions into one act; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make a thorough study of the penal laws of the Commonwealth, prepare a codification and revision of such laws and report the same to the General Assembly.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY CURRENT LAWS AND ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICES RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF THE PRODUCTION, DISTRIBUTION AND MARKETING OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES IN THIS COMMONWEALTH

Mr. HARNEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. HARNEY, ELLIOT and RUTH offered the following resolution (Serial No. 85), which was read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, November 18, 1959.

The production, distribution and marketing of agricultural commodities is an industry of major proportions in the Commonwealth. Farm employment on the one hundred and twenty thousand farms in the Commonwealth involves one hundred and fifty thousand people, and produces a personal income to farm proprietors and employees of over $379,000,000.

Recent statistics indicate that approximately two thousand assemblers of farm commodities had sales of over $169,000,000. One hundred and fifteen thousand manufacturers of food and kindred products processed agricultural commodities whose retail market value was over $2,500,000,000. In 1957, cash receipts received by farmers in the Commonwealth from sales of agricultural products totaled $762,919,000.

Taking cognizance of the size of the agricultural industry and the scope of its importance to related industries and the populace as a whole, it is apparent that the continued economic well-being, as well as the physical health and welfare of the citizens of the Commonwealth, are intimately connected with the condition of the agricultural industry in this State.

It is necessary that the laws relating to agriculture in this Commonwealth, and the administration thereof, be of such a nature as properly to stimulate farm economy, promote technological development, and the maximum utilization of the resources of the agricultural industry; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study the current laws and administrative practices relating to the regulation of the production, distribution and marketing of agricultural commodities in this Commonwealth, and to investigate the present condition of the agricultural industry in the Commonwealth, and report its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly.

SECOND READING CALENDAR

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 924, Printer's No. 1087, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 1018, on second reading, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" enlarging the power of cities of the first class to levy a fee or tax upon certain motor buses and motor omnibuses transporting passengers for pay or hire from points within such cities to point without such cities and from points without such cities to points within such cities.

be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I can explain this bill if there is some problem about it, and I will be glad to do so.

This bill only applies to the city of Philadelphia. It deals with a problem that we have had for some time. We have a group of buses that come in from New Jersey which are housed in New Jersey and incorporated in the New Jersey area. However, their entire business is done in the city of Philadelphia and on the streets of the city of Philadelphia. If you are ever in the city, you will see, from early in the morning until very late at night, a line of buses—I believe it is the Public Service Company that probably handles them—along the entire Market Street area to Broad Street. Then they go down Broad Street, almost in a single line, alongside the curb, and then out Vine or Race Streets. Sometimes they run on Arch Street, if traffic is moving in that direction.

This would give the city an opportunity to acquire some money from this company which operates in the city. It would also help us in keeping our street paving up. These streets belong to the city and we maintain them. I think it is rather inequitable for people who actually use this area and obtain money from it, not to, at least, return some money to the city.

The reason for this legislation is that it has been tried by the city, through a court procedure. The court has said that there must be appropriate legislation, giving the city the power to do so. Other communities have been given this same power. We are the only area that has not received it.

If further information is needed on this legislation, I will be glad to supply it. However, to send it back to committee in order to kill it, I think is the wrong thing to do at this time. I would respectfully ask the Republican Members of the Senate to reconsider this matter or allow it to go over in order until I can get some supplemental data that might somewhat take care of the problems that may exist in their minds as to this legislation.

It is very badly needed in our city. We have done it for other communities and I think Philadelphia should at least fare the same as they do.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, personally, I take objection to this bill. I am sure that Senator Weiner, in the past weeks and months, has heard the many discussions from the bus companies in trying to obtain exemption from license fees, exemption from the gasoline tax, exemption from the diesel fuel tax and exemption from gross receipt taxes. I am sure that he realizes the bus lines are in trouble.

If I interpret this bill correctly, Philadelphia wants to collect money from bus lines, chartered lines and any type of buses which might be running into the city of Philadelphia. If that is the case, and if I read the bill right, I want to send it back to committee because, again, it is just an additional tax for Philadelphia. Again, it is in the same category as a wage tax. Tax your neighbors and tax everybody who comes to Philadelphia. We want to have Philadelphia as a city that belongs to everybody in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Everytime we come into Philadelphia on a bus, in order to go to your theaters and various other places, we do not want to be taxed.

Therefore, Mr. President, I insist that this bill be re-committed.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, the gentleman is laboring under a misapprehension. I would like, therefore, to correct it for him.

Any exemptions that we gave out were in distressed areas or where the bus companies were under a distressed economical situation. However, I do not think that applies here. These bus companies are in pretty good shape. If you will look at their last statement that they issued, I am sure that the gentleman would wish that he and I owned stock in them. At least, I would wish so. I do not think that the Senator particularly cares to own stock in that bus line.

This does not have anything to do with chartered lines or buses that come in for a day or buses coming from any other areas of the Commonwealth. This is on a regularly operated line that comes into Philadelphia every single day, seven days a week, and hauls people out of it.

Can you tell me what the equity of the situation is where a company is earning its money by coming into an area and tearing up the streets and doing damage to the area and not putting any money back into it? I think it is a rather inequitable situation and one which can be corrected. Unfortunately, the courts have ruled that this must be done by the Legislature and this is the only means that I know of to do it. I would suggest that if there is some problem with this matter that I can present to the gentleman further, and if the bill will go over in order, I will be glad to present him with any data that he needs in order to convince him that we do need this thing. It will not discriminate against any bus company, nor is that our purpose. We do not want to drive this bus line out of the city of Philadelphia. It serves a purpose by bringing the people from New Jersey into the city of Philadelphia. However, knowing that Senator Watkins is a fair-minded man, I do not believe he would think it fair for people from another State to come into our State and tear up our streets and not, at least, contribute something toward them and keep them in repair, so that they can use them and so they can earn a living and come in to take a job that might have gone to a Pennsylvanian.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, my good friend, Senator Weiner, just seems to collect taxes. I believe, too, that perhaps all those people who are coming into Philadelphia on the buses are very possibly paying the wage tax. I do not know when he is going to stop.

Mr. President, we have to get this Calendar cleared up. We cannot stay here and argue day after day. We want to go home. Senator Weiner can stop the bill from being re-committed if he has the votes today. I do not think we are going to stop him from voting all of his colleagues, whether they are in their seats or not. Let us have a roll call. I say that I still want to recommit the bill. Let us get rid of some of these bills and go home.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I am glad to hear the gentleman from Delaware take a very statesmanlike attitude. I hope that he will carry this through when we get toward the end of the Calendar. There are some bills on there which have been there for two or three weeks and which also have gone over in order for some time. Fortunately or unfortunately, as the situation may be, regardless of everybody being in or out of their seats, the majority of votes happens to be on the Republican side and it is very easy for Senator Watkins to press that lever and pass or not pass any of these bills as they see fit. I am merely asking you to look at the situation in a fair manner.

Although the gentleman may feel a little bit bitter about the Philadelphia situation, there is nothing that this is going to help in relieving some of that bitter feeling. Maybe if these people paid some of this amount of money, we might be able to relieve the people from Delaware County who have jobs in the city of Philadelphia and who pay some of that wage tax. I throw that out to you merely as a suggestion.

Mr. President, I would ask that the bill go over in order for awhile, until we can look into it further. If you see fit to move this piece of legislation, you have the votes to do so and I cannot do anything about it. However, I certainly feel that this is an inequitable way to use those votes in a situation which really needs some real looking into.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I notice that this is an amendment to the Vehicle Code from which cities of the first class were excepted as to the levying of a fee or tax upon motor buses and motor omnibuses within a radius of ten miles of their suburbs. This amendment goes a lot farther than that particular provision of the act. If the city of Philadelphia wanted to be included in that, it might be a perfectly reasonable thing to do. I doubt very much if that would serve the intent of this bill. However, as it appears now, it would seem that it goes much farther than we allow any other community in the State to go. I will assure the gentleman from Philadelphia that when this bill is returned to committee, we will be glad to discuss it again, and if it can be straightened out to more or less coincide with the rights and privileges given to other cities and communities, I am sure that we will give it proper consideration.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I want to thank the Majority Floor Leader. I am sure it will get proper consideration. My concern is, do we have the votes to bring it back out of committee.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, they got it out once.

The PRESIDENT. That is a very true fact.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 1984, on second reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the payment of wages or compensation for labor or services in private employment providing for regular paydays conferring powers and duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry including powers and duties with respect to the civil collection of wages providing civil and criminal penalties for violations of the act providing for their collection and disposition and providing for additional civil damages. be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I wish to voice objection to House Bill No. 1984, Printer's No. 1879, going back to committee.

This is a bill to aid people who work for a living in obtaining their wages or compensation. If, for some reason or other, it is withheld from them, they have a right to sue or to proceed in criminal procedures where that is so provided by The Penal Code. I do not believe that anyone is hurt by this measure. I believe if a man works for a living, he certainly should be entitled to collect his wages. If for some reason he does not get them, he certainly should be entitled to some penalty or compensatory damages for the damage he has suffered.

I do not see why we have to put a man to extra expense and not compensate him with an opportunity to get exactly what is his. I do not see how anyone could be hurt by this measure. If an employer is honest and is doing the correct thing for the people who are working for him, he has nothing to fear from this bill. If a man is dishonest and does not want to pay the people who work for him or in some way avoid giving these people who work for him what is theirs, this bill would be an enigma to him.

I can understand some people feeling badly about this measure. However, so do thieves feel badly when laws are enacted preventing thievery. I think this is in that same category.

I, therefore, respectfully ask my colleagues to vote "no" on the recommitment of this bill to committee. I also respectfully ask for a roll call.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WEINER and Mr. HAYS, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

| | | | |
|----------|-----------------|------------|-----------|
| Berger, | Fleming, | Mallery, | Van Sant, |

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

SENATE RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 79, REPORTED COMMITTEE

Mr. BERGER, from the Committee on Rules, to which was referred resolution offered by Mr. WHALLEY on November 10, 1959, reported the same without amendment as follows:

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE IN THE BEDFORD COUNTY AREA

In the Senate, November 10, 1959.

Recent surveys and compiled statistics have revealed that unless we now plan and prepare adequate facilities for the training of qualified teachers and instructors, a critical shortage of such trained personnel in the near future will prevent many of our children from attaining that high degree of education so necessary in our present complex and technical society.

While much is being said and in some cases efforts made to expand the present State Teachers' Colleges throughout our Commonwealth in order to meet this demand for additional teachers, little or nothing has been done towards planning or building entirely new institutions in areas of our State where present facilities are not readily available, particularly in those counties along the southern border of our State from the center westward; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to investigate and study whether a new State Teachers' College in the Bedford County area would be feasible and practical; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution will appear on tomorrow's Calendar.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Thursday, November 19, 1959, at 3:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 6:55 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time, until Thursday, November 19, 1959, at 3:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, November 18, 1959

The House met at 1:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, offered the following prayer:

O Most Gracious God of love, who has sent Thy Son into the world as a witness of that love, and Who art ever extending Thy grace toward all mankind, we come to Thee this day in need of Thy counsel and concern. Amid the perplexity and confusion of life men need to experience the extension of Christian fellowship. Use us as Thy workmen to show such love and concern for the problems and difficulties of others, that the love which Thou hast shown to us may become our witness to all mankind: through Jesus Christ, the eternal redemption of us all, we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Tuesday, November 17, 1959 will be postponed until printed.

The Chair hears none.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 227.

An Act amending the act of July 12 1919 (P. L. 941) entitled "An act providing for the preparation contents style printing and binding of the Legislative Journal and its delivery and distribution * * *" changing provisions relating to the contents of the Legislative Journal.

SENATE BILL No. 644.

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "Public School Code of 1949" providing representation on the board of directors of union and merged school districts.

SENATE BILL No. 983.

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "Public School Code of 1949" providing permanent certification for certain persons teaching in private institutions.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SHERMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, a question which has arisen is: What has been done in behalf of the juvenile delinquency problem in this Commonwealth in order to give some reimbursement to the unfortunate parents who have had damages caused by the actions of their children?

House Bill No. 141 passed this House and, as amended, passed the Senate in August. I have been told that regardless of the efforts made by Members of the House Committee to meet with the Members of the other Chamber, no meetings could be arranged.

I rise to make this important statement because I understand this has occurred on bills in addition to one particular bill which I deem very important—and I am sure you ladies and gentlemen on both sides of the aisle deem it important. It is a bill on which there has been quite some argument in this Session.

I say that there are at least 25 or 30 bills of similar character on which even the conference committee on the other side of the House has seen not fit to meet. I contend these bills, or at least some of them, are quite important. As far as House Bill 141 is concerned, I request that the conference committee do meet and report favorably a bill which is anxiously awaited by many people on both sides of this House.

Mrs. HENZEL. Mr. Speaker, I should like to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia that a meeting is scheduled for this afternoon with the Members of the Senate conference committee, on House Bill 141.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WORLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I think it is part of legislative procedural due process that all legislation affecting the people should appear on the calendar of this House on the day the record vote is taken, in order that Members have procedural notice, and as agents of the people we need such notice to properly discharge our duties as representatives of our constituents and the whole Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I therefore urge the Rules Committee to report my amendment to the rules to the floor for passage.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, before we begin today we would like to announce that we will work the first reading calendar, the second reading calendar and will vote on the bills that have been caucused on that are on third reading at this point. Then there will be a break of 45 minutes for a caucus covering all the bills on final passage and third reading that have not been caucused on, and come right back here to the floor and vote on all of those bills.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I request permission for you to start first reading bills on today's calendar, and move right through the second reading bills.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. PARLANTE from the Committee on Cities—Counties First Class, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2295, entitled:

COMMUNICATION AND BILL TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2266, Printer's No. 1366, together with communication from the Governor be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 2266 FROM GOVERNOR.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, November 16, 1959.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Concurrent Resolution recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 2266, Printer's No. 1366, for further consideration.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE.

RESOLUTION

RETURNING HOUSE BILL No. 2266 TO GOVERNOR

Mr. MUSTO offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 18, 1959.

Resolved (The Senate Concurring), That House Bill No. 2266, Printer's No. 1366, entitled "An act amending the act of June 2, 1891 (P. L. 176), entitled 'An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith,' changing the inspection period; imposing certain duties on mine inspectors, mine superintendents and foremen; requiring additional information on maps and plans and changing provisions relating to mine inspectors' reports," which was recalled from the Governor November 16, 1959, for the purpose of amendment be returned to the Governor without amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MAJORITY LEADER

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have permission of the House to discuss an item for the information of the House regarding today's operation.

Yesterday in the Senate there was a series of 60 bills passed. Of these bills 41 bills required either concurrence or nonconcurrence. Each bill, with the figures in the bill, is a part of the entire Conference Committee's work, composed of Senator Kessler, Senator Fleming, Senator Weiner, Mr. Polen, myself and Mr. Tompkins.

I was going to request today to proceed, after our caucus, to take each bill and make the motion to concur or nonconcur. Every bill but two was to be concurred in at this point, and those that are to be nonconcurred in are already agreed to as to the corrective language struck out of the bill. For example, one bill which would be for nonconcurrence, is House Bill 2324. They struck out "with the approval"; they struck out "Department of Public Welfare," and left in "Auditor General." The purpose of the agreement would be so it would properly read, "with the approval of the Secretary Department of Public Welfare and the Auditor General." In other words, that would be the only change in the bill for non-concurrence and on this the Conference Committee has basically agreed, and actually the Conference Committee report is being prepared for the motions.

I am requesting when the Republican Members go to caucus that each of these bills be considered because I would like this afternoon or at the proper time, to have the privilege to concur or nonconcur in them. These are all the bills that deal with figures, they are appropriation bills. They are either non-preferred or non-budgeted appropriation bills which have been agreed to by the Conference Committee. Should you fail and want not to agree to this, then each of these bills, plus the other bills received today, have to be placed on the calendar, even though they are here. You have every one of these printed bills in the new print number on your desks in the file and they have been there since the day they were amended in the Senate. This would save a considerable amount of printing, and under this situation I am requesting that this be considered carefully.

The figures have been checked again throughout the night. Last night the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and I checked every single bill from the master sheet, and the figures are exactly as they were agreed to in the Conference Committee, with the adjustments that were made on certain bills by the formulas that were used or the deficit that existed in the particular institution. This is a problem I want to present to you for your discussion today.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, what the Majority Leader in effect is saying is, he wants to waive the practice of having the bills printed on our calendar for concurrence in Senate amendments, and is asking us to go up to our caucus and go over the bills and then come down here and vote to concur or nonconcur.

This, as far as I am concerned, is a caucus matter. First of all, I will submit to the caucus whether they will waive the practice of having them on our printed calendar, and, secondly, if they vote in the affirmative, may I be furnished with the bills so we can rapidly go over each bill and explain to our Members what each bill does.

I am sure we can probably come down here and concur. I realize you say the bills are in our binders, but there are some 60 bills that have been passed. If I can be furnished by the Chief Clerk's office with the bills in question so we can very quickly inform the Members about each item, I imagine they would be fair about it and go along as requested.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, could I interrogate the Minority Leader a moment?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Minority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, would the Minority Leader consent, if I gave him the complete file from which we worked last night on which each one says, ok, concur, or no change. I would like to bring to your attention that we worked three hours and a half, and you are asking for a 45-minute caucus. But we will present you with the complete file.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. I realize that time may be at a premium here, but the Members on this side like to be well informed, and I will gladly take the file if it is the equivalent of the bills, we will be glad to receive them. Thank you very kindly.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would like to call to the attention of the respective Floor Leaders that all of these bills in their amended form are on the Members' desks and have been for sometime. What we are actually discussing is whether or not we might suspend the Rules, I imagine, regarding the necessity of having them included on the calendar.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I have copies of the bills and I will submit the proposition of the Majority Leader to our caucus and when we return we will report.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, there are two bills. One is an appropriation bill and one is not, in a sense, an appropriation bill, in which bills I would like to have the permission of the Minority Leader to nonconcur, since the Conference Committee will move right through.

The first bill, as I mentioned, is an appropriation bill. That would be House Bill 2324, Printer's No. 1941. It is an act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals. In that particular bill the Conference Committee of the Senate and the House have already agreed and the corrective language is already agreed to. In fact, the Conference Committee report is now ready for the motions.

The second bill is House Bill 505, Printer's No. 1888. This is an act amending the local health administration law, in which an amendment was placed by the Senate, providing that one percent of the people could by petition place this on the ballot each year. Our discussion deals with changing, the one year to the normal period of once in every five years when they may submit it to the electorate the same as they do anything else regarding the county health plan.

This is the enabling legislation, that is, House Bill 505, and I would like to make the motion to nonconcur in it since we are going into Conference Committee. If that is agreed to. I request the Parliamentarian and the Chief Clerk to pull out House Bill 2324, Printer's No. 1941, and House Bill 505, Printer's No. 1888, for the purposes of the necessary motions.

RECESS

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, at this time I am going to ask for a recess of 45 minutes. I am going to request the Democratic Members to bring with them their calendars and to proceed immediately to the new House Caucus Room, so that we may caucus on all final passage bills, all third reading bills that have not been acted on, Conference Committee Reports and concurrences in Senate amendments. I ask that they cooperate very kindly at that time, so that I may be able to return here at the proper time.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, we would like to call a similar caucus and would appreciate it if the Members would bring their calendars to the caucus room immediately upon the calling of the recess.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 505.

An Act amending the act of August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1304), entitled "An act to improve local health administration throughout the Commonwealth by authorizing the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health in all counties except counties of the first class exempting certain municipalities from the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health permitting the dissolution of departments or boards of health in certain municipalities authorizing State grants to counties which establish departments of health and to certain municipalities if they meet prescribed requirements conferring powers and duties upon the State Department of Health in connection with the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health and administration of the health laws in parts of certain municipalities not subject to the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health and the administration of State grants and repealing an act which confers health powers upon counties of the first class," extending the provisions thereof to counties of the first class and to municipalities located in counties of the first class and providing for the dissolution of and withdrawal from certain departments of health.

With the information that the Senate had passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Amendments. The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 2, line 12, by inserting after the word "class" the following: "and providing for the dissolution of and withdrawal from certain departments of health."

Amend Section 1, page 4, by inserting after line 5 the following: "Section 2 The act is amended by adding after section 5 a new section to read:

Section 5.1 Dissolution of and withdraw from county departments of health.

(a) When a single-county department of health is created it may be dissolved by a referendum conducted in accordance with the procedure set forth in subsection (c) hereof.

(b) When a joint-county department of health is created any county being a member thereof may withdraw from the department by conducting a referendum conducted in accordance with the procedure set forth in subsection (c) hereof.

(c) A petition requesting the dissolution or withdrawal shall be signed by qualified electors of the county equal in number to at least one per centum (1%) of the highest total vote cast for any county office at the last municipal election the petition shall be in the form required for nomination petitions by the election laws of the commonwealth except that the said petition shall be circulated for not more than six (6) months prior to the last filing day which shall be ninety (90) days before the general or municipal election at which it is desired to submit the question the petition shall be filed with the county board of elections and the validity of the petition and any objections thereto shall be determined in accordance with the election laws of the Commonwealth.

After the validity of the petitions in all the counties affected has been determined the county commissioners shall cause the question to be submitted at the next general or municipal election whichever is sooner so long as such election is to occur at least thirty (30) days after the validity has been determined the question shall be submitted on the ballot or on voting machines in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth and shall be in substantially the following forms.

A majority of all votes cast in each county upon the question must be in favor thereof.

(d) When in the case of a single-county department the voters elect to dissolve the department or in the case of a joint-county department the voters elect to withdraw no new department of health may be created by resolution no may the commissioners resolve to join with another county or other counties to create a joint department"; page 7, line 17, by striking out after the word "Section" the numeral "2" and inserting in lieu thereof the numeral "3".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILLS CALLED UP OUT OF ORDER

Mr. McCANN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up bills out of order.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2256, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fiscal Code" approved April 9, 1929 (P. L. 343) further regulating the time when settlement and resettlement of taxes may be made and when notice of settlement and resettlement shall be given to taxpayers.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, may I have permission to speak on 2256, 2257 and 2258 at one time since all of the bills are companion bills?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, these three bills, House Bills 2256, 2257 and 2258, which are a package of amendments to the Fiscal Code, the Corporation Income Tax Law, and the Corporation Net Income Tax Act, make uniform the period of time in which settlement and resettlement of taxes may be made regarding these three acts.

These three bills would make uniform the period of time as three years. That is, all the bills do, and this is rather a great improvement in our opinion because even though the present law, for example, in each year by filing the proper papers they can extend another year, another year and another year, and businesses and corporations do not have an opportunity to finally settle their completed cases. This makes it a uniform period of three year, and I believe there is no opposition to this type of legislation which is beneficial to everyone concerned, both the Department of Revenue and the business corporations that file the taxes and reports under these laws.

I ask that the House support these three measures as a package in the affirmative position.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

THE SPEAKER (Hiram G. ANDREWS) IN THE CHAIR

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. By way of a brief correction: I notice in the current Press that our Parliamentarian, S. Edward Moore, received a gift certificate for steam ship tickets.

He did not receive anything of the kind. He did receive a toy cargo boat and a wish was expressed that it might be symbolic of a slow boat to China. What Mr. Moore received was a modest gift certificate that enabled him to buy two travelling bags. Now since he has been in the service of the House 50 years, he may contemplate sometime in the next 10 or 15 years taking a trip to China in a slow boat. When he does, he will buy his own tickets. During his service of 50 years, unless on official business, our Parliamentarian has never traveled for free, he has always traveled, when not on official business, out of his own pocket.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, to return to the rostrum.

Mr. TOMPKINS IN THE CHAIR

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 990.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2446, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fourth to Eighth Class County Assessment Law," approved May 21 1943 (P. L. 571) specifying when tax levies in counties of the eighth class may first be based on assessments from valuations made with the use of the permanent system of records.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to offer a further word of explanation in extension of my remarks of yesterday.

This bill affects only any county of the eighth class which elects to use it. The primary objective of this bill is to anticipate by a year the use of the new permanent system of assessment. My own county of Forest is very hard pushed, not only in the county administration, but also in the schools. The passage of this bill would permit this anticipated speed-up both as to the new assessments and as to the filing of the intent of appeals so that the budget could be made more firmly a year in advance, and also it would permit the school districts to take advantage of it. Briefly, that is the purpose of the bill and the workings of it.

Mr. LOPRESTI. I did not hear the opening of the gentleman's statement. Did the gentleman say that the bill is now amended to apply only to eighth class counties?

Mr. DAVIS. That is correct—to eighth class counties; also it is a "may" bill.

Mr. LOPRESTI. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of Senate Bill No. 667, entitled:

An Act amending the act of January 14 1952 (P. L. 2016) entitled "An act providing for supplementing the police forces of cities boroughs towns and townships for the appointment powers and control of auxiliary police therein * * * further defining the training of auxiliary policemen and authorizing chiefs of police to place auxiliary policemen on active duty on order that they may obtain such training.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GAILEY. Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I rise to oppose this bill. I have two reasons for doing so, and it seems to me both of them make very good sense.

This bill, as I understand it, will enable municipalities to put so-called "auxiliary" policemen on active duty. In other words, these auxiliary policemen will have all the powers of regular police officers, including, I understand, the right to carry a gun.

Aside from our State Police and some of the organizations in the larger cities, I know that most municipalities have difficulty setting up a training program for the men on their force, but there is, I suggest to the Members of the House, a substantial difference between an auxiliary policeman just starting on duty and someone who is on the regular force, because the man who is on the regular force is a full-time officer. This is his business; this is his career.

I suggest to the Members of the House that not all, certainly, but a great many of these men who volunteer for services as auxiliary policemen do so solely for the reason that they like to put on the uniform and play God. It has been our unfortunate experience that many times when the man puts on this uniform he begins to see himself as an almighty one into whose hands is delivered all power to do all things. I suggest to you that by giving him the power of arrest, by giving him the power to carry a gun, by giving him all the powers of a regular police officer we are treading on very dangerous ground indeed.

The second reason I am opposed to this bill is this, ladies and gentlemen: it seems to me, in some communities, in some municipalities, where the governing body wishes to cut corners, it is a device that can be used to whittle away at a permanent, well-trained police force. If they can use these auxiliary policemen on regular duty at any time within the call of whatever officer within the given community has charge of the police force, I can foresee the day when a good many of our municipalities, instead of relying on a trained, well-equipped regular police force, will have only a skeleton force and will supplement it with these auxiliary policemen whose primary loyalty must not be to this particular job—this is kind of a hobby for them, a chance to go out and play cowboy, as it were—but to their regular jobs, and I suggest that this will not be to the best interests of our citizenry, nor also of our regular police force when this sort of legislation is passed. I think it is dangerous legislation. I think we ought to think more than twice before we vote "Aye" on this bill. I think we ought to think three times and then vote "No."

Mrs. HENZEL. Mr. Speaker, I regret very much that my colleague from York has chosen to depreciate the efforts of the auxiliary police who have already given much of their time and talents to this responsibility. I think if we look into the work the auxiliary police have done in communities, we will discover that they certainly have no desire to enact a role which is not theirs. Theirs is merely a public service. I think that those who would not see fit to support a bill of this sort are showing that they are not well acquainted with particularly the problems of suburbia as we have it today, wherein the population is growing fast, wherein the tax program does not support the kind of program which is necessary to have a police force that would be available for all situations at all times.

I think there is no danger at all of these auxiliary policemen taking the place of the regular policemen because of the fact that they are only used in cases of emergency, in traffic situations, in crowded areas and at times when regular policemen certainly can be used other places to a much more effective degree.

Therefore, it would be my request to the Members of the House, rather than rejecting such a bill as this, that we enable the communities that can avail themselves of the services of these auxiliary policemen without further putting a tax burden upon the people by enacting this legislation for the safety of the constituents which they represent.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I regret that the experiences of the gentleman from York, Mr. Gailey, with auxiliary policemen has been with the type that regard themselves as God, or regard themselves as cowboys. I think this is a reflection on his own community. In the county of Delaware our auxiliary policemen are well selected. They assist in times of emergency, times like Hallowe'en where you need help for our full-time police, and they are a credit to the community. I urge that the Members of this House vote for this bill.

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I have some questions I would like to ask on this bill. I have a lot of regard for the auxiliary police. I am the head of Civilian Defense in my home town and I know that these auxiliary police have been counted upon on a lot of occasions to help out. But, there are some questions that I do not know the answers to, perhaps the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Bell, can answer me, if he will permit himself to be interrogated.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Bell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not have a copy of the bill. I am not one of the sponsors, but if I can get a copy I will try to answer them.

Mr. WALSH. First, I would like to know what the difference between an auxiliary policeman and a special policeman is.

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I am not an expert on police but my own opinion would be one that would not be a legal opinion. I would assume a special policeman is a man who is sworn in for a special purpose or a special occasion. I would also assume, and again this is only my thinking, that an auxiliary policeman is a policeman who has been established as an auxiliary to the regular police force.

Mr. WALSH. I can accept that explanation. But the Burgess or the Mayor at any time can swear in special policemen if the need is there.

Another question I would like to ask: When these men are called out on special assignments, they they insured if something would happen? Say a man is on the corner as a traffic policeman, if he were to be run down, is there any insurance there?

Mr. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not know of my own personal knowledge, but I understand there is.

Mr. WALSH. Well, I have been told by the State Director that the only time these auxiliary policemen, the same as auxiliary firemen, are covered by insurance is when there is a state of emergency declared by the Governor and they are called out by their respective head, like the city of McKeesport, the Police Chief. Then they are covered for that time only; only for that assignment. As far as Workmens' Compensation is concerned they would have to be on the payroll. Understand, I have no objections to auxiliary police, but I feel that we are going too far here and we are allowing these gentlemen to assume that they are protected when they are not.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY MINORITY LEADER

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, before we proceed with the concurrences I want to report that the matter presented by the Majority Leader this morning was presented to our caucus. They have agreed to go along on concurrences this afternoon, without the necessity of their being on the printed calendar tomorrow.

However, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader in this fashion: if we go along today on concurrence I have been assured that the President of the Senate will sign the bills in the presence of the Senate, and will the bills be signed here today, or in the presence of the House, so that they can be transmitted forthwith to the Governor?

If you are going to leave the bills lie around in the Chief Clerk's office for three or four days there is no reason for any haste today, but if you want to get the bills on the Governor's desk today we will go along on those concurrences.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the entire sheet of concurrence bills that you have in your possession, if we can get them completed for the signature in both the Senate and the House today, they are to go pronto to the Governor's desk for signature.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection the Chair will lay the bills for concurrence before the House, in the order in which they appear on the Majority Leader's sheet. The Chair hears no objection.

For the information of the Majority and the Minority Leaders, House Bill 1157 will be the first bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the Majority Leader.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, at this point, for the information of the Members they have the check sheet the same as I have. They probably could have an opportunity to check anything they want to, but we will make the motions to concur and move as lively as we can. I believe, Mr. Johnson, there are about 50 bills?

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I want to say that when we arrived back from our caucus I received this sheet of the bills. I checked them with the bills that I took to caucus and they agree exactly. The sheet is exactly the way they were presented to our caucus. So, you may proceed with the bills according to this sheet.

Mr. McCANN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, then we will go right down the check sheet and I believe there are 50 bills in a row.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1157.

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Property and Supplies for payment to the Borough of Indiana for defraying the Commonwealth's share of expenses and charges in connection with the construction of a sanitary trunk sewer.

With the information that the Senate had passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is required.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 1 by striking out all of line 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the construction of a sanitary trunk sewer;" Section 1, page 2, line 5, by striking out after the word "incurred" the words "in establishing" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "by;" line 6, by striking out after the word "of" the words "acquiring holding" and by striking out after the word "constructing" the following: "improving maintaining and operating a sewage disposal plant and system for disposing of sewage from the Indiana State Teachers' College" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "A sanitary trunk sewer to carry the sewage from the western portion of the borough including the Indiana State Teachers' College to a point in White Township where it will connect with the main outfall sewer of the borough."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 2226.

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Insurance for the Governor's Hospital Study Commission to study and propose administrative improvements in hospital management.

With the information that the Senate had passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Amendments.
The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend bill, page 2, line 4, by inserting Section 2, as follows: "Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately but the funds appropriated shall be spent only upon receipt by the Department of Insurance of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) from nonprofit or other private organizations for the purposes of this act. If such money from nonprofit or other private organizations is not received by the Department of Insurance on or prior to April 1, 1960, the funds appropriated by section 1 of this act shall lapse on April 1, 1960".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1207

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1207.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 1207, entitled: "An act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled 'An act relating to the public school system, including provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto,' providing for payments on account of pupil transportation to certain additional school districts."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

PAUL L. WAGNER,
JOSEPH D. RIPP,
THOMAS H. EHRGOOD,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

JOHN J. MURRAY,
JOHN R. GAILEY, JR.
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" providing for payments on account of pupil transportation to certain additional school districts.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Section 2541 act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) known as the "Public School Code of 1949" amended February 17, 1956 (P. L. 1066) June 21 1957 (P. L. 385) and July 13, 1957 (P. L. 864) is amended to read:

Section 2541 Payments on Account of Pupil Transportation School districts shall be paid by the Commonwealth for every school year on account of pupil transportation which and the means and contracts providing for which have been approved by the Department of Public Instruction in the cases hereinafter enumerated an amount to be determined by multiplying the cost of approved reimbursable pupil transportation incurred by the districts by the [district] district's subsidiary account reimbursement fraction. In addition thereto the Commonwealth shall pay to school districts which own their own vehicles an annual depreciation charge of ten per centum (10%) to be calculated on the basis of the approved cost at which the district acquired the vehicle for which depreciation is claimed. With respect to vehicles purchased prior to January 1, 1956 the number of depreciation payments shall be limited to ten such payments. With respect to vehicles purchased on or after January 1, 1956 the annual depreciation charge shall not exceed seven hundred dollars ($700) for such vehicles. The number of annual depreciation charges shall be limited so that the total amount of such payments shall not exceed the cost of the vehicle as approved by the Department of Public Instruction at the time of the purchase. In no case shall the Commonwealth pay in depreciation charges more than ten thousand five hundred dollars ($10,500) for any one vehicle.

Such payments for pupil transportation shall be made in the following cases:

(1) To school districts of the fourth class and districts of the third class which are located wholly within the boundary lines of a township or within the boundary lines of a borough which has a population of less than five hundred (500) inhabitants to the square mile to districts of the third class operating schools jointly with districts of the fourth class or with other districts of the third class entitled to payment on account of transportation [and] to merged or union school districts in which one or more [such] of the component districts [are a component] were heretofore eligible for reimbursement on account of transportation and to school districts which were eligible heretofore for reimbursement on account of transportation for the transportation of elementary school pupils residing within any part of the district last served by any elementary school closed since the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred seven or within a district all of whose schools have been closed or who are assigned to a training school of a State teachers' college and in each case who reside one and one-half (1½) miles or more from the school to which they are assigned.

(2) To school districts of the fourth class and districts of the third class which are located wholly within the boundary lines of a township or within the boundary lines of a borough which has a population of less than five hundred (500) inhabitants to the square mile [and] to merged or union school districts in which one or more [such] of the component districts [are a component] were heretofore eligible for reimbursement on account of transportation and to school districts which were eligible heretofore for reimbursement on account of transportation for the transportation of any child living more than two (2) miles by the nearest public highway from the nearest school in session and to districts of the third class operating schools jointly with districts of the fourth class or with other districts of the third class entitled to payment on account of transportation for the transportation of any child living more than two (2) miles by the nearest public highway from the nearest jointly operated school in session offering the proper grades including pupils who are attending area technical schools.

(3) To all school districts for the transportation of physically or mentally handicapped children regularly enrolled in special classes approved by the Department of Public Instruction or enrolled in a regular class in which approved educational provisions are made for them.

(4) To all third and fourth class school districts for pupils transported to and from approved consolidated schools or approved joint consolidated schools or approved vocational district schools living one and one-half miles or more from the school of attendance.

Consolidated schools or joint consolidated schools or vocational district schools shall so long as they are approved by the State Council of Education as to organization control location equipment courses of study qualifications of teachers methods of instruction condition of admission expenditures of money methods and means of transportation and the contracts providing therefor constitute approved consolidated schools or approved joint consolidated schools or approved vocational district schools.

Vacancies happening before the expiration of a term shall be for the unexpired term.

The board hereby created shall have all the powers and be subject to all the duties imposed on advisory boards of State mental institutions by the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177) known as "The Administrative Code of 1929" to which this act is an amendment.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. HORST. Mr. Speaker, I rise to make a few remarks concerning this Conference Report.

House Bill 1861, the Conference Committee has decided to rip out the Pennhurst Annex from the bill, which will put 415 children's beds at Hamburg, leaving 585 new beds to take care of the children for whom we need so many more rooms, and there are so many more children to be taken care of in the mentally retarded and physically handicapped program of Pennsylvania.

By leaving these children at Mont Alto or Samuel G. Dixon, known as Pennhurst Annex, there is plenty of room to take care of all the TB patients from Hamburg which bill 1861 provides for.

I am pointing out that we are interested in saving money of this Commonwealth; we are also interested in seeing that the mentally retarded and the physically handicapped children are being taken care of.

If the Conference Committee report is adopted, it will mean that we will be defeating the purpose of taking care of these children.

I shall appreciate the support of each of you folks in this House in voting against transferring the children from Samuel Dixon to Hamburg.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the Conference Committee report on House Bill 1861, Printer's No. 1988, places the bill in the position in which it left the House following that long debate about those children and the TB patients.

As you will notice, the bill carries an item in there about the transfer of these particular institutions from one department to another. This bill must pass. This bill must go to the Governor to be signed. We are in a most peculiar position, in that we cannot even pay the few people who are left operating the Hamburg Hospital. I think you will remember the debate in this House regarding the children's program.

I know the situation of the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Horst, and certainly I can sympathize and understand his situation. But, Mr. Speaker, I ask for an affirmative vote to support this Conference Committee report, which was signed by all three Members of the House and the Senate.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. POLEN asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Appropriations to meet during the session of the House.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, is the Senate waiting for 1861's Conference Report notice, that we have passed it? Will a message be sent over to them as soon as possible so they may adopt it.

The SPEAKER. It is being processed but just what position in the assembly line it is in at the present time, the Chair would not know. It is being transmitted as expeditiously as possible. It is on its way.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 351, entitled:

An Act amending the "State Highway Law" of June 1, 1945 (P. L. 1242) providing for payment by the Commonwealth of damages occasioned by a change of width lines or grades of streets designated as State highways in cities of the second class A and third class.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 364) entitled "Business Corporation Law" changing the relationship of certain corporate directors to the corporation from fiduciaries to employees.

Mr. McCANN from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed House Resolution No. 132.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Pursuant to a resolution adopted Monday, June 15, 1959 the following bills were read the first time:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2048 entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 23, 1949 (P. L. 169), entitled, as amended, "An act to provide revenue for school districts of the first class by imposing a tax on persons engaging in certain businesses, professions, occupations, trades, vocations and commercial activities therein; providing for its levy and collection; * * *," defining "receipts," to exclude certain wholesome dealers in tobacco and tobacco products and making such definitions retroactive.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1187, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the George Jr. Republic Association Grove City Pennsylvania for construction of new buildings and repairs to and remodeling of existing buildings at the George Jr. Republic School in Mercer County Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 990, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 364) entitled "Business Corporation Law" changing the relationship of certain corporate directors to the corporation from fiduciaries to employees.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1968.

An Act imposing a tax on real estate for public school purposes in school districts of the first class and first class A for current expenses.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 446, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58), entitled "The Vehicle Code" establishing a registration fee for motor vehicles operated by certain persons subject to the Public Utility Commission and certain municipality authorities.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, as I recall, we have been asked to pass prior legislation giving the city of Philadelphia authority to tax buses coming into Philadelphia. Now we are being asked to vote on a series of bills giving buses a reduction in license fees and refunds of gasoline tax. This I would refer to as a give away to a select group.

I feel that the Highway Departments needs all the money we can possibly get for them. We voted for operators' license increases. We have voted for gasoline tax increases. Now we are asked to turn around and give them away. I think this is ridiculous legislation. I think the people who are using this mass transportation should be willing to foot the bills. I do not feel that we should be asked to subsidize transportation for any city or any community. I would ask that all the Members on both sides of the aisle vote no on this legislation.

Mr. CIOFFI. Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of Senate Bill 446, Printer's No. 1509.

This bill, I am sure, will help many communities throughout the state of Pennsylvania. I am quite familiar with my community which for six months was without any transportation and since that time the transportation system was compelled to sell out, and the city of New Castle had to buy the transportation system and even today is unable to carry on in a profitable manner. So, I know what it is to be without any transportation in a community.

I would hope that this particular bill passes because I am aware that many communities throughout the Commonwealth are affected in the same manner. I am sorry to say that I will have to differ with my colleague and I hope that Members on both sides of the aisle will favor this particular bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 447, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 22, 1931 (P. L. 694), entitled "An act imposing a tax on gross receipts as an excise on the use of the public highways by certain owners or operators of motor vehicles transporting passengers and property for hire" exempting from the tax owners or operators of certain vehicles.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Cioffi.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Lawrence will permit himself to be interrogated the gentleman from Fulton may proceed.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me the amount of money involved in 447, Printer's No. 1508?

Mr. CIOFFI. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, I do not know the answer to that.

Mr. GARLOCK. I thank the gentleman. The same remarks I made on House Bill 446 I would ask to have applied to 447.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1238, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959) entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County certain associate judges not learned in the law certain state officers and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly and repealing certain inconsistent acts" increasing the compensation of Judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate either the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee or the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, consent to be interrogated?

Mr. POLEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know how many judges there are in the County Court of Allegheny County?

Mr. POLEN. I think there are six in the County Court of Allegheny and one in Juvenile Court.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, there are seven. Thank you, Mr. Polen.

We are asking this House to pass this bill to raise the salaries of a court of limited jurisdiction, putting them on the same basis as a court with unlimited jurisdiction, which I believe is unrealistic. Certainly it is only going to be the beginning of a rash of bills to increase the judges' salaries all over this entire state.

In Allegheny County we have just gone through perhaps one of the most damaging strikes in the history of our county. These men, for the most part, are men with large families. They were striking, I believe, to get an additional ten cents an hour. Now with a roll call in this House we are about to give six men and one woman as much in a raise as these men will make through the whole of an entire year's salary.

It costs a steel worker just as much to live as it does a judge. It is my understanding that there is no money in the budget to pay this increase anyway. I certainly think we are not doing the right thing for the taxpayers of this state if we continue to go through a rash of increases in wages when there is no money to pay them.

For the record I would like to introduce a copy of an editorial that appeared in the Pittsburgh Post Gazette and also a letter to the editor that appeared in the Pittsburgh Press telling of one citizen's experience in our county court. You believe me it was not a very pleasant experience.

Editorial Pittsburgh Post-Gazette:

Why raise judges now.

A new bill to boost the annual pay of seven Allegheny County judges by several thousand dollars seems to us to have been offered without much forethought.

Sponsored by Republican Senators Robert D. Fleming and Democratic Senator Joseph D. Ripp the measure would increase the salaries of the Juvenile Court judge and the six county court judges from the present eighteen thousand (eighteen thousand five hundred in the case of the president judge) to twenty-two thousand five hundred.

This generous pay raise would put county court members on the same salary level as members of the Common pleas bench. But why erase the distinction question mark. It is true that the county court and the juvenile court have responsibilities comparable to those of the common pleas court in the handling of domestic relation matters, but the county court is a tribunal of limited jurisdiction. A maximum of two thousand five hundred dollars in civil claims cases, whereas the common pleas court is one of general jurisdiction.

If the salary boost came as a part of a plan to consolidate the common pleas and county courts into one tribunal of general jurisdiction it would be a logical proposal. But the General Assembly has given little sign of approving such consolidation as provided for in legislation introduced earlier this year. The bill was offered by Pittsburgh Representative Martin Mihm to implement recommendations of Common Pleas Judge Henry Ellenbogen under which the courts of this county would be merged into a single tribunal with different divisions to handle various kinds of judicial business, such as domestic relations and small claims cases.

County court judges have indicated approval of the merger idea but most common pleas judges have opposed it. From an administrative standpoint, consolidation makes sense and is in keeping with the national trend in court reorganization. But unless the common pleas judges are ready to support the change and the legislature is prepared to authorize it, we see no reason why. We see no reason to abolish the pay differential while it exists, it could serve as a lever to bring about reorganization.

Editor, The Pittsburgh Press:

We had a very disheartening experience in Allegheny County Court the other day. The case involved a small collection, attorney for the claimant. The claimant and his associate were in court at 9:30 a. m. The defendant was also present. We lost several hours time and then were ordered to return at 1:30 p. m., since our case could not be handled in the morning.

In addition there were upwards of 100 other people in court. All had been ordered by the court to be present to have their cases tried by a County judge. Only two judges were available. As a result only two or three cases were handled in the one day. We were turned away, and in addition almost everyone else.

Something is terribly wrong with our County Court when 100 people have to appear in court and only a few are heard. Why could not the number of cases planned for be cut down to the number that the two judges can handle? Conversely, why aren't there more judges available to handle so many cases? Justice can't be served under such conditions.

People shy away from trying to get justice, will let "Dead Beats" get away without having to face court. Everyone should know that "Professional Dead Beats" know about the chaos in County Court. These people deliberately "use" the courts to help them avoid payment for just claims.

SAMUEL REUBENE.

West View.

I think we are making a very serious mistake if we pass this bill today. I hope that it will not pass.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the Majority Leader.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman consent to the same roll call that was had on the previous bill?

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I am sorry, I would like to agree with the Majority Leader, but I cannot. I would like a slow roll call. I understand there are going to be some changes, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. RIGBY, GIBB and WORLEY. The roll was verified and was as follows:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, there is only one other bill that we will amend today. I am asking every Democrat Member on this side of the House, please do not leave Harrisburg. Be here tomorrow when we are in Session.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1043, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1907 (P. L. 135) entitled "An act relating to the appointment of stenographers and assistant stenographers to report proceedings in the several courts of common pleas and orphans' courts courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and courts of quarter sessions of the peace of this Commonwealth as well as before commissioners masters and special masters in chancery referees examiners auditors and other officers * * *" further providing for the giving of copies of notes of testimony in criminal cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GAILEY asked unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 5, line 5, by striking out "the time allowed for filing motions and reasons for new trial" and inserting: "one year from the date of the verdict, or at any time if such a request is made by an agency of the Commonwealth, or at any time if in the discretion of the court such request should be granted."

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of an amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, is that the entire list of bills now that were to be signed? Were we able to deliver 1968, do we have any action on it to deliver it over there?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has been informed that the Senate has adjourned for the day and that it is impossible to transmit them.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I requested Mr. Johnson to call so that someone could receive the bills. I suppose the only thing I can do now, of course, is tomorrow to have it taken over and it will get on the Governor's desk, but that will not be until late afternoon.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I called over to the Senate and I could not get any answer on any of the telephones, pursuant to your request.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, that completes the business for today then.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. We have just been informed by the Chief Clerk, in contact with the Secretary of the Senate, that the Senate adjourned at 7:00 o'clock until tomorrow.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. H. G. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Thursday, November 19, 1959 at 1:00 p.m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 8:15 p.m. EST) the House adjourned.

HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1959.

No. 114.

SENATE

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1959

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. MELVIN WALPER, Pastor of Zion's Reformed Church, Ashland, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Thou Who art the giver of every good and perfect gift, grant us in this Assembly the precious gift of Thy Holy Spirit so that, ruled and guided by Thee, we may do those things that are well pleasing in Thy sight.

We bring the prayers of this Senate to Thee on behalf of the President of the United States, the Governor of this Commonwealth and all others in authority in this and all lands. Make them to know the things which belong to Thy peace, that men everywhere may beat their swords into plow shares and their spears into pruning hooks, with nation no longer lifting up sword against nation and men learning war no more. Number us, we pray Thee, among the peacemakers, that we may have the reward promised by Jesus; the reward that we be counted among the blessed of earth and that the peacemakers shall inherit the earth.

May all the praise, all the honor and all the glory be Thine, now and forever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BERGER and Mr. BLASS, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, SERIAL No. 75, REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BERGER, from the Committee on Rules, to which was referred resolution offered by Messrs. STEVENSON, WHALLEY, WALKER and WAGNER, on October 14, 1959, reported the same without amendment as follows:

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY ALTERNATIVE MEASURES OF THE LOCAL ABILITY TO FINANCE PUBLIC EDUCATION

In the Senate, October 14, 1959.

Whereas, The equitable distribution of public school costs between state and local governments and among differently circumstanced direct and indirect beneficiaries of public education is of vital concern to the General Assembly; and

Whereas, The portion of public school costs borne by the state government of the Commonwealth has increased continuously over the past few decades and is now significantly above the portion borne by all state governments combined, and by the state governments of surrounding states; and

Whereas, The need for a comprehensive reexamination of the ability of local school districts to finance public education and of the ways to reliably measure that ability is imperative; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to study alternative measures of the local ability to finance public education and evaluate the effects consequent upon the use of alternative measures upon the division of public school costs between the state government and school districts and among different groups of taxpayers.

Laid over for one day under the Rules.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 871, Printer's No. 1735, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 900, Printer's No. 1193, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 954, on third reading entitled:

An Act defining and relating to installment land contracts in cities of the first class and providing for and regulating the rights and obligations between parties to such contracts under certain terms and conditions. be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I would ask that House Bill No. 954, Printer's No. 1364, on third reading go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is a motion before the Senate to recommit this bill.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I object to the bill going over in its order.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, am I to understand that it is the Chair's ruling that a request for a bill to go over in its order is out of order, after a motion has been made to recommit it?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. After a motion has been made and duly seconded to recommit, a request for the bill to go over in its order is out of order.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, may I ask the Chair whether a motion to put the bill over in order is in order after a motion has been made to recommit?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. We cannot have two motions at the same time. We can dispose of this motion and if the motion is defeated, then, certainly your motion to put it over in order would be in order.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I thank the Chair.

I wish to be recorded, Mr. President, as voting "no" on the motion to recommit this bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RE-REFERRED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1017, on third reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the abatement of nuisances arising out of hazardous unsafe or structurally dangerous buildings or premises in cities of the first class providing for the service or posting of notices relating to the work necessary to abate or posting of notices relating to the work necessary to abate such nuisances authorizing such cities of the first class themselves or by contract to abate such nuisances under certain conditions providing for the filing of liens for the cost of such work providing for appeals and imposing penalties.

be re-referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, it is the desire of the Minority that Senate Bill No. 1017 go over in its order. Since I am precluded from making that motion, if the gentleman will not withdraw his motion, I would ask to be recorded as voting "no."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

REQUEST THAT BILLS GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following bills, on third reading, go over in their order:

House Bill No. 1079, Printer's No. 732;

House Bill No. 1085, Printer's No. 733;

House Bill No. 1122, Printer's No. 1235; and

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I object to these bills going over in their order.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I move that the foregoing bills go over in their order.

Mr. EHRCOOD Mr President, I second the motion

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, for the same reasons as given before, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1189, Printer's No. 1591, on third reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. ELLIOTT. Mr. President, this evening we passed a bill, Senate Bill No. 1233, Printer's No. 1562, changing the names of the State Teachers' Colleges. I supported the bill and voted for it. Therefore, I cannot be, I hope, considered speaking in opposition to it now. However, as the rest of my colleagues in the Senate, I am vitally interested in and concerned about higher education, and because of the seeming, at least to me, importance of this bill, I feel compelled to make these few brief remarks about it.

I cannot, nor did I, argue against the name change of the State Teachers' Colleges and the altered purpose which they might follow. We most certainly have need for expanded higher educational opportunities and facilities in the Commonwealth, and it is far better and certainly much less expensive to enlarge existing facilities than to create new ones. However, since this change in the name has been effected, at least by the Senate, I respectfully suggest that some very serious thinking be done about any possible implications.

I do not doubt that competition will increase for the private liberal arts colleges. The latter will just have to be unique in their contributions and in what they offer academically. Yet, this is not the only possible effect and certainly not the most serious one.

If the State Teachers' Colleges are to become true colleges, can they continue to look upon themselves as a part of the public school system? This is all right when they are devoted only to teacher training. However, when they change their identity, if that is what they do, must they change their function as well? This is a question which occurs to me, and only a question that I raise. This would, or could possibly call for a complete change in the School Code. It might well be—and I do not know, but it might well be—that changes will have to be made concerning their relationship to the Department of Public Instruction, their internal administrative structure, and needfully, if not necessarily, to the boards of trustees. These institutions are now controlled by rules and regulations to the extent that they have virtually no individual identity. The presidents are responsible to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, to the board of presidents, to their boards of trustees, to the Department of Property and Supplies and so on.

If all the bill accomplishes is the deletion of a word, there can be little if any objection. Indeed, there is none on my part nor was there any. However, someone has to recognize the possible implications that this may entail. With this new name, what will emerge as the new purpose? Will the institutions continue as they have in the past, doing the fine job that they have done? Will they possibly grow, and grow uncontrolled, or will they grow controlled, knowing where they are going and what they are doing and what their new, if any, purpose might be, or will they spread too thin by offering too much that is new, and thus weaken their fine educational programs already in existence?

By all means, let the State Teachers' Colleges change their names if they wish. It is something which I have supported and am in support of. Let them expand if they wish, which is something the Commonwealth needs. However, I merely suggest that they consider the expansion, if such is the case, on a sound basis of operation, recognizing the many physical changes that might be required and their ultimate purpose, place and function in the whole field of higher education in the Commonwealth.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I, as a co-sponsor of the measure about which my distinguished colleague, Douglas Elliott, spoke, was thankful to the membership of this Body for unanimously adopting the proposition that we drop the word "Teachers" from the fourteen State Teachers' Colleges, as they are presently called.

Senator Elliott, as we all know, is vice-president of a very fine liberal arts college, Wilson College, and I know he is tremendously interested in our program of higher education in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He mentioned something about competition with the other liberal arts colleges. Competition never hurt anyone, and I think good competition will make for not only better State Teachers' Colleges, but will alert the other schools so that they will offer better courses.

The principal reason for the change is that it is becoming a national trend. There have been some twenty-seven States that have changed the name of their State Teachers' Colleges to State Colleges. In fact, our fourteen State Teachers' Colleges are State colleges. We own them and we run them more so than we do even our own Pennsylvania State University.

We have talked about setting up junior colleges throughout the Commonwealth. I think these fourteen State Colleges, set up geographically as they are, will offer many, many boys and girls an opportunity to get an education by being able to commute from their homes to attend one of these schools.

Certainly we want to continue these fourteen State Colleges—I hope we can drop the word "Teachers"; I want to get used to it—and certainly these fourteen institutions are going to, in the near future, I hope, plan to expand their field of learning. Their primary purpose is going to be to train teachers for our schools. I think they have done an admirable job. Some of our State Teachers' Colleges now have the right to give master's degrees in elementary education. Indiana State Teachers' College I think has some four hundred graduate students presently.

These schools offer facilities. They already have the buildings. Perhaps they do not have all of the facilities they will need when they expand, but it is certainly going to be a lot less expensive than to set up new institutions. Therefore, I think that is the main reason for the idea of dropping the word "Teachers" from the State Teachers' Colleges.

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President, I do not wish to talk on this topic at this time. At some later date, I may. If anyone else wishes to discuss this topic, I will yield to them.

I now yield to Senator Mahady, who wishes to speak on this topic.

Mr. MAHADY. Mr. President, a rose by any other name still smells as sweet. However, I think the remarks made by Senator Elliott should not be discounted at this time. There is no question about the fact that we have a problem of transition from an ox cart system of education to making it a modern one. This transition must be done with care and with thought. It cannot be done without co-ordination or direction. The questions which Senator Elliott raised are indeed deep questions. They are not to be shuffled aside lightly, nor are they to be discussed with the change of name, but rather they have substance to them.

I also leave with you, at this time, the fact that we have House Bill No. 1941 which is part of the progress necessary to lift this out of the high school approach as being the only approach to education. This bill provides for a State Council for the colleges, so that the colleges may direct and co-ordinate their own affairs. The very—shall we say—conflict that Senator Pechan raises here as to how far you shall go and where you shall go can only be adequately aligned by creating a system of education in this Commonwealth which is geared to a college level and a college end to education, rather than at the high school level. The Rules Committee should be reminded that House Bill No. 1941 is essential to the growth of modern education in Pennsylvania.

Mr. MULLIN. Mr. President, the only question in my mind at this time is, why are all these fourteen colleges so far away from the people that you have to be wealthy to go to them?

Mr. HAYS. Mr. President, I would like to call to the attention of the Members of the Senate, and the visitors present, that this is November 19. If you will look at this magnificent painting in front of us, you will see the title on it is "Gettysburg, November 1863." If the title were complete, it would read: "November 19." Therefore, on this anniversary, I think the Senate should not adjourn without at least calling attention to the fact that this is the ninety-sixth anniversary of the day on which Abraham Lincoln delivered the most distinguished speech ever delivered I think in the English language.

If it were not for the lateness of the hour, we would read or cause to be read the two and one-half minute Gettysburg Address.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE RECEDES FROM ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE SENATE TO HOUSE BILL No. 660

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has receded from its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 660, entitled:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, November 19, 1959

The House met at 1:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God and Everlasting Father, Thou Who art more ready to give than we to ask, and Thou Whose truth endureth to all generations; in the splendor of this day we come to Thee, beseeching Thee to look with favor upon us; and even though we deserve Thy chastening for our sins, be Thou merciful and forgiving. O God, we humbly entreat Thee, on behalf of this House of Representatives, to grant these servants of Thine the readiness to call upon Thee and the assurance that Thou dost hear and wilt answer prayer; give them the eternal truth which Thou hast shown to the world and challenge them to ever walk therein: through Jesus Christ, Thy dear Son, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Wednesday, November 18, 1959 will be postponed until printed.

The Chair hears none.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the House, of our present plans that are agreed to up to the present time.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, we will act on first reading and second reading bills, and we have three bills that we will vote on before we caucus today, when we do break for our respective party caucuses.

On page 8 of today's calendar are omitted two conference Committee Reports. I ask that everybody write, Senate Bill 379, Printer's No. 1609, Conference Committee Report, and Senate Bill 868, Printer's No. 1599, Conference Committee Report, which would make a total of five Conference Committee Reports that we would then be able to cover in our respective caucuses. The Conference Committee Reports are in print and on file on every Member's desk.

Mr. Speaker, in our caucus we will cover all third reading, final passage and Conference Committee Reports and come back here. We would act on them and we have a series of motions on concurrence and nonconcurrence to cover here today. At the appropriate time I will ask for the necessary motion for a recess for the respective party caucuses. We will have three roll calls before we go to caucus.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 118, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), entitled "The Administrative Code of 1929," increasing the compensation of certain members of the Pennsylvania State Police Force and fixing minimum subsistence allowances and creating a special board to pass upon the retirement of members who have attained the compulsory resignation age.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCANN asked unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Title, page 2, last four lines of Title, by striking out "AND GREAT—" in fourth from last line, and all of last three lines of Title.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 205), page 4, line 20, page 5, line 1, by striking out: "EXCEPT AS HEREINAFTER PROVIDED".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 205), page 5, lines 7 to 19, page 6, lines 1 to 16, by striking out all of said lines.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to go into detail on these amendments. I think everyone knows what they are doing. The gestapo has been working the last four days and I would ask for a division on this amendment.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill No. 118, Printer's No. 1592, the last section of the bill was amended. It deals with permitting State Police to be kept on at the discretion of a board that would handle this particular problem.

These amendments I have offered remove that section from the bill I ask that the Members vote on a division as requested by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hocker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

A division was called for, more than a majority of the Members having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair at an appropriate time will have something to say about the principle involved in this bill, but not at this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 940, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 12, 1957 (P. L. 833) entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor to acquire certain tracts of land for the use of certain state teachers colleges and making appropriations" increasing the appropriation for one tract.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 984, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" requiring certain school districts to provide chaperons when transporting school children in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Rules.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1106, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90) entitled "Liquor Code" changing the limit on retail licenses.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have someone explain the bill and the purpose of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Any Member of the House is entitled to debate the bill.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Williams.

Mr. A. D. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to debate the bill. However, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo, has asked that its purpose be explained, as I understand it.

In 1960, the Federal government takes its usual ten-year census. As a result of that census, the populations in many of the boroughs, townships and cities of Pennsylvania will increase considerably. Under the present liquor quota law you are permitted one licensee for each 1,000 population or any part thereof. The purpose of this bill is to change that ratio to one license for each 1,500 people.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman one question. Would this lower the number of licensees in this instance?

Mr. A. D. WILLIAMS. This bill will have no effect on existing licensees. No one will lose their license as a result of this legislation. In the future this will reduce the potential number of new licensees.

Mr. FILO. That is all. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 18, 1959.

Resolved (The Senate Concurring), That House Bill No. 2266, Printer's No. 1366, entitled "An act amending the act of June 2, 1891 (P. L. 176), entitled 'An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith,' changing the inspection period; imposing certain duties on mine inspectors, mine superintendents and foremen; requiring additional information on maps and plans and changing provisions relating to mine inspectors' reports," which was recalled from the Governor November 16, 1959, for the purpose of amendment be returned to the Governor without amendment.

RESOLUTION

PAYMENT FOR OFFICIAL BUSINESS

Messrs. McCANN and A. W. Johnson offered a resolution which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

Whereas, the increasing work of this House requires the presence of many Members at the Capitol on days when the House is not in Session, on official business, and

Whereas, those Members are put to extra expense in performance of their work, therefore be it

Resolved, that any Member who is called to the Capitol or elsewhere by the leaderships to perform services when the House is not in Session, shall be reimbursed at the rate of $20.00 per day, plus mileage, and be it further

Resolved, that the Chief Clerk is hereby authorized to pay out of the contingent funds under his jurisdiction, for such services during this biannual session of the General Assembly on requisition of the Speaker, the Majority or Minority Leaders of this House.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

A division was called for, more than a majority having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution was adopted.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. H. G. MILLER and AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

Today marks the birthday of the Honorable Joseph R. Holliday, our distinguished colleague from Hollidaysburg, Blair County, Mr. Holliday, who has retired from the business world, now directs his tireless and most capable energies toward the betterment of his community and State Government. Now serving his first full term in the House after having filled a vacancy which occurred during the preceding term, Mr. Holliday has proven himself to be a well qualified and devoted legislator.

The House takes this opportunity to show its appreciation and recognition of the many fine accomplishments of Representative Joseph R. Holliday and to express hope that it will have the honor and privilege of continuing its pleasant association with him for many years to come; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extends its heartiest congratulations to the Honorable Joseph R. Holliday upon the celebration of his birthday; and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall forward a copy of this resolution to the Honorable Joseph R. Holliday.

Members joined in singing "Happy Birthday," led by Mr. Dengler.

Mr. HOLLIDAY. Mr. Speaker and fellow Members of the House, I will not try to deny that this is my birthday and that I have passed a good many of them. Just how many, I will not say. However, I would like to say that the friendships and fellowships that I have acquired during this year of 1959 here in this distinguished legislative body make this a year and a day which I will long remember, and I wish to thank the Members for their tuneful greetings which they just expressed. Thank you.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1213.

An Act amending "The Mental Health Act of 1951" approved June 12, 1951 (P. L. 533) further regulating the payment of costs for the care of patients and limiting liability for such payment.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading on said bill was reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the Senate has non-concurred.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its amendments nonconcurring in by the Senate.

RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. TOMPKINS, WHITTAKER, Mrs. DONAHUE, Messrs. E. S. WILLIAMS, KESSLER, GOODRICH, STRAUSSER and MCINROY asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

Congressman Alvin R. Bush who represented the 17th Congressional District since 1951, died on November 5, 1959, following a heart attack.

Mr. Bush was born June 4, 1893, in Boggs Township, Clearfield County. He attended a country school until he was thirteen when necessity compelled him to work in the coal mines. In 1913 he obtained a job as a mechanic's apprentice in a Clearfield machine shop and later opened his own repair shop in Philipsburg. After the first World War in which Mr. Bush served with the Army in France, he founded a bus line in Philipsburg. In 1932 he moved to Williamsport where he and his son operated the Williamsport Transportation Company until a few years ago. In addition to his other business activities he purchased and modernized Wyno Farms where he produced one of the finest Guernsey herds in the country.

In the political field, Mr. Bush served as Lycoming County Republican Chairman from 1940 until his election to Congress ten years later. As a Congressman, Mr. Bush developed an extensive program to aid his district through Federal participation in flood control projects, highway improvement and many programs concerning agriculture.

The death of Alvin R. Bush marks the passing of an independent thinker, an honest and sincere person, a genuine friend to everyone he knew; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania extend their individual sympathy to his widow, Lucinda Bush, to his son, Alvin C. Bush and daughter, Mrs. John H. Eck and to each of the other remaining members of his family in their hour of loss; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to his widow, Mrs. Lucinda Bush, Wyno Farms, Muncy, R. D. 2, Pennsylvania.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF
CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 868

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses on Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows.

SENATE BILL No. 868.

An Act amending the title and act of June 17 1915 (P. L. 1012) entitled as amended "Small Loans Act" increasing the maximum loan to eight hundred ($800) dollars increasing the rates of interest on certain balances and extending the maturity limitation on loans.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am going to request a recess of this House for one hour for the purpose of a Democrat caucus, and during that period I ask that the Members bring with them their House calendars and immediately come to the New House Caucus room so that we may cover the entire calendar. The sooner we do that the sooner our work will be done here today. We will get a chance to rest up a little bit.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call a Republican caucus. Bring your calendars with you to the Republican caucus.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FOERSTER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the great holiday of Thanksgiving is just around the corner. I know many of us are in a quandary about what to do about one of our traditional Thanksgiving day dishes, cranberries.

Dr. Fleming of the United States Public Health Service has been going around the country pointing out the dangers in some of our cranberry crops. I have just learned that many of us, including myself, will be afraid to eat any cranberries on Thanksgiving, but now I see we have an expert in the House, one of our colleagues, Mr. Frank from Lehigh, who, I noticed in the House history of February 25, 1959, introduced a resolution called the "Cranberry Crusade."

This resolution states that he urges all restaurants serve larger portions of cranberries for their nutritive value.

I would like at this time to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Frank, my expert on cranberries.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Frank, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FRANK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FOERSTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how we are going to determine the fitness of these cranberries for consumption. Are we going to use some sort of a filter tip like the thinking man's cigarette?

Mr. FRANK. I would like to tell you, if you say you want to see some specimens, I happen to be a specimen. I have been eating cranberries for years. What I have here is not just cranberries, either.

Mr. FOERSTER. Mr. Speaker, is that a recommendation or a condemnation?

Mr. FRANK. A good recommendation.

Mr. FOERSTER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman at this time making any effort to amend this resolution which is now in the Committee on Rules to rule out the possibility of contaminated cranberries?

Mr. FRANK. No, I am not. After all, that is more of a Federal proposition than of the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. FOERSTER. Are you still serious about your resolution? Are you still trying to get it out of the Committee on Rules?

Mr. FRANK. I would like to get it out of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. FOERSTER. Are you going to introduce a discharge resolution to that effect, so we can eat our cranberries on Thanksgiving?

Mr. FRANK. I have more lawyers around giving me advice than I can hear.

Mr. FOERSTER. Mr. Speaker, I notice that part of the resolution in urging restaurants to serve larger portions of cranberries is to enhance the nutritive value of the meals. Now are you still serious about this resolution?

Mr. FRANK. I am very serious about that resolution. After all, we have had cranberries for a good many years. All of a sudden the Federal government wakes up and tells us that cranberries are contagious and would develop into cancer. You could contact some of the greatest doctors in the world and they will tell you that cancer does not start from cranberries.

Mr. FOERSTER. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRANK. Before I sit down I would like to tell you in Lehigh County the word "grumberries" means potatoes also.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 379

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 379.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 379, entitled: "An act amending the act of May 27, 1949 (P. L. 1903), entitled: "An act providing for powers responsibilities duties and limitations of the Governor, Adjutant General, Department of Military Affairs Pennsylvania State Armory Board, Military Reservation Commission in connection with the armed Military and Naval forces and the internal security of the Commonwealth for the definition organization, powers and limitations of the unorganized militia Pennsylvania National Guard Pennsylvania Guard Naval Militia Pennsylvania Naval Militia and for coordination with the government of the United States in the organization and functioning of the Pennsylvania National Guard and the National Guard of the United States apportioned the Commonwealth" providing that Colonels having certain service shall be placed on the retired list as Brigadier Generals.

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

SAMUEL B. WOLFE
ERNEST F. WALKER
PAUL W. MAHADY
(Committee on the part of the Senate)

MICHAEL J. NEEDHAM
FRANK P. CROSSIN
CHARLES A. AUKER
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act amending the act of May 27, 1949 (P. L. 1903), entitled "An act providing for powers responsibilities duties and limitations of the Governor Adjutant General Department of Military Affairs Pennsylvania State Armory Board Military Reservation Commission in connection with the armed Military and Naval forces and the internal security of the Commonwealth for the definition organization powers and limitations of the unorganized militia Pennsylvania National Guard Pennsylvania Guard Naval Militia Pennsylvania Naval Militia and for coordination with the government of the United States in the organization and functioning of the Pennsylvania National Guard and the National Guard of the United States apportioned the Commonwealth," providing that Colonels having certain service shall be placed on the retired list as Brigadier Generals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1, Section 836, act of May 27, 1949 (P. L. 1903), known as "The Military Code of 1949," is amended to read:

Section 836. Retirement of Commissioned Officers. Commissioned officers of the Pennsylvania National Guard or Pennsylvania Guard who have served in the Pennsylvania National Guard, Pennsylvania National Guard Reserve or Pennsylvania Guard, or all three whether as an enlisted man or officer for a period of twenty-five or more years, shall upon application made to the Adjutant General be retired and promoted to the next higher grade, provided he has served at least a period of one year in his highest grade while on the active list, otherwise, he shall be placed on the retired list at the highest grade held during his service. Provided further, That the Adjutant General furnish such officer a commission of new grade upon promotion following retirement. A commissioned officer of the Pennsylvania National Guard who has served in the Pennsylvania National Guard, Pennsylvania National Guard Reserve or Pennsylvania Guard or all three, whether as an enlisted man or officer for a period of twenty years, shall upon application made to the Adjutant General be placed on the retired list in the highest grade held during said active service. Provided, however, That in considering the period of service aforesaid the military service of such commissioned officer in the Pennsylvania National Guard engaged in the service of the United States or service in the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps Army of the United States or Coast Guard shall be included and counted double in calculating the period of service for retirement or retirement with increased grade under the provisions of this section. Any person (i) who has served at least twenty years as a commissioned officer of the Pennsylvania National Guard and has attained the grade of Colonel and who in addition thereto has served in the United States Army or Navy or the United States Army Reserves or Navy Reserves or any two or more of them for such additional period to bring his total active and reserve service including service in the Pennsylvania National Guard to a total of thirty-five years and who while on active duty in time of war has served as a District Commander for a period of at least two years or (ii) who has served and attained the grade of colonel in the Army of the United States and who has had a total active and reserve service of thirty-five years and who is and was during his total service a citizen of this Commonwealth shall upon application made to the Adjutant General be placed upon the retired list as of the grade of Brigadier General. The Provisions of retirement with increased rank shall be applicable when qualified to officer retired prior to passage of this act. Provided further, That the provisions of this act shall apply to deceased officers on the retired list upon proper application to the Adjutant General by some duly recognized veteran organization.

All retired officers shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their grade as retired officers of the Pennsylvania National Guard on all proper military and semi-military occasions.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference on Senate Bill No. 379.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would announce that in the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill 623 adopted yesterday there was a Printer's error, and, for the information of the Members and for the record, the report carried the name of the sponsor of the bill instead of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Fineman, who actually signed the official report and who was a Member of the Conference Committee. This is just for the record.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE
ON SENATE BILL No. 868

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 868.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 868, entitled: "An act amending the title and act of June 17, 1915 (P. L. 1012) entitled as amended 'An act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of six hundred ($600) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act' increasing the maximum loan to eight hundred ($800) dollars and extending the maturity limitation on the loans."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

HENRY J. PROPERT
A. R. PECHAN
MARTIN SILVERT
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

HARRY A. NAUGLE
JOHN H. DEVLIN
THOMAS A. FRASCELLA

(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act amending the title and act of June 17, 1915 (P. L. 1012) entitled as amended "An act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of six hundred ($600) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" increasing the maximum loan to eight hundred ($800) dollars increasing the rates of interest on certain balances and extending the maturity limitation on loans.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows.

Section 1 The title the first paragraph of section 1 and sections 2 and 6 act of June 17 1915 (P. L. 1012) entitled as amended "An act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of six hundred ($600) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act" amended June 2, 1953 (P. L. 262) are amended to read.

An Act regulating the business of loaning money in sums of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities fixing the rates of interest and charges therefor requiring the licensing of lenders and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act.

Section 1. Be it enacted &c That on and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any persons partnership association or corporation within this Commonwealth to make a loan of money credit goods or things in action in the amount or of the value of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities and contract for or receive on any such loan a rate of interest discount fines charges or consideration greater than six per centum (6%) per annum without first obtaining a license from the Secretary of Banking in Accordance with the provisions of this act.

Section 2 Any person persons copartnership association or corporation who shall obtain a license in accordance with the provisions of section one of this act shall be entitled to loan money with the provisions of section one of this act shall be entitled to loan money in sums of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less either with or without security to individuals pressed by lack of funds to meet immediate necessities at his their or its place of business for which said license is issued and to charge the borrowers thereof for its use or loan interest at a rate not to exceed three (3) per centum per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan not in excess of one hundred and fifty ($150) dollars and two (2) per centum per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of one hundred fifty ($150) dollars but not in excess of three hundred ($300) dollars and [one (1)] one and one-half (1½) per centum per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of three hundred ($300) dollars but not in excess of six hundred ($600) dollars and one (1) per centum per month on any remainder of such unpaid principal balance. In the case of loans made upon the security of tangible personal property physical possession of which is taken by the licensee the licensee shall not charge interest at a rate in excess of such rates as are provided for by the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven Number 51 (Pamphlet Laws 200) for loans of similar character or the rates provided by this act whichever are the lower. Provided however That in no event shall the rates charged exceed the rates provided by this act No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan No licensee shall induce or permit any person nor any husband and wife jointly or severally to become obligated directly or contingently or both under more than one contract of loan at the same time for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of interest than would otherwise be permitted by this section. No fees fines or other charges either in addition to or as a part of the above specified interest shall be charged or collected under any pretext whatsoever.

A contract for a loan under the provisions of this act shall not be made for a period in excess of [twenty-four (24)] thirty (30) months. Interest on any unpaid balances after [twenty-four (24)] thirty (30) months shall be payable at the rate of six (6%) per centum per annum. Interest shall not be payable in advance or compounded and shall be computed only on unpaid balances for the time that has lapsed at date of payment. Whenever a judgment is entered after the enactment of this act following the expiration of contracts made prior to the enactment of this interest shall be computed at the rate of six (6%) per centum per annum. If interest in excess of that hereinbefore prescribed shall be received by any licensee the said licensee shall thereupon lose all his right to collect or receive the interest allowed under this act and shall be entitled to recover from the borrower only the amount actually loaned together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum upon unpaid balances less any and all amounts already paid by the borrower on account of said loan either as principal or interest. Any person borrowing money from any licensee under this act who shall be charged and pay any interest in excess of that prescribed and allowed by the provisions of this act shall be entitled to recover back from the lender by action at law begun at any time within two years from the date of the last payment any and all sums of money so charged and paid in excess of the amount of the original loan together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum upon unpaid balances up to the date of final payment of said loan and in addition fifty ($50) dollars as a penalty to be paid to the borrower.

Section 6. A. Every person copartnership association or corporation licensed under this act or any partner director officer agent or member thereof who shall violate any provision of this act or shall direct or consent to such violation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred ($500) dollars for the first offense and for each subsequent offense a like fine and to suffer imprisonment not to exceed six months or both in the discretion of the court.

B. Every person copartnership association or corporation or any partner director officer agent or member thereof who shall directly or indirectly as principal agent or broker by any device subterfuge or pretense whatsoever charge contract for or receive any interest discount fees fines charges or consideration greater than six per centum (6%) per annum upon the loan use or forbearance of money goods or things in action or upon the loan use or sale of credit of the amount or value of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less without having obtained a license under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five hundred ($500) dollars or more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars or to suffer imprisonment of not less than six (6) months or more than three (3) years or both at the discretion of the court.

(C) No loan of the amount or value of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less for which interest discount fees charges or consideration greater than six per centum (6%) per annum has been charged contracted for or received except as authorized by this act wherever made shall be enforced in this Commonwealth and the borrower shall not be required to pay any principal interest or charges whatsoever. This provision shall not apply to loans legally made in any state which then has in effect a regulatory small loan law similar in principal to this act.

D. The payment of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less in money credit goods or things in action as consideration for any sale or assignment of or order for the payment of wages salary commissions or other compensation for services whether earned or to be earned shall for the purposes of regulation under this act be deemed a loan secured by such assignment and the amount by which such assigned compensation exceeds the amount of such consideration actually paid shall for the purpose of regulation under this act be deemed interest or charges upon such loan from the date of such payment to the date such compensation is payable. Such transactions shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this act.

E. The payment of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less in money credit goods or things in action as consideration for any sale of real or personal property which is made on condition or agreement expressed or implied that such property be sold back at a greater price shall for the purpose of this act be deemed to be a loan secured by such original purchase price actually paid shall be deemed interest or charges upon such loan from the date such original payment is made until the date such repurchase price is paid. Such transaction shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this act.

F. When real or personal property is pledged as security on a loan of [six hundred ($600)] eight hundred ($800) dollars or less such charge for insurance shall be construed as interest under this act when the lender has failed to have such insurance written by an insurance company legally authorized to conduct business in Pennsylvania. When the amount charged for such insurance is in excess of the standard cost of similar insurance in other insurance companies legally authorized to conduct business in Pennsylvania the excess shall be construed as interest under this act.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective thirty days after final enactment.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House adopt the report of the Committee on Conference on Senate Bill No. 868.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 505

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 505.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 505, entitled: "An Act amending the act of August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1304) entitled 'An act to improve local health administration throughout the Commonwealth by authorizing the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health in all counties except counties of the first class exempting certain municipalities from the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health permitting the dissolution of departments or boards of health in certain municipalities authorizing State grants to counties which establish departments of health and to certain municipalities if they meet prescribed requirements conferring powers and duties upon the State Department of Health in connection with the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health and administration of the health laws in parts of certain municipalities not subject to the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health and the administration of State grants and repealing an act which confers health powers upon counties of the first class' extending the provisions thereof to counties of the first class and to municipalities located in counties of the first class and providing for the dissolution of and withdrawal from certain departments of health."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

ROBERT D. FLEMING,
A. R. PECHAN,
CHARLES R. WEINER,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

J. DEAN POLEN,
STEPHEN McCANN,
EDWIN W. TOMPKINS,
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act amending the act of August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1304) entitled "An act to improve local health administration throughout the Commonwealth by authorizing the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health in all counties except counties of the first class exempting certain municipalities from the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health permitting the dissolution of departments or boards of health in certain municipalities authorizing State grants to counties which establish departments of health and to certain municipalities if they meet prescribed requirements conferring powers and duties upon the State Department of Health in connection with the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health and administration of the health laws in parts of certain municipalities not subject to the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health and the administration of State grants and repealing an act which confers health powers upon counties of the first class" extending the provisions thereof to counties of the first class and to municipalities located in counties of the first class and providing for the dissolution of and withdrawal from certain Departments of Health.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The title and subsection (a) of section 3, act of August 24, 1951 (P. L. 1304) known as the "Local Health Administration Law" are amended to read.

An Act to improve local health administration throughout the Commonwealth by authorizing the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health in all counties except counties of the first class, exempting certain municipalities from the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health permitting the dissolution of departments or boards of health in certain municipalities, authorizing State grants to counties which establish departments of health and to certain municipalities if they meet prescribed requirements, conferring powers and duties upon the State Department of Health in connection with the creation, establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health and administration of the health laws in parts of certain municipalities not subject to the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of health and the administration of State grants and repealing an act which confers health powers upon counties of the first class.

Section 3. Definitions: The following terms whenever used in this act have the meanings indicated in this section except where the context indicates a clearly different meaning.

(a) "County" Any county of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth class.

Section 2. The act is amended by adding after section 5 a new section to read.

Section 5.1. Dissolution of and Withdrawal From County Departments of Health.

(a) When a single-county department of health is created it may be dissolved by a referendum conducted in accordance with the procedure set forth in subsection (c) hereof.

(b) When a joint-county department of health is created any county being a member thereof may withdraw from the department by conducting a referendum conducted in accordance with the procedure set forth in subsection (c) hereof.

(c) A petition requesting the dissolution or withdrawal shall be signed by qualified electors of the county equal in number to at least one per centum (1%) of the highest total vote cast for any county office at the last municipal election, the petition shall be in the form required for nomination, petitions by the election laws of the Commonwealth except that the said petition shall be circulated no earlier, than five years following the date of establishment of said county health department or joint-county health department and shall be circulated for not more than six (6) months prior to the last filing day which shall be ninety (90) days before the general or municipal election at which it is desired to submit the question. The petition shall be filed with the county board of elections and the validity of the petition and any objections thereto shall be determined in accordance with the election laws of the Commonwealth.

After the validity of the petitions in all the counties affected has been determined, the county commissioners shall cause the question to be submitted at the next general or municipal election whichever is sooner so long as such election is to occur at least thirty (30) days after the validity has been determined, the question shall be submitted on the ballot or on voting machines in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth and shall be in substantially the following forms:

(1) For the dissolution of a single-county department of health

ShallCounty dissolve its county department of health
Yes
No

(2) For the withdrawal from a joint-county department of health

ShallCounty withdraw from the joint-county department of health
Yes
No

The election on this question shall be governed in all respects by the election laws of the Commonwealth insofar as they are applicable. For the dissolution of a single-county department of health or withdrawal from a joint-county department of health a majority of all votes cast in each county upon the question must be in favor thereof.

(d) When in the case of a single-county department the voters elect to dissolve the department or in the case of a joint-county department the voters elect to withdraw, no new department of health may be created by resolution nor may the commissioners resolve to join with another county or other counties to create a joint department within five years of such dissolution.

Section 3. Section 15 of the act is amended by adding after subsection (d) a new subsection to read.

Section 15. Procedure by Which Exempt Municipalities May Become Subject to Jurisdiction of County Department of Health Eligibility for State Grants.

(e) Any municipality located in a county of the first class having a department or board of health may receive State grants as provided in section 25 of this act.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. M. H. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, will the Majority Leader consent to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

Mr. M. H. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, referring to the amendments put in by the Senate and substantially concurred in by the Conference Report, do they mean the County Health Department must be in existence for a period of five years and after the five-year period has elapsed then by referendum the County Health Department can be eliminated?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, as an example, suppose the county health plan had been put in operation in 1957; then five years later, or in 1962, provided one percent of the citizens petitioned the election board, it could be placed on the ballot to be voted on whether to remain a part of this plan, to withdraw, or as the other part of the amendment indicates.

Mr. M. H. GOLDSTEIN. Thank you.

Mr. Speaker, this bill, when it originated in the House was an appropriation measure. The addition of the provision for a referendum is not an appropriate rider to an appropriation measure. For that reason we intend to vote against the bill.

We received telegrams from the Allegheny County Medical Society indicating its opposition to the passage of this report in its present form.

Another reason why this bill should not be passed is this: If the Allegheny County Health Department is in existence for five years, and then one percent of the voting population decides to have a referendum, and should it be approved, tell me how you can unscramble the eggs and return the county health department to scores of other local areas which have had them heretofore? For the more important reason that the rider should never have been attached to the appropriation measure, we oppose this particular measure and ask for a slow roll call.

Mr. DONALDSON. Mr. Speaker, we—the editorial "we"—seem to be having a little trouble in Allegheny County this week.

I hate to do this, but I must disagree with my colleague, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Goldstein. I feel that the addition of the referendum amendment to this bill is a good addition, and makes a better bill. I think the bill as it recently passed is a good bill in doing for Philadelphia what every other county is entitled to have, but the original county health department bill provided the option of establishing them either by referendum or by action of the county commissioners without referendum.

I think then that adding the further option of abolishing the units if they prove unsatisfactory either by action of the board of commissioners or by referendum, is in keeping with the original act and therefore is a good addition. As I said, the editorial "we" does not include the present speaker at this time, anyhow.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill 505 is not an appropriation bill.

To begin with this is an amendment to the local county health law. If you will look at the report you will see that the basic amendment which we agreed to in the Conference Committee at the time we were dealing with appropriations, dealt with, on page 5, inserting any county of the first class. The present law was second, counties. In a Conference Committee agreement on the appropriation, in placing in the appropriation bill the sum of $3.3 million as was agreed for the Philadelphia County health plan, this bill had to be amended to give them that right so that the money could be properly handled under this law.

I do not mind saying that basically I feel there should not have been any additional amendments to the bill, other than permitting the counties of the first class to be a part of it. But since these amendments have been placed in it, and this is the best that can be agreed to, to secure the passage of this bill I ask that the Members support this measure and adopt this Conference Committee Report on House Bill 505.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. FOERSTER filed the following reasons for his vote on the Conference Report on House Bill No. 505.

Opposition to county health departments dies hard in Pennsylvania. The legislative snipers are busy again in Harrisburg, attempting to open the way to constant harassment of health departments through public referendums.

This would be accomplished through a rider attached to a bill giving the Philadelphia Health Department the same subsidy of 75 cents per capita received by county health departments in Allegheny, Bucks, Butler and Erie Counties.

Philadelphia has not been receiving this subsidy because its department was set up prior to the enactment of Local Health Administration Law of 1951, which made provision for the subsidy in lieu of direct state services.

It is only fair that Philadelphia should receive the same payments made to other county health departments. The amount of subsidy due Philadelphia—$3,300,000 a year—was agreed upon and included in the recently approved general appropriations bill. Before the money can be paid, however, it is necessary to pass an authorization bill. That was done by the House but when the measure hit the Senate, a rider was attached permitting a referendum to abolish county health units upon petition of only one percent of the voters at a prior election.

If that measure passed, county health units could be subjected to persistent political harassment. Public health officials would always be on the defensive. Lack of stability would demoralize departments and prevent the recruitment of qualified personnel.

While the danger to a department which has functioned as long as that in Allegheny County probably would not be great, this technique of harassment could discourage the creation of new county health departments. And this, of course, is precisely what the farm lobby and certain township officials have in mind. They have never reconciled themselves to the acceptance of county health units, seeing in these organizations threats to their own ways of doing business.

We feel that the opponents of county health units have always been wrong. They shouldn't be permitted to sneak this rider in on the Philadelphia bill in the waning days of the session.

Even if their motives were commendable, which they aren't, this isn't the proper way to legislate. The proper way would be to conduct hearings, give interested parties an opportunity to express their views and, in general, show the sort of responsibility expected of representative government. The amendment should be rejected and Philadelphia should be given its money.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mrs. M. S. KOOKER filed the following reasons for her vote on House Bill 505:

I had to vote against this Conference Committee Report although I favor allowing Philadelphia the right to participate in the County Health Program.

We in Bucks County are generally satisfied with the program though we at times question some expenditures. I fear that allowing one percent of the population to petition for the end of the Health Program will make this fine program a political football.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2218

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2218.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 2218, entitled: "An Act appropriating all revenues exceeding a stated amount over the aggregate amount appropriated by the General Assembly for all purposes for the reduction of the bonded indebtedness of the Commonwealth."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report.

ROBERT D. FLEMING,
HENRY J. PROPERT,
FRED B. ROONEY,
(Committee on the part of the Senate.)

J. DEAN POLEN,
JEANETTE F. REIBMAN,
EDWIN W. TOMPKINS,

(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act appropriating all revenues exceeding a stated amount over the aggregate amount appropriated by the General Assembly for all purposes for the reduction of the bonded indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. All revenues recived by the Commonwealth payable into the General Fund during the fiscal biennium beginning June 1, 1959 in excess of five million dollars ($5,000,000) over the aggregate amount heretofore appropriated by the General Assembly for all General Fund purposes and executive authorization made according to law shall be applied and are hereby appropriated for the reduction of the bonded indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

Such excess revenues shall be applied as nearly as possible in equal proportions to the various sinking funds created for the reduction of said indebtedness.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2218.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2324

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2324.

The report of the Committee of Conference was read as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 2324, entitled: "An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals."

Respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.)

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Public Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The sum of twenty-eight million dollars ($28,000,000) or as much thereof as is necessary is appropriated to the Department of Public Welfare for the two fiscal years, beginning June 1, 1959, to be by it paid to the hospitals, hereinafter, designated in the amounts hereinafter specified for the purpose of the maintenance of such hospitals in accordance with the rules and regulations issued by the Department of Public Welfare and the Department of the Auditor General as prescribed by law at the rate of ten dollars ($10) per diem but not to exceed the regularly established ward rate, nursery rate, pediatric rate or any lesser rate contracted between the hospital and patient for the medical and surgical services rendered to and maintenance of persons treated in the hospital who are entitled to free service such rates to include only room, board and general bed care but not to exceed rates charged other classes of patients or the actual cost to the hospital of such services and maintenance whichever is the least and all moneys received on account of the care of the patient shall be reported as a credit against the gross earnings of free and part pay service chargeable against this appropriation.

Section 2. Any unexpended balance of the appropriation as determined by the Department of the Auditor General shall be allocated by the Department of Public Welfare and the Department of the Auditor General among the hospitals, the amounts for which herein specified have not been sufficient to pay for the services rendered by them to persons entitled to free service in the proportion which the total amount to which each hospital is entitled under the formulae set forth in section 1, hereof, and for which it has not been paid bears to the total of such amounts of all the hospitals that have not been paid in full. The amount allocated to any hospital shall not be greater than the amount to which the hospital is entitled under the formulae set forth in section 1. All amounts so allocated shall be paid by the department to the hospitals entitled thereto in the manner prescribed by law.

Section 3. Except in cases of accident or emergency only bonafide residents of Pennsylvania shall be entitled to the free service provided for in this act.

Section 4. All participating hospitals shall file a report with the Department of the Auditor General within ninety days of the last day of each quarter. Failure to file the report timely as required hereunder shall disqualify the institution from receiving an appropriation for the quarter covered by the untimely filed report.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Stevens,
Whittaker,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL No. 1238

Mr. DEVLIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1238, Printer's No. 1597, entitled:

"An Act amending the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959) entitled 'An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly and repealing certain inconsistent acts,' increasing the compensation of Judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County."

was defeated on Final Passage Wednesday, November 18, 1959, be reconsidered.

Mr. KAMYK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Devlin, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. DEVLIN. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kamyk, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. KAMYK. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RIGBY. I would like permission, Mr. Speaker, to speak very briefly on the motion.

I am opposed to the motion. This bill had a fair shake yesterday. It was voted on fairly and defeated. It is bad legislation and I do not believe that it should be brought up again at this time. I am going to ask for a slow roll call and only those voting on it be counted.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I bring to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny that we are now in the 11th month and I hope in the final days of this Session we have an agreement which has never been broken to this day, that any person on any bill desiring to offer a reconsideration motion, even though you opposed the bill in itself, we have not to this day opposed the opportunity to present the bill for the second vote.

The basic courtesy of the House has always been extended and I believe I had no knowledge of opposition to the reconsideration motion until this moment. I have no objection to the position of reconsideration, I believe the bill should be given that opportunity and then voted accordingly. If you recall, we have reconsidered at least 100 motions in this Session, I am sure, in which always that prerogative was granted to the sponsors or the people who had the deepest interest in the bill.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the Majority Leader would allow himself to be interrogated?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I have never knowingly been discourteous to anybody although I may have been. But, I wonder and I believe in the past the reconsideration motions were put on the postponed calendar. Now, what I would like to know from the Majority Leader is will he place this upon the postponed calendar?

Mr. McCANN. No, Mr. Speaker, that is not true. On one other bill, one other reconsideration motion in this Session was brought right up and voted on. I believe it was defeated at that point, but it can be done either way. The reconsideration motion to place the bill on the final passage postponed calendar does not meet with my approval. I believe it should be reconsidered and voted on—if it passes, it passes—if it falls, it falls.

Mr. RIGBY. Of course, Mr. Speaker, that is where the Majority Leader and I sort of disagree. Will the Majority Leader agree to place it upon the postponed calendar?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I will oppose placing it on the postponed calendar, but that decision in the end rests on the prerogative of the House, for if you make the motion after the reconsideration, we have to follow accordingly. I would oppose the motion that would be made at the proper time to place the bill on the final passage postponed calendar.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I do not like to break precedent here. This is objectionable to me, what I am doing now; it was objectionable to me yesterday, the position that I have had to take, because I have never been an "aginer." But in the interest of saving time I would yield to the Majority Leader with the hope that in his wisdom he will place it upon the postponed calendar and do the right thing so this bill can be considered properly. I do not think it has been considered properly. It has been one of those things that has been rushed through, and certainly should have been introduced in the early part of this Session and we should not start to muscle things through now. If they had the money, I would not be here.

Mr. M. H. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I will give you a constructive reason for approval of a motion for reconsideration. According to the newspaper reports, 105 people voted for this bill. Accordingly to the newspaper reports, the speaker was absent without leave. This is probably the first or second time in five years that I have missed a Session. The particular newspaper which indicated that probably felt I was ducking the issue. I never duck an issue, and for the information of that paper, I was on a forum with the associate editor of that paper. I ask to have the opportunity of voting on this bill and voting aye today.

Mr. Speaker, somebody told me they thought I meant the Speaker of the House, I meant yours truly here. I have very little opportunity or chance to become the Speaker, indicated by the number of votes I get for my discharge resolutions.

Pertinent to the previous motion, why I wanted it to be reconsidered, it is because I had requested that I have the opportunity of voting on the bill and asked to have it held over for today. For some unknown reason, and I am not placing responsibility upon anybody, it was voted on yesterday. I will tell you today what I would have said yesterday as to why I am for the bill.

The Allegheny County Court is not only a court of limited jurisdiction insofar as the amount is concerned, but it is the court in our county which handles all the administrative law of the county. Let me recite to you what administrative law the County Court now possesses under its jurisdiction. It has appeals in the following matters: mercantile tax assessments, occupational diseases, appeals of tenure from the Department of Public Instruction, Workmen's Compensation cases, appeals from the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, appeals from motor vehicle license suspension, appeals from liquor suspensions, criminal jurisdiction, property assessment appeals, zoning boards appeals and civil service ruling appeals.

Therefore, you can recognize that the jurisdiction of this court is rather more extensive than you would have thought under first impression.

Another reason, which is perhaps somewhat projecting myself into the future, I am for this bill so that the county court judges will get the same salary as the common pleas court judges. There has been much movement in our county for the consolidation of the courts, and I hope to see the day when all our courts are consolidated. Under this particular bill they will now receive the same pay as common pleas court judges. I intend to vote for consolidation of our courts if the bill ever comes up. In addition, I look to see and hope for the day when we will have an administrator, an administrator of our courts, and he can best administer his duties by having one consolidated court and by having judges on an equal basis.

Finally, I would like to say this: the county court has been referred as the poor man's court. The poor man is entitled to the same degree of justice as the others. I hope we pass this bill today and the county court judges will be on an equal plane with the common pleas court judges of Allegheny County.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DEVLIN. Mr. Speaker, I want to make my position clear. I am opposed to this motion of Mr. Rigby's and ask the members to vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

A division was called for, seventy-four Members having voted in the affirmative and one hundred and two in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RIGBY. I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCANN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman tell me first, is there any money set aside to pay these judges. I do not know how many you have in Philadelphia County, but you have seven in Allegheny County.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I think that was covered yesterday, but I will yield to the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, dealing with the appropriations to the judicial branch, the number of persons involved and the amounts.

Mr. POLEN. I presume, Mr. Speaker, that the question was really, are there any funds provided in the budget. Is that correct?

Mr. RIGBY. Additional funds, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLEN. There are no additional funds in the budget for this particular amount. If the gentleman will permit me, I would say, however, that in the course of human events, as there have been in the past, there will be a number of vacancies in the courts. This money comes out of the judicial appropriations, which would take care of probably a good part of this.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is telling me a certain number of judges die and they are going to absorb that to pay this raise, which certainly does not seem realistic to me.

Now then, I would like to ask the gentleman further, if there is no money in this budget and all the judges live, and I hope they do, where in the name of goodness are they going to get this money?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I hope all the judges do live, as far as that is concerned, but I said, in the course of human events that has happened in the past and vacancies had not been filled as promptly as they occurred and the result was that some money was available. Now in this particular case, what would happen if this bill would become law, is, there is plenty of money in it to run it within the last month of 1961, that is the end of the biennium. We will also have the opportunity to correct this in January of this year at the financial session we will have. It is not absolutely necessary at this time that it be budgeted, but to answer the gentleman correctly, I would say this amount is not in the budget.

Mr. RIGBY. Well, Mr. Speaker, would it not be wise under the conditions to wait until the next session and put this additional money in the budget, then the following year give these poor judges the increase then?

Mr. POLEN. Well, Mr. Speaker, of course, it is our intention, if these bills pass, to put the money in that will be needed, if any is needed. Now in this particular, we will not know until at least sometime in January of 1961, when we are back here, if any money is going to be needed, so there is no necessity for appropriating it now. However, we could appropriate it in the session that will come in January of 1960.

Mr. RIGBY. Well, Mr. Speaker, is it not true that His Excellency, the Governor, made a statement at his Press conference that he would sign no legislation unless there were funds provided to pay for it?

Mr. POLEN. I think that is the position of the Governor, but I would say in this particular case, with this amount involved, funds will be available out of present tax revenues to pay for it.

Mr. RIGBY. Then, Mr. Speaker, at the Press conference His Excellency, the Governor, did not mean exactly what he said because I thought he did not believe in deficit spending. Does he believe in it or does he not?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, he definitely does not believe in deficit spending. He has repeatedly made the statement that he will not sign bills costing money in excess of the realistic tax estimates as prepared by the Department of Revenue and certified by the Budget Secretary and he will not do so, but I say so far as this particular bill is concerned in the revenue estimates that we have at this time, if we want to use the full amount of what it would take, it would be available and he could sign it. I am not saying he would sign it, Mr. Speaker; I do not know.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, is it not reasonable to believe that all the judicial districts in this state are going to come in with the same type of legislation for increases for the other judges, and can the gentleman tell me if they all get $4,000 a year increase, how much that will be and also where the money is coming from?

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, unless you do it in the next few days, that will be something we will not have to face until the 1961 session. So, if the General Assembly in its wisdom decides to give the judges $4,000 or whatever they do give them, they will certainly have to provide the money for it. But that situation we will not face until then because that type of legislation cannot be considered in the 1960 Session.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, would it not be wise then to hold these bills over until they are in position to pay this huge sum? It is going to be a huge sum when you are through.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, of course, it is a huge sum if I was going to have to pay it, but when we talk about budgets that we have here in the Commonwealth, it is not such a large sum in comparison. The total amount to pay the entire amount of this increase under Senate Bill 1238 is $43,920, if all the judges remain fulltime and there are no vacancies or if vacancies would be immediately filled. That would be the maximum amount it would cost. But I again reiterate, in the light of past experience, there has been money normally, considerable money, that has been lapsed on account of the vacancies that were not immediately filled.

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman agree that these are not normal times?

Mr. POLEN. Well, I do not know exactly what the gentleman's definition of "normalcy" is, but it seems to me things are just about the same. I would say they were normal times.

Mr. RIGBY. Thank you, Mr. Polen.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to say just a few words about this. I repeat the statement of yesterday, we are about to increase the salary of a group of men with limited jurisdiction, putting them on a basis with the higher courts, so to say, the common pleas courts.

Now this same group, I want you to remember, gentlemen, were here four years ago for a $4,000 increase and a pension that would pay them 80 percent of their salary. Now they are back today and they want $4,000 more. Suppose every other judge in this state, doing just as well as the judges in Allegheny County, and who would be just as much entitled to an increase of $4,000, comes in, this thing is going to snowball out of all proportions.

I want to call your attention today to something that is on our calendar. We, the magnanimous House, are going to give our State Policemen $300 a year increase. Now, the steelworkers spent 118 long days trying to get an increase in pay that would have meant $300, approximately $380. Now where is the reasoning in it?

Some of the clerks in this House, we were good enough to give as much as two dollars a day. Then you have this "selfish seven" from Allegheny County coming in here and wanting $4,000 increase which you do not have the money to pay, and we, who are sent here to protect the taxpayers' interests, are completely ignoring this. Read your daily newspapers and see what they think of us, how they feel about it.

Mr. Goldstein said the consolidation of the courts would help them out. I say that is all right but let us wait until the consolidation comes, and until that comes this bill certainly should be defeated.

We are giving these men as much of an increase as the total salary of our State Policemen will be for a year. And I want to tell this House it costs the State Policeman and the steelworkers, just as much to live as a judge. For the most part, they have larger families. It costs them just as much to buy a loaf of bread, a pound of butter or a pound of meat.

What are we coming to? Are we going to allow this thing, this high cost of government, to continue on and on? We have been elected to this House to stop the increasing costs of government and I say to you, this is the time and the place right now today to do it. And if we do not do it, we are not living up to the oath of our office.

A great number of people who are voting for this today talked to me and told me they do not care about it, they do not want it, but they are voting for it for personal reasons that you can guess. Mr. Speaker, I want a slow roll call and a real slow roll call.

Mr. EILBERG. Mr. Speaker, yesterday this House passed a bill which increased the salary of our Municipal Court Judges in Philadelphia to the same level as the Common Pleas Judges in Philadelphia. The vote on that bill was 120 to 53. I am sure I am not alone when I say that after both bills were considered and voted upon there was some feeling among some Members of the House, that we, some of us from Philadelphia were working in our own behalf and our own interest and not helping Pittsburgh to do what it wanted to do, what a substantial number of the Members from Pittsburgh wanted to do. I want to say, Mr. Speaker, that simply is not so. Many of us from Philadelphia, not only worked for the Philadelphia bill but we also worked for the Pittsburgh bill. As emphatically as I know how I want to say that is the truth.

As far as the bill that is presently before us for reconsideration is concerned, I say what is good for Philadelphia is also good for Pittsburgh. You can not make fish out of one and fowl out of the other. I say if you did it for Philadelphia you must in good conscience do it for Pittsburgh.

Mr. M. H. GOLDSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I have heard the address of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rigby, in which the members of the Allegheny County Court are referred to as the "selfish seven," and an indication that some of us vote for a selfish reason. Everybody knows that I am a member of the Bar of Allegheny County and I am voting for this bill because I want to vote for the bill, and nobody is compelling me to vote for the bill. I am doing it on my own, and Mr. Rigby and nobody else can read my mind. I want to tell the Members on both sides of the House that I believe I am the only Member in the House of Representatives who voted against any pay raise for anybody, including myself, and I will not believe that the man that spoke in favor of this bill can claim that record.

Mr. FILO. I would like to interrogate Mr. Rigby.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rigby, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RIGBY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen. I just heard a fervent plea for the steel workers in Allegheny County and the state of Pennsylvania. I would like to ask the gentleman how he voted on a bill, an abatement bill, just two days ago that fell by two votes. How did the gentleman vote on that bill helping steel workers?

Mr. RIGBY. First, Mr. Speaker . . .

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair rules that the interrogation is out of order.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE INSISTS ON AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 660, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 1, 1889 (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred seventy-nine" continuing in effect the rate of tax of fourteen mills heretofore imposed upon the gross receipts of certain companies limited partnerships associations joint-stock associations copartnerships and persons and imposing the tax upon the gross receipts of gas companies and municipalities engaged in gas business.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its non-concurrence and concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DOUGHERTY. I rise to oppose the concurrence in House Bill 660. As this bill affects Philadelphia, I ask all the Philadelphia Members to vote against this concurrence.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, this is not a concurrence bill; it is a motion to recede and then to concur in the amendments.

I ask the Members of this House to support my position to recede from non-concurrence in Senate amendments and that the House concur in the amendments.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I most seriously object to this procedure. We had no prior knowledge that you were going to recede from the amendments on this bill. We had no opportunity to discuss the motion to recede.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman yield?

For the information of the gentleman, the motion is not to recede from the amendments but to recede non-concurrence in the amendments.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1822 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. McCANN offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That House Bill No. 1822, Printer's No. 1806, entitled "An act amending the act of March 19, 1951 (P. L. 28), entitled 'An act relating to the civil defense of this State and its coordination with national defense; providing for the establishment of a State Council of Civil Defense, local and district councils of civil defense, Mobile Support Units; prescribing the powers, duties and immunities thereof, and of their personnel; authorizing mutual aid compacts, and providing penalties,' making the Secretary of Health a member of the Council, and further defining the powers and duties of the Council with reference to peacetime radiation, dangers and disasters," be recalled from the Senate for the purpose of further consideration.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of Senate Bill No. 1043, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1907 (P. L. 135) entitled "An act relating to the appointment of stenographers and assistant stenographers to report proceedings in the several courts of common pleas and orphans' courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery and courts of quarter sessions of the peace of this Commonwealth as well as before commissioners masters and special masters in chancery referees examiners auditors and other officers * * *" further providing for the giving of copies of notes of testimony in criminal cases.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1106, entitled:

An Act amending the "Public School Code of 1949" approved March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30) defining "educational secretary" and providing for their certification.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1280, entitled:

An Act amending the "Pennsylvania Election Code" approved June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1333) increasing the minimum compensation of election officers in certain counties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Elections and apportionment.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I merely want to confirm this motion to recommit. In looking at this bill since we came from caucus, I find that in effect it nullifies election board official increases which we had approved previously this Session. For that reason I can see no reason why we should nullify what we have given to them. Therefore, I second the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2018, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 29, 1945 (P. L. 1132) entitled "An act providing for the health and safety of persons employed in and about coal mines in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania * * *" further regulating the salary of the first aid and mine rescue instructors.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROVANSEK. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 2018, Printer's No. 1976, all it does is increase the salaries and brings them up to about what the companies pay their instructors, or a difference of $568 a year. That is all the bill does, and I would request that the Members vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. KOOKER, Mrs. B. Z. MILLER, Mrs. KERNAGHAN, Mrs. HENZEL and Mrs. MARKLEY offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

Today marks the birthday of one of our distaff members, Mrs. Ruth S. Donahue, a member of this House since 1955.

Without counting the number of birthdays that have passed, Mrs. Donahue was born this 19th day of November, at Cedar Spring, Pennsylvania.

In representing the people of her communities, Mrs. Donahue has demonstrated her ability and sincerity and has done much as a member of this House of Representatives to foster sound and needed legislation; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives extends its heartiest good wishes to Ruth S. Donahue on this her birthday, with the sincere hope that she may long continue to lend her services to the better interests of her community and the accomplishments of this House of Representatives.

Members joined in singing "Happy Birthday" led by Mr. Dengler.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the lady from Clinton, Mrs. Donahue.

Mrs. DONAHUE. Mr. Speaker, I thank the ladies for this most flattering resolution. I also want to thank all the Members present for the "Happy Birthday." For the three terms I have been here I have enjoyed this friendship and I am very grateful for the many kindnesses shown to me. Thank you.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. SCARCELLI (on behalf of the members of the Philadelphia Delegation) offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

The Honorable James J. Dougherty, a member of this House since 1949, served this session as Chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic Delegation.

The fidelity and dedication which he brought to his post and the efficiency with which he executed his duties are of such high quality that the members of the House are impelled to take formal note of his achievements.

The value of his services to the City of Philadelphia is immeasurable, and that city has never been better represented in this hall than it is in the person of Jim Dougherty. Although never forgetting that he is first a Pennsylvanian, he has constantly championed the cause of Philadelphia with such earnestness that now every member of this House is aware of Philadelphia's problems, and with that understanding has come sympathy; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives congratulate James J. Dougherty on a good job well done and that the members of the Philadelphia Democratic Delegation for themselves and on behalf of the people of Philadelphia express their gratitude for his service; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be presented to James J. Dougherty.

Mr. SCARCELLI. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call Representative James Dougherty to the microphone.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dougherty, will proceed forthwith to the microphone and join Mr. Scarcelli.

Mr. SCARCELLI. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Philadelphia Democratic delegation, I wish to present to Jim Dougherty this resolution on the work he has done for Philadelphia, the great city.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Dougherty.

Mr. DOUGHERTY. Thank you, Vince.

Now I do not know what to say. You got me this time. I am very thankful to the Members of this House, especially to the finest delegation that I have ever been connected with. I only wish they would think as much of me as I think of them. Let me tell you this: They have been called wooden Indians and what not, but I want to tell you that when we get behind the doors of the caucus room we have to slug it out. It is not one man just waving a magic wand, and coming up with the answer. I have to fight for it.

I want to thank every Member of this House for giving me this wonderful gift.

SENATE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1959.

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John Morgan Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. RUTH:

Our dear heavenly Father, as we approach our national Thanksgiving Day, we realize how good Thou hast been to us and how many things Thou hast given to us. Many of them we do not understand or even appreciate, and not the least of them is that we are living in a land where a boy or girl from a poor and humble home can rise to the top in the church, in government, in business, in industry and in every walk of life. We pray that we may always keep it that way in our land.

We thank Thee for what Thou hast given us here, and we know that Thou hast many more things in store for us. Perhaps we are not worthy of them, but because of Thy great love for us, Thou art continually pouring Thy blessings out. We receive them and, in our way, we thank Thee.

We pray that Thou will accompany us to our homes, guide us there and when we return, that we may be renewed in vigor and strength and courage and faith to do the work for which Thou hast called us.

We ask it in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1207, Printer's No. 1987, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1861

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the report of Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1861, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177) entitled "The Administrative Code of 1929" transferring the building known as Pennhurst Annex No 1 located at Samuel G Dixon State Hospital at Mont Alto and the State Hospital at Hamburg to the Department of Public Welfare and creating a board of trustees.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. ELLIOTT. Mr. President, as a member of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 1861, Printer's No. 1988, I went along with the committee and approved the Conference Committee Report, and signed the Conference Committee Report. I did so, I must say, a little reluctantly and under pressure; reluctantly because it meant that an amendment which I had hoped would have added several hundred additional beds for the mentally retarded would not be maintained. This was an amendment which had professional medical support, and an amendment which had the support of, certainly, many of my colleagues in the Senate. However, it had to be withdrawn, but it was an amendment which, in its real meaningfulness and importance, would, I thought, have helped alleviate the situation where we do have at least 3,000 mentally retarded people waiting to get in somewhere; waiting to get in somewhere badly, I should say. For example, in The Philadelphia Inquirer, of Thursday Morning, November 19, 1959, there was an article about these mentally ill children who languish at the Youth Study Center in Philadelphia. It called the center "a bureaucratic no man's land." However, it emphasizes the fact that there just are not enough institutions and not enough beds for these people to go to.

This is the only thing that we were trying to provide in this amendment, and it was with reluctance that it was given up. The pressure was internal pressure; pressure not put on me from the outside, but pressure which I put on myself because of certain innocent victims of this whole scheme. First of all, concerning the people who are employed at the Miner State Hospital at Hamburg, if this bill were not approved, these people could not be paid. These are then innocent victims, who are not allowed to be paid simply because of a technical problem connected with this bill.

Of course, the real innocent victims were those 600 or 700 mentally retarded people who eventually, and I hope soon, will be moved into the Miner State Hospital at Hamburg. Were this bill not passed, these people could not be moved into the hospital, and they would then certainly be innocent victims.

Therefore, to avoid further delay and for these reasons,—and also because long ago I stood on this floor and said that I would not see this bill fall simply because of an amendment, which, while trying to get more beds for patients, apparently was not able to fit into the scheme of things and would hold up the bill—I did sign this report and I am now about to move for its adoption by the Senate.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I want to commend the Senator for his remarks, and say that it is refreshing to have such a description of the operation of such an old-fashioned entity as conscience within the breast of a Senator of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

SENATE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1861

Mr. ELLIOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate adopt the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1861.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

He also presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 1116 RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

November 19, 1959.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1116, Printer's No. 1334, entitled "An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 1216), entitled 'An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and providing for the licensing regulation and supervision of resident and nonresident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business' redefining real estate broker and salesman and deleting the provisions relating to limited licenses."

This bill amends the "Real Estate Brokers License Act of one thousand nine hundred and twenty nine." Its purpose is to revise the meaning of "Real Estate Broker" and "Salesman" and hence to limit the act's regulatory scope so as not to include any officer or employe of a cemetery company who might sell cemetery plots, lots and the like.

Under the present law, those who seek to engage in such activity must be approved by the State Real Estate Commission as persons who on the basis of their backgrounds may be expected to deal honorably with the public. The existence of such law, as it has been diligently enforced by the Commission, has enabled our State, unlike many others to avoid the "racket" which specializes in the sale of "bogus" cemetery lots.

However, our fortunate condition would be jeopardized by the enactment of this amendment. It would exempt persons engaged in the sale of cemetery lots from the regulatory scope of this act without providing for any effective substitute form of public protection. This bill therefore is not in the public interest.

Our position has the support of the State Real Estate Commission which goes beyond foreseeing the public harm to predicting the harm to the real estate profession, itself, which may follow from this amendment. For, the Commission recognizes that while the amendment may exempt cemetery lots from the Real Estate Licensing Law, the public will not observe the distinction. Should the sales of these lots be made in an unscrupulous manner, the public will identify them, as it has in the past, as real estate transaction and hold the real estate profession responsible.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE.

The PRESIDENT. The communication, together with the bill, will be laid on the table.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the first reading of all bills reported from committees for the first time at today's session.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Senate Bill No. 863,
Senate Bill No. 1158,
Senate Bill No. 1161, and
Senate Bill No. 1194.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. VAN SANT. Mr. President, during this past week we have had on our Calendar Senate Bill No. 1204, which today appears on Third Reading on page 10.

This bill was introduced on September 29, 1959, and was in the Rules Committee until a little over a week ago when the bill was reported to the floor. In that period of time, there was no objection to Senate Bill No. 1204, but force has created much pressure and caused me personal embarrassment in regard to the contents of that bill.

I would like to preface my remarks with a further statement that I am not speaking with personal animosity, but rather taking this means as the quickest means to advise the citizenry of Pennsylvania that some misinformation has gone into their hands regarding this bill.

Unfortunately, I do not have a copy of the flyer that has been sent out. However, evidently it has gone to over 11,000 inspection stations here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have been receiving, in the past two days, telegrams containing erroneous material, some of which are nasty in their content in so far as my sponsorship of the bill is concerned.

It has been reported to these stations—I hope to have a copy of that flyer before I finish speaking—that the cost involved in the installation of the brake testing equipment, or the brake measuring equipment, would run between $1,700 and $2,000. I would like to break down that information with a telegram that I have received from the Motor Vehicle Research Institute:

"The national list price of the best motor vehicle research brake meter is $69.50 to any garage."

This is a big avenue of error, the difference between $1,700 to $2,000 and $69.50.

In order to further establish my figure, I contacted the Inspection Department of the Bureau of Highway Safety and, at that time, they told me that this equipment has already been approved. It has been approved by the Bureau of Highway Safety of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and is available to inspection stations. Again, the cost is cited as being less than seventy dollars.

I would like to side-step rather briefly and point out the embarrassment that was caused me. On one day this week, a delegation of businessmen from my community took time from their businesses to come here to Harrisburg to sit with me and talk with me, a group with whom I have always had the finest relations and always co-operated within so far as their legislation is concerned, and that is a record of nine years' standing.

I have now received a copy of the bulletin that has gone out. For the record, I would like to read it:

"A legislative proposal (Senate Bill 1204) was introduced in the Senate by Senators Van Sant and Sarraf, which would require every Pennsylvania Inspection Station to purchase a brake testing device, and it is in position for final passage in the Senate.

"The bill reads:"—I will not read the bill because it is on the record. The next paragraph states:

"This is entirely unnecessary and would mean an expenditure on your part of up to nearly $2,000, depending on the type of brake testing machine you would be required to purchase.

"As you know, under present law all motor vehicles are checked for brake lining, brake hose and the vehicle is road tested. A brake testing machine would serve no purpose.

"TAKE THIS ACTION IMMEDIATELY—and this is capitalized.

It continues:

"Wire the sponsors of this proposal, namely, Senator John T. Van Sant, Lehigh County, and Senator George J. Sarraf, Allegheny County, Senate Chamber, Main Capitol Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, expressing your objection to this proposal and requesting the bill be recommitteed to committee."

In order to save these men the price of a telegram is one of the primary reasons I have taken the floor here, in order to call attention to the fact that there is no need to send this telegram, nor am I discussing the merit of the bill, but only pointing out that they have in their possession a flyer which misrepresents the facts.

Therefore, I would ask the press and the other Senators, who I know are going to be called by this group while we are in recess, to explain that this information is incorrect.

I never, in the nine years that I have been a Member of this General Assembly, have ever hoped nor ever wanted to get on the floor of the Senate or the House and take this means of attacking someone. For that reason, I have avoided names of persons and organizations, and I do not want in any way to embarrass them. However, at the same time, when they start causing personal embarrassment for me or any other Member of this General Assembly, I wish they would get their facts straight and present them to the members of their organization in a true and correct form.

RECESS

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I request a recess of the Senate until 1:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any objections? The Chair hears no objection, and declares a recess of the Senate until 1:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, November 20, 1959

The House met at 10:00 a.m. EST.
The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend David R. Hoover, offered the following prayer:

O Lord God of all life, and the Father of all mankind, Thou art the hope of each one of us; without Thee and Thy abiding assurance man cannot expect to find the peace and security which Thou hast promised. Our hope is in Thee. Lift us to such a level of living that with positive faith and steadfast convictions we may witness to our fellowmen of that active hope which stirs and motivates our actions. Ever keep alive that hope within each of us that as the days go by the future may belong to us because of the dependency which we place in Thee. And to Thee be the honor and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection ,the approval of the Journal for Thursday, November 19, 1959 will be postponed until printed.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2096, entitled:

An Act relating to water well drillers * * * providing for the revocation of suspension of licenses and prescribing unlawful acts and penalties.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON asked unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 2, page 3, line 5, by inserting after "materials": "(iii) drilling water wells for or by oil or natural gas operators, whether or not such wells are located on oil or natural gas leases."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of an amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, the question that the Minority Leader wanted to know was about the Senate sending over the adjournment resolution. The adjournment resolution has arrived, and the resolution sent over by the Senate says that the House adjourning today would reconvene November 30th and the Senate will reconvene November 30th.

The SPEAKER. The Resolution will lie upon the Speaker's table until the Members of the respective caucuses have returned to the Hall of the House.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. BRETH and ANDREWS

HOUSE BILL No. 2458.

An Act amending "The Fish Law of 1925" approved May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), exempting inmates of State institutions from license requirements.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE RECEDES FROM AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has receded from its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 1592, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" providing for an operators license period of two years and fixing fees relative thereto and permitting the Secretary of Revenue to divide motor vehicle operators into categories and to vary the issuance and expiration dates of operator's licenses in accordance therewith.

SENATE MESSAGE

HOUSE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1592.

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" providing for an operators license period of two years and fixing fees relative thereto and permitting the Secretary of Revenue to divide motor vehicle operators into categories and to vary the issuance and expiration dates of operator's licenses in accordance therewith.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1592.

An Act amending the act of April 29, 1959 (P. L. 58) entitled "The Vehicle Code" providing for an operators license period of two years and fixing fees relative thereto and permitting the Secretary of Revenue to divide motor vehicle operators into categories and to vary the issuance and expiration dates of operator's licenses in accordance therewith.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to make it clear. Did the Senate recede from its amendments on House Bill 1592? Is that what was announced?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. SHERMAN. Then the House version of the bill passed?

The SPEAKER. The effect of the action taken by both Houses is that the bill has passed without amendment, and is now on its way to the desk of the Governor.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 476

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg.

November 19, 1959.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 476, Printer's No. 1663, entitled "An Act amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P.L. 1225) entitled 'An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto' providing for additional annual charges to be paid by the Commonwealth for the benefit of counties township roads and schools."

This bill is intended to impose upon lands held by the Game Commission an annual charge of one cent per acre for the benefit of the county in which the lands are located, an annual charge of one-half cent per acre for the benefit of roads in the township where the lands are located and an annual charge of four and one-half cents per acre for the benefit of the schools in the respective school districts in which the lands are located.

This bill would impose what are in effect taxes on lands held by the Game Commission while leaving exempt all other instrumentalities of the Commonwealth which hold real estate. There is no just reason to single out the Game Commission for the imposition of this onerous burden.

For this reason, the bill is not approved.

DAVID L. LAWRENCE.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. RENWICK. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto message from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. McCANN from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, House Bill No. 2458, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fish Law of 1925" approved May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), exempting inmates of State institutions from license requirements.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Pursuant to a resolution adopted Monday, June 15, 1959 the following bills were read the first time:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2458, entitled:

An Act amending "The Fish Law of 1925" approved May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), exempting inmates of State institutions from license requirements.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask at this time for a recess so that the respective caucuses may act on bills on final passage, third reading, bills on concurrence in Senate amendments, conference committee reports and a resolution. I am asking for a recess of one hour for the purpose of a caucus, and ask all the Members to bring their House calendars with them. The sooner we get down to the caucus room and get the work done, the sooner we can get out of here, after we act on the resolution for the coming week.

Mr. A. W. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in connection with the announcement relating to the Republican caucus, I should like to say we will go to the caucus room immediately. We can do our work in about half an hour, which will give the Members an opportunity for lunch.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Members come to the New House Caucus room immediately with their calendars.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the Chair will declare a recess for one hour.

The Chair hears none.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

Mr. LOPRESTI IN THE CHAIR.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2319

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I present the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 2319.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. RIGBY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have here a copy of an editorial that appeared in the Pittsburgh Press, Friday, November 13th. This is an editorial by, I believe, the most outstanding editorialist of this state, Robert Taylor. The heading of is "The Court and the People." I am not going to take any time in extolling the editorial or the writer, but in it he makes very clear the very serious thing that is happening with our courts. The courts originally were formed for the people, where they belong, and they are fast, much too fast, becoming courts of the judges.

I would like permission to enter this into the legislative record.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the Journal, and the article will be incorporated in the records of the House, without objection. The Chair hears none.

Mr. RIGBY submitted the following article from the Pittsburgh Press dated Friday, November 13, 1959.

Courts and People

THE actions—and non-actions—of the State Legislature raise a question of whether the lawmakers in Harrisburg believe the courts of Pennsylvania belong to the people or to the judges who now preside over them.

Item 1 is the proposal to establish an administrative office of the State courts and a Judicial Council to help cope with the overload of cases in some courts and to strengthen the administration of justice.

This plan was proposed by Governor Lawrence and Attorney General Alpern. The system already is in effect in the Federal courts and in 21 states. It is supported by the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania, Charles Alvin Jones.

But most judges in Allegheny County and Philadelphia are either lukewarm or actively opposed to the plan. Curiously, these two jurisdictions are the places that gave rise to the proposal, for it is in these two counties that the big backlog of untried civil cases now impedes justice.

The court administration bill now is in a House committee.

Item 2 is the Ellenbogen plan, which would consolidate the Common Pleas and County courts of Allegheny County in such a way that the combined court could make full use of an expanded judicial manpower, and the transition would be made without interrupting the term of any judge presently in office. The plan also calls for establishment of various divisions to handle the work of the court.

This plan, which also would aid in coping with the backlog of untried cases, also rests quietly in a House Committee.

Item 3 is the proposal to add four new judges to the Allegheny County Common Pleas court. This is the remedy backed by President Judge William H. McNaugher and other members of the present court, who object to Items 1 and 2 above, for coping with the backlog of untried cases. It also is in a House Committee, with bipartisan backing.

Item 4 cropped up the other day, it is a bill, also with bi-partisan backing, introduced in the Senate, to increase the salaries of Allegheny County's six County Court judges and the Juvenile Court judge. They now get $18,000 a year ($18,500) for the president judge) and would get a raise to $22,000 and $22,500 yearly, putting them virtually on the same salary schedule as Common Pleas judges, although the County Court is a tribunal of limited powers.

This bill also is in committee. Why it should have been proposed at this time, with so many unresolved questions concerning the organization and strengthening of our courts, is a puzzle with no very clear answer.

The immediate problem in our courts is the backlog of untried civil cases, about two years long, in the two large cities of the state. Translated from dry legal statistics into terms of human beings, the existence of these backlogs means that we are denying justice to the litigants, many of them men, women and children who have suffered damage and are powerless to get redress until their cases come up.

The correction of this condition should be the first order of business when it comes to legislation affecting the courts. The bills to improve the court system should get priority. Those adding more judges without any improvement in court procedures, and those raising salaries should be side-tracked until we find means of improving judicial administration.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. FRANK asked an obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in 1955 a certain House Member used to make this statement on the floor. We have heard it many times. The statement was, "Who is kidding who?"

It is about time we, the House Members, stand on both feet and not allow the other House to dictate to us.

A few weeks ago a newspaperman stated in his column that the other House was more intelligent than we are. I am starting to believe that. The other House seems to rule us on the sine die issue. It is about time we, the Members, present a resolution for final adjournment. It costs the taxpayers approximately $7,000 a day to keep us in Session. It is about time the public should know that we, the House, are in favor of an adjournment, but the other House is playing checkers. Why do we allow the other House to lead us by the nose? Let's close shop and go home. The public is fed up with shenanigans. I wish to end by stating, "Who is kidding who?"

It is stated that many House Members would like to go hunting in November. If we do not get out of here soon, we will have trouble hunting voters the following year.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 2324

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses on House Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, November 19, 1959.

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That House Bill No. 1822, Printer's No. 1806, entitled "An act amending the act of March 19, 1951 (P. L. 28), entitled 'An act relating to the civil defense of this State and its coordination with national defense; providing for the establishment of a State Council of Civil Defense, local and district councils of civil defense, Mobile Support Unites; prescribing the powers, duties and immunities thereof, and of their personnel; authorizing mutual aid compacts, and providing penalties,' making the Secretary of Health a member of the Council, and further defining the powers and duties of the Council with reference to peacetime radiation, dangers and disasters," be recalled from the Senate for the purpose of further consideration.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. RENWICK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. How did the gentleman from Greene, Mr. McCANN vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. How did the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Renwick vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. RENWICK. Mr. Speaker, I voted with the prevailing side.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. McCANN asked unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 4), page 3, line 15, by inserting after "MATERIALS": Provided, That any such action taken, and any regulations adopted by the council, shall be inapplicable to any objects or materials possessing a radiation-producing capacity less than that set forth as the maximum safety limit by the standards endorsed, and as may be subsequently endorsed, by the United States Atomic Energy Commission for the protection of life and property and the maintenance of health and safety.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of an amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.
